

Holiday Greetings To All Our Friends From the Staff of The Guilfordian

★
May you have the blessing of
Christmas which is Peace;
May you have the happiness of
Christmas which is Joy;
May you have the spirit of
Christmas which is Love.

CORONATION OF QUEEN TO HIGHLIGHT GALA CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES TONIGHT

Queen of Christmas Dance To Be Named During Intermission

Two of Chosen Girls Hail
From Tar Heel State While
Other Pair Call Penn Home

Tonight at the Christmas dance the "Queen of the Christmas Dance" will be announced. The ballots, which have been sealed since the election during last Friday's chapel, will be opened and counted some time during the dance, and the results made known during intermission. At this time the Queen will be crowned by a renowned personality.

On the basis of beauty, personality and popularity, each class has selected one girl. After the queen has been chosen, the other three girls will reign as "Christmas Maids of Honor."

The freshman choice is Marjorie Anderson, better known as Andy, from Upper Darby, Pa. She is eighteen years old, a biology major, and plans on a teaching or nursing career after college. Her interest in sports is shown by her activities on the hockey and basketball courts. Andy is interested in dramatics and had a part in the last Dramatic Council production.

The sophomore's choice Charlotte Flanders of Philadelphia, Penn. Charlotte, a psychology major likes all sports—riding and swimming in particular. Her hobbies include music, dramatics, and math. She is very active in campus activities; being manager of hockey; in the WAA cabinet and treasurer of Woman's Student Government.

Jean Presnell is representing the junior class. Jean, a physical education major from Liberty, N. C. is interested in sports, sports, sports, and more of same. She is on the Social Committee, the tennis manager of the WA, and the basketball class manager. Jean plans to go on and get her Master's degree at Chapel Hill, and then to teach physical education.

The seniors selected Midge Ridge of High Point. Right now her main interest and occupation is practice teaching in Greensboro. She is an English major and plans to teach English after graduation. Midge enjoys sports, is head cheerleader, and is a member of the Senior May court.

A late bulletin direct from headquarters at the North Pole informs us that Mr. Santa Claus has accepted an invitation from the Monogram Club to attend their dance tonight. Mr. Claus will be on hand to crown the Queen during intermission time.

Holiday Schedule

Christmas holidays will commence at 12, Saturday, December 20, for students of Guilford College. Classes will resume Monday morning, January 5, at 8:30 a.m. Semester examinations will be given January 17 through the 24th.

MARJORIE ANDERSON

JEAN PRESNELL

Annual Singing of Handel's 'Messiah' Given Last Sunday

Weis Conducts Community
Choir and Orchestra; Four
Soloists Are Featured

The 21st annual Guilford Community Chorus presentation of Handel's "Messiah" was presented before a capacity audience last Sunday afternoon in Memorial Hall with Dr. Ezra H. F. Weis conducting.

The four featured soloists included Rebecca Nifon, soprano; Mary Lou Rainey, contralto; William Kirkpatrick, tenor; and Neil Jennings, bass.

The soloists and choir were accompanied by the 20 piece orchestra which is made up of Guilford College players and others from the community at large, Dr. Weis said.

Rabbi Rypins Speaks At S. C. A. Meeting

Rabbi Fred Rypins, Greensboro, gave the second in a series of religious talks on different faiths before the members and guests of the S.C.A. on Dec. 1.

After a short commentary on the general principals of Judaism, Rabbi Rypins held an open discussion and answered the questions of the 20 assembled guests. Beliefs of the Jewish people regarding death, war and marriage were a few of the points brought up by the group. Last Sunday evening, members of the association continued their traditional caroling program and visited the faculty homes about the campus area.

Several members recently attended a conference on "Applying Christianity" which was held at Chapel Hill. Among the delegates attending were the following: Charles Hendricks, Howard Coble, Eleanor Cornelson, Martha Belle Edgerton, Julie White, Marjon Ornstein and Inga Langerich.

CHARLOTTE FLANDERS

MILDRED RIDGE

Monogram Dance To Feature Music of 'Wispa-Tone' Leader

Holiday Dance Inaugurates
Christmas Season; Campus
Set for Joyous Atmosphere

Though an ill wind certainly blows no good, participants of the gala Holiday party and dance sponsored by the Monogram Club at the gymnasium tonight will certainly see a "good Gale blow plenty of soft, soothing and scintillating sweetness."

With all last minute details safely tucked away in Santa's bag, members of the club are confident that tonight will see one of the most successful dances ever staged on the Guilford campus. The inauguration of the Christmas season will find Harold Gale, Winston-Salem, and his "Original Wispa-Tone Music" providing the music for the celebrators and celebrates.

Gale has achieved a reputation throughout the East and the South for his original type of music; not too loud and not too soft—"the kind you want to dance to." He has been featured at leading hotels, clubs and ballrooms throughout the East.

"Kampus Kuties" Recalled
The Monogram Club's last venture into campus entertainment was last year when members staged their "Kampus Kuties Niteclub" in the basement of the gymnasium. This has been recognized as one of the outstanding social affairs of the past few seasons. Tonight's dance will be the result of the same methodical planning that was responsible for the success of the "Niteclub" escapade.

Suspense will be high through the early part of the evening while the class presidents and other organization heads tally the votes which will elect the lucky girl who will be the "Queen of the Christmas Dance." Up until tonight, the identity of the girl is as much of a mystery as the identity of the famous "Miss Hush" of radio fame.

Tickets are still available as bids are issued by the members of the Monogram Club. If you plan to wait until the last minute—don't—buy yours now. Come to the Christmas Dance—you'll start the season right if you do.

Withers Named Winner Of Trophy at Banquet

BLISS RESTAURANT, Dec. 15—Gridiron battles, from the first Davidson football encounter to the Turkey Day Guilford victory over Elon, were retold here tonight by football payers, alumni, guests and coaches in the annual post-season gala banquet sponsored by the Guilford Foundation Inc.

Emerging victorious from the evenings enjoyable activities was Jennings "Harpo" Withers—voted winner of the coveted Alumni Trophy by team members as the fightiest and hustiest ball player. (Continued on Page Five)

Harold Gale and his original "Wispa-Tone" Orchestra will fill the gym with music tonight while the halls are decked with holly. Opening the season with the annual Christmas Dance, the Monogram Club has secured this band of renowned reputation for what promises to be one of the best dances in Guilford's history.