New Staff

OTHEO GUILFORDIAN

GUILFORD COLLEGE, N. C., MAY 2, 1936

Museum.

To Sail For England on the Berengaria

on May 8, to Return Next

September.

Profess

gins May 18.

bury plain.

short

tember

VOLUME XXII

31 SENIORS ENTERED AS PROSPECTIVE JUNE GRADUATES

12 Aspire to B.S. Degree, While 19 Hope to Receive the A.B. Degree.

9 AWAIT AUGUST DEGREES Commencement Exercises to Be Held

June 1 in Memorial Hall; Hart to Speak.

Thirty-one seniors are candidates for the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees which will be present ed June 1.

They are Aubrey Ainsley, France Alexander, Robert Allen, Robert An derson, A. Naomi Binford, Billie Bren dall, Paul Bowers, Mary Bryant, Cecil Budd, Julia Cannon, Gertrude Cochran, Alice Conrad, James Fulp, Erline Hunter, Allen Jinnette Ailene Johnson, Daryl Kent, L. A. Kyle, Leonard Macon Edgar Meibohm, Herbert Montgomery William Neave, Virginia Neece, Emily Ragsdale, Colum Schenck, Helen Stil-son, Marvin Sykes, Herman Trivette, Pinkney Turner, Mary Weber, and Von Sink.

Of the candidates to receive their degrees in June, 12 hope to be awarded e degree of Bachelor of Science, and 18 have applied for the degree of Bach elor of Arts. There are eight appli-cants for the degree of Bachelor of Arts and one for the degree of Bachelor of Science in the class to graduate in August.

JOINT Y'S FEATURE DISCUSSION GROUPS

Chapel Attendance, Campus Social Life, and Honor System Subjects of Sessions.

A. D. BEITTEL IS SUPERVISOR

The joint "Y" vespers will consist for the balance of the year of group discussions of various campus prob-lems. These discussions are calculated to be of sufficient interest to the stu dent body to liven up what is ordi-narily a slack season in the work of the campus Christian Associations.

The discussions will be under the general supervision of Dr. Beittel, although student leaders will be selected for each evening. The meetings, weather permitting, will be held on the lawn back of the library. The following topics have been selected for argument, and student leadected for argument, and student lead-ers have been tentatively selected as follows: May 3, "Should Chapel At-tendance be Compulsory?", leaders, Frances Alexander and Bill Hines; May 10, "How Can We Improve Campus Social Life?", leaders, Helen Stil son and Betty Trotter; and May 17, "Does the Honor System Work?", lead-ers, Daryl Kent and Milton Anderson. The year will be closed by a worship service on May 24.

HORNELL HART CHILDREN OF COUNTY

TO SING ON CAMPUS 28 Grade and High Schools Will

Be Represented in Annual Music Festival.

A CHORUS OF 1,000 VOICES

The Guilford County Music Festival for the grade and high school students of the county will be held on the Guil-ford college campus Friday, May 8, at The festival will be directed 2 p m. Dr. Ezra H. F. Weis, head of the llege music department, and Miss ollege Maxine Kirch, his assistant, will act as ceompanist. In 1935 the festival was held in Greensboro Memorial stadium; in 1934, on Guilford college campus, under the supervision of Prof. Max Noah, Weis' predecessor in the Guilford music de partment.

Misses Anna Naomi Binford and Annie Laurie Vannoy, seniors in the mu-sic department, have assisted this year in the instruction in the various sehe ols

Following is the program

'God of Our Fathers" (132), Warren. Invocation—Rev. Herbert L. Hoffman, pastor New Garden Friends Meeting. Welcome—Dr. Clyde A. Milner, president of Guilford college. Response—Dr. Thos. R. Foust, super intendent schools, Guilford county.

Grades and High Schools

"Love's Old Sweet Song" (45), Molloy, "The Capital Ship," (94), Old English, "Singing in the Rain," (82), Haydn. "O Susanna," (220), Foster. II

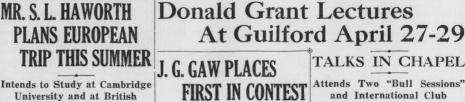

High Schools

"Largo," (54), Handel. "The Last Rose of Summer," (Thomas Moore, 41), Irish Air.

(Continued on Page Four)

COLLEGE CHOIR TO SING IN GREENSBORO

The Guilford choir will sing May 11, Brendall Writes Thesis. Earl Hall Brendall, Greensboro, N. C., student in the Duke University School of Religion, is one of the 38 graduate scholars submitting theses toward the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. He received his A.B. degree from Guilford college in "34. He is writing on "The Persecution of the Methodists in the Time of John Wesley." Monday in the Odell auditorium. The proceeds of this concert will go for the Centennial project, the orgatron. The Student in the Duke University School of Religion, is one of the 38 graduate scholars submitting theses toward the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. He received his A.B. degree from Guilford college in "34. He is writing on "The Persecution of the Methodists in the Time of John Wesley." Monday in the Odell auditorium. The of Paul Bowers, a physics major who of Paul Bowers, a physics major who operation of an Electrostatic Genera-down Graaf generator Scholars submitting theses toward the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. He received his A.B. degree from Guilford college in "34. He is writing on "The Persecution of the Methodists in the Time of John Wesley." Monday in the Odell auditorium. The of Paul Bowers, a physics major who to swriting on "The Persecution of the Methodists is constructing a Van Graaf generator Guilford college in "34. He is writing on "The Persecution of the Methodists in the Time of John Wesley." Monday in the Odell auditorium. The proceeds of this concert will go for the contention of Leak," by Ed-stilson and James Fulp fall into the Stilson and James Fulp Monday in the Odell auditorium. The N. C. Intercollegiate Peace As VISITS BELGIUM, HOLLAND sociation Sponsors Oratorical Tourney Held at Guilford.

DAVIS WINS THIRD PRIZE

Jack G. Gaw, Greensboro, student at or and Mrs. Samuel L. Ha worth will leave Guilford May 7 bound North Carolina State college, took first for England, where they will spend the place in all speaking events of the state in a series of lectures, conferences, disfor England, where they will spend the summer. Mr. Haworth stated that he would sail on the Berengaria May 8 North Carolina Intercollegiate Peace as-on April 27, 28, and 29. An economist and expected to arrive in London in time to attend the Friends World Consociation. The contest was held in Metime to attend the Friends World Con-forence Program Committee. This con-morial hall, Friday, April 24. Three ference is expected to meet in the U. S. Guilford speakers, W. B. Davis, Jr., Law-in 1937. The Haworths will also at-rence Freeman, and Henry Nau, won Europe After the World Wat" and hier Europe After the Wat" and hier Herope After the Wat" and hier Herope After the Wat" and hier Herope After the Herope tend the London Yearly Meeting which awards, Davis placing third in the

While in England Mr. Haworth will peace contest, Freeman third in the imwhile in England Mr. Haworth will proput speaking contest, and Nau sec-Cambridge or the British Museum, Mr. diaworth has been Professor of Reli-gion at Guilford since 1924. This is the second visit the Haworths have speaking on "The Hard Way," placed wade to England. Will the the transmission of the Hard Way," placed made to England. This time they will first; George Frederick Schott, Jr., Le-make their headquarters on the Salis-noir-Rhyne college, won second place, ake their headquarters on the Salis-ury plain. Later in the summer, after making a on "Futile Pacifism," and Oscar Brier-son, Atlantic Christian college, placed and Peace." In the impromptu speaking contest Gaw won first place, R. B. Hamson, of Lenoir-Rhyne college, second, and Law-rence Freeman, third. Gaw won a third victory in the extemporaneous speak-

Prizes awarded in the main co First, $50; second, $30; and third, ere: $20, the essay winning first prize being church, Greensboro; Rev. Reid Wall, pastor of Grace and Bethel Methodist torney, and Dr. J. Roddey Miller, head of the department of English at Greensboro college

Prof. W. O. Suiter acted as local chair man for the peace oration. Dr. Albert Keister, head of the English department at Lenoir-Rhyne, is state chairman.

Electrostatic Generators and Questionnaires Thesis Curios

Members of Guilford's prospective second group. Miss Stilson, whose lass of '36 have chosen a variety of thesis subject is "Social Psychology of vey shows. Among these are a number extensive survey of social life on the involving the construction of compara-tively novel working models of physical apparatus, while others, in the field of mately the same size and sort as Guil-tivities. extent on the compilation of data by means of questionnaires.

In the first class comes the thesis of Paul Bowers, a physics major who is writing on "The Construction and Operation of an Electrostatic Genera-trail for Fulp's thesis "Some Methods of Market Research" is to some extent drawn from a questionnaire circulated

TALKS IN CHAPEL Attends Two "Bull Sessions" FIRST IN CONTEST and International Club

Meeting During Visit. LECTURES TO HISTORY IV

Donald Grant, lecturer of the International Institute of Education, appeared theologian, linguist, and historian, Mr. Grant was well qualified to talk on any cance of Post-War Vienna," "Central Europe After the World War," and his

Reads Robert Burns in Dialect to Two

English and One Calculus

Classes

New Policy

NUMBER 13

ideas of modern religion. For three successive days, Mr. Grant spoke in chapel, the first day, April 27, on his reasons for being here, the see-ond day, April 28, on Post-War Vienna, and on the third day, April 29, on the ways of avoiding war. At 2:15 on April 27, he spoke to the History 4 class on Central Europe, and remained in the lecture room for an hour's discussion oke to the History 4 class after the lecture period was over. The International Relations club met on Tuesday night, April 28, in Founders Meeting. They plan to return to the Meeting. They plan to return to the United States about the first of Sep. and Peace."

Mr. Grant's first trip to the United States has been confined mainly to the southern and east-south-central states, lecturing at colleges and universities in that region. The part of the country which Mr. Grant has seen, reminds him, he remarked, "of Soviet Russia."

He has traveled throughout Europe From Paris to Moscow, and from Riga to Athens," and has spent some time in New Zealand. For ten years he was a resident of Vienna, but now lives in SINGERS, PIANISTS ON PROGRAM eligible for the national contest. Judges were Rev. J. Elwood Carroll, London, only 500 miles from the Scottish highlands where he was born.

GREENSBORO WATER LINE CONNECTED WITH CAMPUS

City Water Courses Through Dormitory wers—Pipe Line Completion Delays Further Supply.

CITY WATER DRIVE CULMINATED

The pipe line connecting the Guilford ollege campus with the city of Greensboro, has at last been completed, according to an unofficial report current on the campus. Water from this source on the campus. was supplied to the men's dormitories early on the afternoon of Wednesday, April 29, and to the women's dormitories a few days later. The delay in supplying the women's dorms was due to the length of time required to complete the installation which it was feared would interfere with culinary ac-

This is the culmination of a long drive for city water carried on for so years by the alumni resident in the neighborhood.

Fine Arts club, will speak Monday eve-ning, May 4, on the life and works of ring, May 4, on the fire and works of pastor of Grace and Bether Alchouds. Franz Schubert. The program will be Episcopal churches, Greensboro; C. B. Owens, professor of speech, High Point trance fee will be charged. The proceeds will go to the student affairs building project. Dr. Pope's lecture will be accom by selections from Schubert's These will be presented, vocalpanied by

OF BENEFIT PROGRAM

-Funds

Pope to Speak on Life and Works of

Go to Project.

German Co

works. ly and instrumentally, by members of the Fine Arts club

tour of Holland and Belgium,

they will attend the Copenhagen Yearly ing contest-impromptu rebuttal form. Henry Nau won second place and R. B. Hamson, third.