Quakers Lose Initial Tilt Of Season to Emory-Henry

FINAL SCORE 30 - 6

Turner, Roche, Sichel, Griffin Are Shining Lights in Guilford Line-up.

ELLER IS HIGH SCORER

Griffin Makes Lone Touchdown; Retrieves Fumble and Races 37 Yards in Third Quarter.

Opening with Emory-Henry at the latter's home grounds, the Guilford varsity dropped their first start of the season last Saturday night, to the tune of 30 to 6.

The Guilfordians put up a scrappy game from start to finish, but weather conditions, and the superior play of their opponents were too much for them. During the entire course of the game, a steady drizzle fell.

Emory-Henry got off to a quick start, registering their first score before the game was five minutes old. With Eller and Marshall doing the work, they marched to the Guilford goal-line, where Eller slipped over on an off-tackle run. The kick for extra point was low.

Sands, Emory tackle, blocked Newman's kick, and recovered on the 11-yard stripe early in the second quarter. Eller again carried it over, making the score 12 to 0, when the try for point failed.

Emory-Henry scored three times in the fourth quarter. After a series of line plays, and off-tackle runs, Eller lit the line for a gain of seven yards, to register his third touchdown of the game. The try for point was again bad. Later in the quarter, after an exchange of punts, Eller crashed through left tackle, and raced 37 yards for his fourth consecutive score. The try for point failed. Emory's fifth and final score came with but three minutes of play before the whistle. Wilde, substitute Emory end, intercepted a pass to run 30 yards, behind perfect interference, crossing the goal line standing up.

The Guilford score came midway in the third quarter. Griffin, who played a bang-up game at end, snatched the ball out of the air on an Emory fumble, and with plenty of interference, raced to the goal line 30 yards away.

The Guilford passing and kicking was outstanding. Roche, who bore the brunt of the kicking burden, kept the "Wasps" well into their own territory the greater part of the game, with his long, well-placed punts.

Turner, star right half, displayed a superior brand of play with his passing and ball carrying. With Griffin and Bowers on the receiving end, he threw the ball for several long gains, tossing the wet, slippery oval with amazing speed and accuracy.

Captain Newman, playing the signal post, directed the team well, and did some fine blocking. On the line, Sichel at left tackle played the outstanding defensive game of the evening.

MEN'S PHYSICAL ED. CHANGED THIS YEAR

Those men who have attended the physical education class periods for two years do not have to attend these classes this year. Nevertheless, to meet the physical education requirements, they must take some kind of exercise at least three times a week, and report it to the assistant physical education director, or to Coach Anderson.

Those who do attend the classes will play soccer, volleyball, speed ball, touch football, and basketball. There will also be boxing, wrestling, and tumbling during part of the year.

Football Schedule

Sept. 15—Emory-Henry at Emory-Henry.
Sept. 22—Wake Forest at Wake Forest.
Sept. 29—Naval Apprentice at Newport News.
Oct. 6—Roanoke at Salem.
Oct. 13—Hampton-Sydney at Hampton-Sydney.
Oct. 20—Catawba at Salisbury.
Oct. 27—Randolph-Macon at Greensboro.
Nov. 3—Lenoir-Rhyne at Guilford.
Nov. 10—Western Carolina Teachers at Guilford.
Nov. 29—Elon at Greensboro.

GIRLS PHYSICAL ED. PROGRAM IS BEGUN

Hockey, Soccer, Basketball, and Softball Are Games to Claim Attention of Lassies.

PLAN INTERCLASS GAMES

As has been practiced in the Girls' Physical Education Department for the past few years, the program will be limited to inter-class games again this season. These contests excite much rivalry and enthusiasm among the girl athletes.

Hockey, basketball, soft-ball and soccer, each in their respective season, are the games that will claim the time of the Physical Education periods this year. In each season the contests will begin with the Freshmen playing the Sophomores, and the Juniors playing the Seniors. The winners of these games will play each other to decide the champion class team. The losers of the first two games will play a consolation game.

Mrs. John Anderson, and her assistant, Billie Osborne, meet the classes three times a week. The first week was devoted to the measuring of gym suits and explaining the fundamentals of the game of hockey. Now that the actual play is under way, much interest is being shown in the sport.

FIVE MEN PLAY LAST GAME THANKSGIVING

Three Linemen and Two Backfield Stars Will Be Missing for Next Year.

Guilford has five men who will dig their cleats into the turf for the alma mater the last time at the close of the Elon game at Thanksgiving.

Fred Newman, captain and quarterback, and Henry Turner, voted the most valuable player award last year, are two backfield stars that will be missing next season. Ted Griffin, an end, George Parker, a guard, and Ed Shean, a tackle, are the linemen that will not be present when practice starts next fall.

Quakes

By CLYDE REDDING

With the first issue of the Guilfordian, the football season is in full sway. The first game was played with Emory-Henry last Saturday night and the second will be with Wake Forest this afternoon.

There are about 40 candidates out for football this year. This represents about one-third of the men's student body. To boys are plenty football-minded this season. Of these, seven are letter men, about 15 are upperclassmen, and the rest are freshmen.

Some of the old men of last year's squad, such as, Burgwyn, Weaver, Watkins, and Bouton, certainly gave those interested in the football team a lot of false hopes when rumors were flying around that all were coming back to school. Watkins would be a great help to the backfield, and with the other three big boys in the line, what a line—a good heavy line and not altogether "bull."

The average weight of the Wake Forest line this season is 198 pounds. The average weight of the backfield is 170 pounds, making a team average of 188 pounds. Judging from these figures, the Quakers might need a stretcher or two if some of these big boys happen to fall on a Guilford man right hard.

Judging from verbal reports of the Emory-Henry game, it was a better contest than the score indicated. The Emory-Henry Wasp scored in the first and third quarters, and the Quakers also scored in the third period, making the score 12-6 at the beginning of the fourth quarter. It was only in this last part of the game that the Wasps really walked away with the Quaker team, by scoring three touchdowns.

The daily newspapers gave Sichel credit for Emory-Henry, but it was really Ted Griffin who recovered the fumbled punt and ran 37 yards for a touchdown. This makes Ted high-scoring for the Little Six now—not another team in the conference has played a game yet.

Still, on the Emory-Henry game—although it was played in drizzling rain, Roche did some nice punting and the Guilford team completed 60 per cent of the passes they attempted.

"Sight-seeing tour, free of charge; come out and see the country." An invitation from Trivette for more freshmen to come out for the cross-country team.

Gridironers Meet Wake Forest This Afternoon

IS HARD CONTEST

To Be First Big Five Foe for Guilford in the Past Four Years.

BAPTISTS DOPED TO WIN

Deacons Will Be Represented by One of Strongest and Heaviest Teams in Several Years.

The Quaker gridironers journey to Wake Forest this afternoon to play the second game on their schedule.

This is the first time in four years that a Guilford team has met a Big Five foe. The last game played in this circle was also with Wake Forest. The score was 12-0 and it was a very interesting contest. The Baptists scored both of their touchdowns in the last period of the game to win.

This year, Wake Forest is being represented by one of her heaviest and strongest teams in several years, and according to all the dope, the Quakers will be lucky to hold them to a 12-point margin this time.

Fortunately the Quaker team suffered no serious injuries in the Emory-Henry game last Saturday night, and will be able to throw themselves full strength against the Deacon aggregation.

Guilford reserves who will see action in the game are Tilson, Rees, and Cox in the backfield, and Blanton, Regan, Wilson, and Wooley in the line.

This game and the Emory-Henry are probably the two toughest games on the schedule this season. After it the Quakers will settle down to playing teams more in its class, and will have a better chance of winning.

Probable Starting Line-up for Wake Forest Game

Davis	Left guard
Carroll	Center
Parker	Right guard
Shaen	Right tackle
Griffin	Right end
Newman, C.	Quarterback
Roche	Left halfback
Turner	Right halfback
Capella	Fullback

HARRIERS WORKING FOR FIRST CONTEST

No One Lost to Squad by Graduation; Good Season is Expected.

SEVERAL MEETS PLANNED

The Quaker cross-country team started its first workouts last week. No loss was sustained by graduation, and practically all of last year's team are back in school. Coach Shepard has such veterans as Bowers, Meibohm, Trivette, and Ainsley, around which to form the nucleus for the 1934 team.

The schedule for the harriers will probably include five or six meets. Coach Shepard expects to obtain meets with N. C. State, Winston-Salem All-Stars, High Point High, Davidson Freshmen, Carolina Reserves, and possibly the Duke Freshmen.

No definite date has been set for the first meet yet, but it will probably be in two or three weeks. This will give the team ample time to round into condition.

Others reporting for workouts besides the veteran members of the team are: Allen, Gunn, Swalm, Redding, Blair, Taylor, Walter Neave, and Ad Hill.
