Baseball Season Begins As Seven Veterans Report

BOLES IS IN FORM

Several Prospects Are Looking Good in Filling Vacancies Left by Graduation.

SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

Quaker Diamonders Are Enthusiastic About Season Opener at E.C.T.C. on March 28.

By SNAG HARTLEY

On Monday, March 10, Coach Smith gave the first call for baseball practice and was answered by 19 men.

Professor Shepard announced a schedule of 16 games for the Guilford 1938 baseball season beginning March 28 and continuing through May 7. This is an average of about one game every other day.

The pitching staff is rapidly rounding into shape and yelling for action. Much of the success of the season will depend upon the ability of these boys.

Although only seven lettermen are here this year, there seems to be plenty of new material to fill the vacant places. These vacancies are: first base, previously held by Paul Hockett, one of the best first-sackers in the conference; outfielders, Capella and Fox; and pitchers, Swain, Hepler, and Higgins.

For a number of years Guilford baseball teams have held a good standing in the Little Six conference which creates much enthusiasm with the beginning of each season.

Boles, who shut out the Elonites 4 to 0 last year, hopes to remain the "bee in the Christians' bonnet."

The 1938 aspirants are: catchers, Captain Boyles, "Satchel" Sadler; first base, "Apostle" Perian, "Fist" White; second base, "Homer" Graves, "Lanky" Phillips; short stop, "Sug" Tilson, "Jock" Woodroof; right field, "Lover" Byrd, "Pops" Morris; third base, "Buck" Hines, "Toby" Reynolds; center field, "Weir" Lentz; left field, "Rookie" Nace; pitchers, "Western" Boles, "Bull" Lindsay, "Bambino" Taylor, "Smockey" Joe Carter, and "Ladies' Man" Acee; and utility men, "Fatty," "Neek," and "Algae."

IN THIS CORNER

Last Friday night, March 11, Maxie "Playboy" Baer, gained an overwhelming victory in a 15-round bout with Tommy "Toughluck" Farr. Immediately following this, "Dynamite" Lael and "Tiger" Marlette, gave us the real McCoy in re-enacting the previous fight blow by blow.

They are in the center of the ring standing toe to toe, and slugging it out for all they're worth! "Dynamite" drives one from the shoe laces and misses "Tiger's" button by not more than two feet. "Tiger" retaliates with a round-house hook as Lael ducks; this ducking goes back and forth till Lael forgets to duck.

Holy .....! What a sock! The judges voted four for a draw, two for Lael, and four for the "Tiger."

and he awoke the next morning to find no less than 72 prospective clients clamoring for his services.

Jackson's duel with Dickinson, exhumed with remarkable delicacy by the dean, proved to be one of the most interesting in Jackson's career. Knowing that his opponent was undeniably faster on the draw than he was himself, Jackson pinned his hopes on one, accurate shot rather than attempting to plug Dickinson first. Allowing Dickinson to fire first, Jackson, although severely wounded, managed to leave the field under his own power, after having dropped Dickinson.

WANTS WALT DISNEYS

Editor of the GUILFORDIAN:

Why not have a poll in the GUILFORDIAN sometime on what the women students think is an ideal man, and what the men students think is an ideal woman?

Also, why not have a cartoon or two in the GUILFORDIAN from one of our Walt Disneys?

Sincerely,

A READER.

QUAKES

It was news when Center won the intramural basketball championship; but when the Mary Hobbs girls can take over a team such as the Archdale "Demons," it is feature stock for Dan Parker; or even Walter Winchel's column.

On Tuesday afternoon, March 16, the Bloomer Girls from the northwest corner of the campus defeated Archdale 30 to 20, in a close contest that saw "Flash" Perry, and "Yankee" Holloman starring for the New Garden swingsters; "Whirl" Wynn did some fancy whirling for the losers.

The editor wishes to make an apology for not printing the article submitted by the Girls A. A. for the last issue. It wasn't really his fault, however, since an excess of ads made it necessary for us to cut some of our column. In the future we'll do our best to print everything submitted if it is possible.

Well, how much scandal have we got this time? Ina Ray Hutton has been to town; and the fellows took the Carolina theater by storm; Ina took the fellows, too, but I didn't say how!

While being shown to a seat by the usher as Ina was turning on the heat, Ollie Acee is quoted as having said, "I'll take mine backstage." Who wouldn't!

All the fellows seeing the show agreed that she had a pretty good band, but who saw the band?

Norman Boyles is a pretty good ball player, but he's a better fisherman. We are wondering if he uses all those double portion salads for bait. "Oh Kay," but we don't think so.

We are having the big barn dance tonight; so come and swing your partner. At last the gym is being put to some logical use; and we hope the roof doesn't cave in. By the way, how are those bricks coming in?

Last week Shorty "Bud" Heath was quoted as having said, "I'm going home with Winnie this week-end." Yes, he went.

Man is the way of all women and most women make their way.

TENNIS TEAM TO PLAY SOUTHERN COLLEGES

Fifth Position on Team Still Undecided With Rogers, Morris, and Ritchie in the Playoff.

HEAVY SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

With the announcement of this year's tennis schedule, our court prodigies are gradually whipping themselves into shape. Several freshmen are looking good in practices and show much strength for the future.

The team for this year will include the names of Boyman, captain and manager, Jim "Robert Taylor" Parsons, Howard "It Looks Like Rain" Petrea, and Hughie Davis, who won the North Carolina Junior singles championship last year. The fifth position is still undecided, but Ritchie, Hollowel, Rogers and Morris will be bidding for that berth. The play-offs for No. 5 man will come before the vacation trip.

This year's schedule is one of the largest ever scheduled for the Quaker institution; and should provide some interesting opposition. Davis and Parsons will be the No. 1 doubles combination, while Bowman and Petrea will clash in the No. 2 position. Five matches will be played on the Florida trip to be taken during the spring vacation period.

The schedule follows:

- March 28—College of Augusta at Augusta, Ga.
  - March 29—Bolles school, Jacksonville, Fla.
  - March 30—College of St. Petersburg, St. Petersburg, Fla.
  - March 31—Southern college, Lakeland, Fla.
  - April 2—Wofford college, Spartanburg, S. C.
  - April 6—Appalachian at Guilford.
  - April 7—State college, Raleigh.
  - April 13—Lenoir-Rhyne at Hickory.
  - April 14—Catawba at Salisbury.
  - April 19—Wake Forest at Guilford.
  - April 21—Catawba at Guilford (tentative).
  - April 27—Wake Forest at Wake Forest.
  - April 30—Atlantic Christian at Guilford.
  - May 4—Lenoir-Rhyne at Guilford.
  - May 10—Elon at Guilford.
- (Two matches pending with High Point college.)
