The Guilfordian East Carolina Saturday

VOLUME XXXIX

Beat

GUILFORD COLLEGE, N. C., OCTOBER 15, 1952

Beat East Carolina Saturday

NUMBER 1

Choir Enters Silver Anniversary Year; Tour Planned

Guilford Enrollment Up Again, Number of Women Increases

Wonnen increases swear, for a total of 497 students. The tentative figures prepared by Miss Era Lasley, registrar, indi-cate a total of 154 women students and 343 men. Last year's figures were 141 and 334, respectively, for a total of 475. A good proportion of the new students were from foreign coun-tries. Five are from foreign coun-tries. Five are from Jordan, three from Japan, two each from Idaly and Cuba, and one each from dexico, Finland and Estonia, for a total of fifteen. Thenty-four of the States are represented, as are 53 counties of North Carolina. The number of veterans con-tiveterans as opposed to last year's 68, but the number of married students has increased from 57 to 59.

Class of 1913 Renovates, Equips Registrar's Office

Students who have had con ferences with the college registrar ferences with the college registrar will have noticed that her office has been rebuilt and refinished. As a present to the college, mem-bers of the class of Guilford Col-lege of 1913 decided to furnish and equip this office. After the carpentry had been finished, the room was finished in light green along with the other administrative offices. New furnishings, a large metal desk, chairs for the regis-trar and persons consulting with her, and other necessities such as a lamp, were given by the class. Draperies which blend with the furnishings were carefully selected and hung.

furnishings were carefully selected and hung. To give the office a lived-in effect, a large plate mirror was given by the class of 1913 to hang on one wall. Furthermore, a pic-ture of the New Garden Bord-ing School, Guilford's predecessor, was found and enlarged. It is one of a series of drawings by John Collins, who, when he came to a yearly meeting in 1869, drew a series of paintings and described them in his notes. The painting chosen shows the boarding school, which is now Founders Hall, just after the War Between the States. A photostat machine was also and hung.

after the War Between the States. A photostat machine was also donated by the class of 1913, and has already been put to extensive use. Reports of final marks last year were not sent as usual: stu-dents received photostatic copies of their entire records. Likewise, transcripts sent to other colleges are made on the same machine. Faculty advisers are also provided with copies of the records of their advisees. As time goes on, more and more use will be made of this photostat machine.

Coming Up

Founders Day, Wednesday Oct. 22. All day program featuring special chapel on the theme of "The Relationship of North Caro" lina Yearly Meeting and the Five Years Meeting." Forum discus-sions in the afternoon on the work of the various boards of the Five Years Meeting. The annual J. M. Ward lecture will be delivered at 8 p.m. by Clarence Pickett of Philadelphia, distinguished Quaker and for twenty years executive secretary of the American Friends Service Committee. Guilford vs: East Carolina at Guilford vs. East Carolina at reensboro, Saturday, October 25. Gr First Quarter ends, Saturday, November 8.

Anniversary Year officers of the Guilford A Cappella Choir include (left to right) Dorothy Ann pianist, Rachel Grogan, Jane Ott, Hugh Downing, Beaman Griffin, Andy Hughes, and Director

Emily Warrick Rules Clarence Pickett To Deliver Homecoming Fete Third J. M. Ward Lecture A gala dance climaxed a festive

Homecoming Day October fourth. The dance, sponsored by the the Women's Athletic Association, featured the well known Duke Cavalier's Dance Band.

Preparations Committee

Preparations Committee Ann Newton, chairman of the W.A.A. social committee, was in charge of preparations and plans for the evening. Colorful decora-tions, carrying out a football theme, converted the gym. into a gray and red room. Miss Betsy White, W.A.A. presi-dent; Miss Margaret Reynolds, W.A.A. advisor, and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Maynard greeted the guests at the door. Oueen Presented

Queen Presented

Queen Presented The presentation of the Home-coming queen and her court high-lighted the occasion. They were Miss Emily Warrick, queen: es-corted by Mac Privott: Miss Betsy Bingham, escorted by Grady Lakey; Miss Sue Ginz, escorted by Leslie Warrick; Miss Jean Pleasants, es-corted by Earl Tyson; and Miss Carol Smith escorted by Robert Ralls. A special dance was then held for the queen, her court and their escorts and for the football players and their dates. Well over two hundred alumni

Well over two hundred alumni and students attended the dance which proved to be a great success. The Homecoming Dance is an annual event designed to climax the homecoming get-together.

CLARENCE PICKETT

of the American Friends Committee. Service

The lecture, which is a yearly Founders Day feature at Guilford, is expected to draw representa-tives from every section of the North Carolina Yearly Meeting.

Fickett received his bachelor's degree from Penn College, Oska-loosa, Iowa, in 1910. He studied for the next three years at Hart-ford Theological Seminary, where he received his B. D. degree.

In 1922, after several years as a minister, he studied at Harvard University and became professor

Dr. Vicky Brushes Up At Summer Seminar

Dr. J. Curt Victorius, Guilford Professor of Economics, was one of the fifty top-flight economics teachers selected to attend the an-nual economics summer seminar held at Case Institute of Technol-ogy in Cleveland this past summer. The seminar, which is sponsored by Republic Steel in the interest of an exchange of ideas between academic and business leaders on current business problems, feat-ures the top thinkers and speakers in both fields.

The third annual J. M. Ward Lecture will be delivered at 8 p.m. October 22 by Clarence Pic-kett of Philadelphia, honorary sec-worked in the Department of In-

He joined the AFSC in 1929. During the following years he worked in the Department of In-terior as consultant in the Re-settlement Administration, the Farm Security Agency, and the National Housing Agency. Pickett served as executive sec-retary of the service committee from 1930 to 1950, and has been a member of the Quaker team at the United Nations during the past two sessions of the General Assem-bly.

We sessions of the last of the also traveled in Egypt, Israel, and Palestine during 1949 for the service committee in behalf of the United Nations Relief for Palestine Refugees.

Sam Venuto '52 Leads Scoring

Leads Dcoring Washington's Redskins opened their professional football season with a 23-7 upset victory over the Chicago Cardinals in Chicago; and scoring the 'Skins only second-half fouchdown was Sam Venuto, for-mer Quaker all-conference back. Venuto, playing both offense and defense during the fourth quarter, carried the ball off tackle for three yards and his first professional touchdown. Then he led his team on another drive, only to have tegame end with the ball on the eight yard line. Wenuto is playing in fast com-pany: on the same team are Sammy Baugh (as spry as ever in his six-tenth year), Harry Gilmer, and Billy Cox (of Duke and Mt. Airy).

VENUTO

Extended Midwest Tour Contemplated

The Guilford College A Capella Choir has opened its silver anni-versary year. Sporting an enlarged membership of over sixty-five members the group hopes to make its twenty-fifth year one of the best on record.

best on record. Ably directed by Mr. Carl C. Baumbach, the choir is adding many new selections to its repetoir, as well as retaining a number of old favorites of past years, in an effort to make its programs ap-pealing to all listeners.

effort to make its programs ap-pealing to all listeners. New officers were elected in the first two weeks of the semester. In addition to William Utley, choir president, who was elected last year, nine new officers were nomi-nated and elected. Beaman Griffin was elected to fill the difficult position of business manager, left vacant by the resignation of Ver-non Tyson. Other officers elected were as follows: Hugh Downing, Publicity Manager; Jane Ott, Sec-retary; Colin Edwards, Transpor-tation Manager; Bobby Wall and Andrew Hughes, co-stage Mana-gers; Rachel Grogan, Librarian; Bob Ralls, Senior Class Repre-sentative; Bobbye James, Junior Class Representitive; and Bobbie Grantham, Sophomore Class Rep-resentitive. To date the Freshman Class representative has not been elected.

Class representative has not been elected. Preliminary plans for concerts and programs show that the Choir will be quite busy this year. Early hints indicate that the annual tour will transport the Choir to the mid-west and Chicago this year, possibly in a sense returning the visit that Senator Bob Taft paid us last year. Speculative arrange-ments are also being made in an effort to have a recording of the choir made and sold to the stu-dents of the college and to alugni members of the choir, and anyone else who is interested, for that matter. The theme to be used would point up the Choir's silver anniversary and its twenty-five years of national fame.

The choir is, unfortunately, weak in men's voices and issues an ap-peal to any and all male students who can sing and who might be interested in joining the choir, to please come on out and do so.

Frosh Come Out With Dress and Song

Now you can see the color of the Freshman boys' hair. Home-coming ended the period that the freshmen had to wear their "but-tons" and furnish gum, toothpicks, and matches for the upperclass-men; but some sophomores still chanted, "The worst is yet to come." The following Tuesday was the Freshmen girls initiation day. Founder's girls, with teddy bears and costumes of little girls in the nineteen hundreds, recitéd nursery rhymes at the request of sopho-mores.

The Hobbs girls proved that

The Hobbs girls proved that freshmen really love sophomores by singing to them their songs of admiration at six o'clock in the morning. Each freshman girl had written her own song. Joyce Fingado had another song to repeat during the day: T'm not peaches, T'm not cream, I threw water, On the team. To combat any evil effects that too much free time might produce, the upperclassmen have kept the freshmen boys busy shinning shoes, sweeping floors, cleaning rooms, and answering the tele-phone. At the end of this semester they will be qualified valets, if nothing else. Tuesday ended the period of distinction between classes for the girls. For the boys, no one will venture to say.

EMILY WARRICK