

Center Section Bids Fond Farewell

Guilford Breathes Sigh of Relief as Playboys Depart

BILL GEORGE

Hails from Lincolnton . . . "Boy, can I teach 'em" . . . losing his bachelor rating in June—to Phil . . . Center's handsomest man and originator of "Waltzing Matilda" . . . Misses the "Magnolia" . . . spent three years, four months and seven days overseas . . . expects to be a world-shaking historian in the future . . . worked up from "drip" to head of the lake at Battleground.

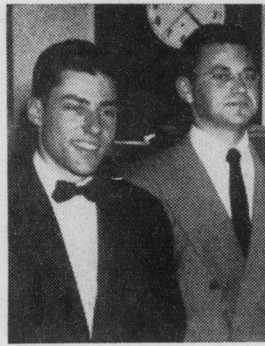

TOAD DAVIS

Gastonia man . . . mild mannered Toad could always be counted on for a clear head in an argument—was Center's chief arbitrator and chaplain . . . took many expensive lessons in the Clark-Wallace School of Bridge . . . best backstop in the league . . . catches everything from a fast curve to the umpire's throat.

REG ROBERTS

Ain't sure where he's from . . . was once treasurer of the freshman class and would have made honor roll if he hadda dropped Spanish . . . Center's second laziest man . . . stellar tackle and Tarzan . . . marry Mary and raise fullbacks . . . goes to Philosophy occasionally if it doesn't rain . . . scholastic leader.

CARL ERICKSON and BOBBY CLARKE

Our heroes! . . . Who's Whomers. Clarke class president in '48 . . . Duckor beats him in tennis and Cochrane takes him gin . . . Center's champion lazy man. Erickson class president in '49 . . . Section's highest grader . . . lives by the trash chute and takes it like a man . . . covers center field like a tent.

JERRY DUCKOR

Brooklyn, N. Y. . . only Yankee on this page . . . chief actor in immoral plays . . . Center's political boss . . . very short term as vice-president of Student Affairs Board. "I played against Choo Choo and he didn't score" . . . once made the honor roll . . . got sued by the 52-20 Club.

CARL COCHRANE

Whirlie . . . once on the Student Christian . . . Center's slowest man. Second only to Presnell in ugliness in the morning . . . short order cook and bottle opener . . . never sleeps. Champion professional guest . . . the Queen's fair-haired boy. Journalist and misguided English major . . . leaving Center by marriage route and may graduate some day.

HANK HARVEY

Granddad of the section . . . the two brew philosopher . . . animal lover and foster father to numerous litters . . . Centers champion lover . . . Section's only ex-officer but we made him forget it . . . one man loan agency . . . dishwashes, grass cutter and handyman supreme . . . wants to work with orphans (females 18 to 25).

FORM PRESNELL

A Liberty boy . . . six years but he made it . . . Ugliest man in the world in the morning . . . did enough painting here to get a union card. Center's Champion Cutter . . . Man of many romances—between Tucker's and the golf course he kept Mary Hobbs busy . . . section bouncer and radiator bender.

PUNCHY WALLACE

Rock Hill, S. C. . . Football and Chemistry shark . . . Section's number one softball slugger and mean man . . . "I been in lotsa fights" . . . Wound up with Center girl corny . . . Only man in the world who could get accused of immorality at a basketball game . . . Graduating after five colleges.

In Absentium

EARL DUNKLE

who wouldn't kick in for this page

You too can live in littered halls,

'Neath picturesquely penciled walls.

We've hardwood floors (though slightly scarred),

And ice cold showers aren't really hard.

This is your chance—get in the club

And live in Center, Guilford's hub!

DEDICATION

This page is done in honor of those men who cordially invite you to fill the places they are vacating in the hallowed tradition and confusion of Center Section in venerable Cox Dormitory

Mid years of rugged courses and growing rules they have stood united under their motto, "Sig Sigillum Whoopee"

And it is with heavy hearts that their group doth part in its hour of triumph.

OUR SENIORS LEAVE THESE WORDS OF WISDOM

Devote your time to rigorous study,

Obeys the rules and be faithful to the honor system,

And if you can pass the comp, you too may graduate some day.

This page bought and paid for by Center Cox Seniors

GOOD LUCK! SEE YOU AT HOMECOMING