Athletes to Be Feted At Recognition Dinner

Fall Sports Banquet Set for December 7; Furnas, Toastmaster

A host of participants in fall athletic activities will be honored at the annual fall sports banquet in Founders hall on December 7. Dr. Philip W. Furnas has been named toastmaster for the program which will begin at 6:45 Saturday evening.

At the conclusion of the banquet, a semi-formal dance will be held in the gymnasium until 10:45 p. m. In order to make room for the dance, there will be no outside speaker on the program.

Highlight of the evening will be the announcement of captains for next year's football and cross-country teams. Special awards will also be presented to two football players chosen by their teammates as the best blocker and the best tackler of the squad for the past year. Lettermen in both football and cross-country will be recognized and presented certificates.

Awards will also be made in women's athletics. Letters will be awarded to girls having 750 activity points under the new ruling put into effect last year, and numerals will be presented to those possessing 500 points. The points are cumulative and are earned by participation in all organized sports.

Girls receiving letters include Edna Earle Edgerton, Dolly White, Virginia Hill, Mary Anna Jessup, Margaret Jones, and Jessie Joyner. Numerals will be awarded to Julia Fussler, Audrie Gardham, Jane Faulkner, Ruth Lockwood, and Frances Neece.

Campus Young Socialists Listen to Tex Sanders

Tex Sanders, representative of the Student Peace service of the American Friends service committee, and an unofficial representative of the Young People's Socialist league, was active in the campus program last week-end.

Saturday night he called the square dance, held in the gymnasium during and after the sophomore skating party.

Sunday evening, he spoke at Y sessions on the topic, "We Faint Not," concluding his stay by leading a discussion of Socialism in the Hut.

A small group of college students, together with Dr. and Mrs. Beittel, comprised the group in the Hut. The main subject discussed was how the Young People's Socialist league can be advanced in the South and on Guilford campus.

TOASTMASTER—Dr. Philip Furnas, head of the division of arts and languages, will serve as toastmaster at the annual fall sports banquet December 7.

Milner, Beittel Lead Religious Conference

Guilford College Players Graves, Clinchy, Parker Stage Dec. 7 Performance

Dr. Clyde A. Milner, Guilford college's President, and Dr. A. D. Beittel, Dean of men, will be leaders at the conference, "Adventures in Applied Christianity," to gather in Greensboro, December 6, 7, and 8.

In the discussion groups on December 7, Dr. Milner will talk on "The Purpose of Higher Education," while Dr. Beittel will speak on "Christian Attitudes Toward War."

The first three of the five sessions—Friday evening, Saturday morning, afternoon, and evening, and Sunday morning—will be held in the College Park Baptist church.

One of the features of the Saturday evening program will be the Guilford College Players. Dr. Philip Furnas, their director, has chosen Eleanor Clinchy, Nancy Graves, and David Parker for the performance.

There are to be four principal speakers: Mr. W. F. Faulkner, Dean of Men at Fisk university; Dr. Arthur Raper, social science analyst from the United States Department of Agriculture; Rev. Roy McCorkle, executive secretary; and Dr. Paul Braisted, program secretary. The last three have talked at Guilford.

Music will be provided by the A. and T. college choir, the North Carolina college Men's Glee club, and the Winston-Salem Teachers' College choir.

Friedrick Will Speak At Y Discussion, Dec. 5

On December 5, Gerhard Friedrich will be guest speaker at the Y discussion in the Hut at 7:30 p. m. His topic will be "Practical Christianity." Under the direction of Mr. Warren Lawson, the A. and T. college choir will sing at a Christmas carol service at Guilford on December 8, sponsored by the Y.

There will be carol singing at faculty homes concluding with an informal social at the Beittels' home, on the evening of December 15, also under the auspices of the Y organizations.

Honor Rollers Are Led By Reddick and Jones; 34 Make B's or Above

83 Pass Less Than Nine Hours With 'C' Average

Quarterly grades, released recently by Miss Era Lasley, registrar, indicate that the range is extreme—from two who made all A's to one who passed no work at all. Seven made all A's but one, 24 made all A's and B's, and one made all B's.

In the lower brackets were 83 who passed less than nine hours with a 'C' average, 20 who passed less than nine hours, three who made all D's, and three who passed only one subject.

The two attaining a three-quality-point average are Margaret Jones and Haul Reddick, both juniors.

Making all A's but one were: Ben Brown, Winifred Ellis, Luther M. Gideon, Roy Lenke, Robert McAllister, Virginia Pope, and Claus Victorius.

Trailing close behind these potential honor-rollers are the following who made all A's and B's: Grace Beittel, Helen Louise Brown, Hurford Crossman, Shirley Cummings, Philip Dewees, Corinne Field, Betty Flinn, Gerhard Friedrich, Julia Fussler, Winabel Gibbs, Nancy Graves, Helen Lyon, Jane Marshall, Winifred Meibohm, Bernice Merritt, Teddy Mills, Elfrid Pennekamp, Sam Price, Robert Register, Margaret Smith, Robert John Smith, Marion Tobias, Betty Warnke, and Daniel Young.

Joseph Carter, a senior, made all B's.

Statistics for first quarter grades during the preceding scholastic year, show that the trend of marks in the lower brackets is fairly consistent, less so among A's and B's:

In November, 1939, five made all A's, two made all A's but one, 32 made all A's and B's, and five made all B's. Eighty-one students passed less than nine hours with a 'C' average, 22 passed less than nine hours, and three passed only one subject. All students passed at least one subject.

Major Shepard Training Young National Guards

Dr. Frederick Shepard, Guilford education professor, returned from his work with the army to visit the campus during the week-end of November 17-18.

Unable to remain longer, he returned to Camp Jackson, in Columbia, South Carolina, where he is doing reserve officer work during his year's leave of absence from Guilford.

Ranking as a Major, Dr. Shepard supervises the training of young members of the National Guard, and reports the hours as long and the work hard. He is amazed at the speed and efficiency with which the army operates.

Edgerton to Lead C. O.'s

Mr. William Edgerton will meet with the Conscientious Objector discussion group at 2:15 tomorrow afternoon in the Hut.

The group plans to discuss questions that are facing those who must fill out conscription questionnaires, and those who will be confronted with trial by local draft boards.

The purpose of these trials will be to determine the sincerity of all conscientious objectors who have been called for military service.

Dornseif Will Carry Messiah Soprano Solo

CONDUCTOR—Dr. Ezra H. F. Weis, head of the department of music, will conduct the annual presentation of Handel's "Messiah" here December 15.

Keutzer, Cronstedt, And Mercer to Sing In Handel Oratorio

Announcement has been made that Eileen Dornseif, Guilford college senior, has been given the soprano soloist's part in Handel's "Messiah," which will be presented here Sunday afternoon, December 15, at 3 o'clock, directed by Dr. Ezra H. F. Weis.

Other soloists will be Mrs. Armistead Mercer, contralto from Greensboro, who was the featured contralto voice in last year's presentation; Mr. Clyde Keutzer, tenor from Chapel Hill; and Mr. Carl G. N. Cronstedt, baritone from High Point who is in charge of the music of the High Point city schools.

To accompany the singers and the choruses are the members of the chamber orchestra, also directed by Dr. Weis.

Evelyn Pearson, Guilford junior, will be at the organ for several numbers.

The "Messiah," a Christmas oratorio, has been presented annually by the college music department, utilizing the choir and other students for singing, as well as members of the community who are interested.

In the program last year, 48 selections were sung in all, of which twelve were by the chorus, and the rest were by the soloists. This year, however, according to Dr. Weis, in addition to one or two new solos, there will also

Dr. Pope Memorial To Be Printed Soon

Miss Gilbert Editing Book Which Will Appear As College Bulletin

Guilford College's memorial to the late Dr. Pope will consist of a collection of some of his works to be published under the title "Within a Quaker College."

Miss Dorothy Gilbert, who is editing the books has written an introductory essay on Dr. Pope. The book will be divided into six parts; among them will be a group of poems called "Do You Remember Guilford?" a group of songs and greetings, several prose articles, another group of poems entitled "The Mystic Way," and a last group entitled "The Final Mystery."

Dr. Pope had planned to collaborate with Miss Gilbert on a similar book with the same title and had set aside several poems in connection with this work. Miss Gilbert has selected 48 poems thus far, 24 of which will be about Guilford. The book is being printed as the college's November bulletin and copies may be obtained at the business office.

Collegium Musicum Offers First Concert

The Collegium Musicum, initiated this year by Dr. Curt Victorius, will present its first concert on December 8 at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milner.

The program will consist entirely of eighteenth-century music. Selections will be chosen from the works of Giuseppe Sammartini (1693-1750), Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750), and W. A. Mozart (1756-1791).

Led by Dr. Victorius at the cello, the group will begin its program with two movements from Sammartini's Concerto Grosso, followed by three movements from Bach's B Minor Suite for flute and strings. The third selection

Hypnotics Loose on Campus Kent, Ausband Use Evil-eye

By CORRINE FIELD

Hypnotism—to merely mention it evokes extremes of awe and scepticism.

Sceptics Rosaleen Leslie and Herb Pearson, students at the psychology seminar, submitted themselves to the hypnotic powers of Mr. Daryl Kent to demonstrate the workings of hypnotism to the seminar—and to determine for themselves whether such forces existed.

The basis of hypnosis is suggestion. Mr. Kent explained that various methods are used to hypnotize different individuals.

With all the lights extinguished but a single flickering candle, Herb docilely slept at Mr. Kent's command.

Then our modern Svengali told Herb that a car was entering the drive. He was able to hear the noise of the motor, although the rest of the seminar could hear nothing. Thus, at Mr. Kent's suggestion, Herb heard a dog barking. Titian-haired Rosaleen sank into a somnambulistic state via a blazing light, concentration on a pencil point, and thoughts of sleep.

At Mr. Kent's suggestion, she was unable to pronounce her name, although she made visible efforts to do so. Uncannily, she beat time continuously to music that Mr. Kent told her she could hear. No one else was able to hear it.
