NO. 5

Ten Seniors Named To College Who's Who

Miss Edith Meyers (seated), of Westfield, N. J., has been selected to reign as May Queen during the festivities next May 6. Her Maid of Honor will be Miss Bonnie Ferrell of Guilford College.

Three Fourth Generation Students Here

Ann Bittle, George Lowe, Jr., and Charles Farlow all have had great-grandparents here. Seven of the present student body have had both parents and grandparents here. There are fifty-four students in all who have had at least one ancestor here.

The seven third generation students are Peggy Blair, Bill Hawthorn, Wenda Hodgins, Julia Holwell, Elizabeth Newlin, Margaret Tremain, and Emily Warrick.

Ann Bittle's great-grandparents, David White (1837-40), Isabella Wilson White (1842), and Pricilla Benbow Hackney (1855-59) started the ball rolling and the family hasn't missed a generation since.

George Lowe's great-grandmother, Grace Hammond Lowe (1837-38), was the first of their family here, while Charles Farlow's great-grandparents, David Farlow (1858-59) and Sophronia Cox Farlow (1861-62) have to share the honor of starting their family.

GO TO ELON!

The Cheerleaders have chartered a bus to go to the game at Elon tomorrow night. The cost will be $1.00 per person and the bus will leave at 6:30. Student admission to the game will be 50c. At least fifty people are needed. You may contact any Cheerleader.

Brewer, Burton, Church, Cornelson, McEachern, Pate, Redman, Tucker, Watson And Watson Named

The names of the ten students from Guilford College named to the 1955 "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" have just been released by the Registrar's Office. These students, elected each year by a vote of the student body and faculty, are chosen on the basis of their contributions to campus life.

Ossie Marie Brewer, from Burlington, N. C., is president of the Scholarship Society. Last year she was a Marshal and worked on the GUILFORDIAN staff.

Martha Jean Burton, from High Point, N. C., is chairman of the Honor Board. She was Chief Marshal and Secretary to both the Honor Board and the Women's Student Government last year.

John Welborn Church is from Walkertown, N. C. He is vice-president of the M. S. G., head waiter, and a member of the Honor Board.

Janice Louise Cornelson, from Albany, N. Y., is president of the Student Affairs Board and vice-president of the W. S. G. She was editor of the GUILFORDIAN, and a Marshal last year.

Edward Merritt McEachern, Jr., from Wrightsville Beach, N. C., is editor of the GUILFORDIAN. Last year he was acting head cheerleader.

Rebekah Joyce Pate is from Goldsboro, N. C. She is House President of Mary Hobbs Hall, and last year worked with the W. A. A. and the Social Committee.

Phyllis Louvenia Redman, from Pilot Mountain, N. C., is editor of the 1955 QUAKER. She was managing editor of the 1954 edition.

Trilby Alice Tucker, from Murfreesboro, N. C., is president of the Women's Student Government, and also president of the Choir. Last year she was president of the S. C. A., a Marshal, and a cheerleader.

Neva Joyce Watson is from Underwood, Indiana, and is president of the Student Christian Association. She transferred from Warren Wilson Junior College in the fall of 1953.

Reva Joy Watson, from Underwood, Indiana, is president of the International Relations Club. She also transferred from Warren Wilson Junior College.

Founders' Day Program Announced

Again this year, in celebration of its founding, Guilford College is sponsoring a three-day program with special emphasis upon her contributions to higher education in the state, the nation, and the world; her contributions as a Quaker College to the Ecumenical Movement of the state, nation and world; and the role of the Society of Friends in relation to the churches.

The opening address will be given at 11:15 a. m., November 10, by President Gordon Gray of the Consolidated University of North Carolina. President Gray received his A. B. from U. N. C. and his LL. B. from Yale Law School. He served as a member of the North Carolina State Senate from 1938-42 and from 1946-47. Prior to becoming president of the Greater University in 1950 he served as Secretary of the Army. At present he is working with a committee of the United Nations.

Thursday, November 11 at 8:00 p. m. in Memorial Hall, President Courtney C. Smith of Swarthmore College will deliver the second lecture of the series of convocations. President Smith received his A. B., A. M., and Ph. D. from Harvard, and studied as a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford University in 1938-39. He served as a member of the UNSR from 1944 to 1946 and taught at Princeton University until 1953. He has recently been elected president.
