Ten To Graduate This Month

On Saturday, January 22, the last of this semester, ten students will graduate from Guilford. They are: Paul George Dentiste, of Greensboro; Stephen Kutos, Jr., of Greensboro; Paul Hutson Moody, Guilford College; Willard Warren Norberg, Guilford College; Rebekah Joyce Pate, Goldsboro; John Drew Ringewald, of Glen Head, N. Y.; Mary Corbin Roberts, Guilford College; Martha Teague Rogers, Guilford College; Carl Donald Shingler, Guilford College; and Hugh Talmadge Stokes, of Greensboro.

'Guilfordian' Rejoins ACP

The Guilfordian is rejoining Associated Collegiate Press as of the current college year. Membership in ACP entitles the paper to two critical services per year, and a national rating on the basis of professional criticism.

ACP also furnishes "Arnold," our cartoon series.

New Korean Student On Campus

As a new addition to the already very international atmosphere which makes up an important part of Guilford College life, Buyong Yoon Park has arrived early from his home in Seoul, Korea, to continue with his scholastic work in economics.

Before journeying to the United States, Buyong Yoon was enrolled at Seoul University as a Junior in the College of Commerce. By virtue of scholastic achievement he has been deferred from military service to study. Learning about Guilford College and North Carolina through an American G. I., he decided that he would come to America.

Buyong Yoon is the son of a Congressman of the Korean National Assembly who is serving his second term as an elected representative. Despite his early arrival to Guilford College, Buyong Yoon will not begin his formal studies until second semester on January 24.

Registration For Second Semester On Monday, Jan. 24

Today, Reading Day, is the beginning of the first semester examination period. Finals will begin tomorrow morning at 9:00 a. m. and continue through Saturday, January 22. Today has been designated as a free study for preparation and review for finals. This moved the beginning date for the exams from its usual Friday over until tomorrow.

Lasley Completes Thirty-One Years

When information concerning a Guilford student, past or present, is desired, Miss Lasley can usually supply the needed material. If she doesn't know all the details, she most likely will know a source from which you can get them. Some people know the concrete facts about Guilford, but Miss Lasley knows the more flexible data—that dealing with Guilfordians.

Nancy Era Lasley's experience with Guilford College has been long. It began when she came here as a student, graduating in the class of 1913. (It is rumored that she was quite a baseball fan).

The year after her graduation, she taught the third and fourth grades at Guilford Public School.

In 1923 she returned to the College to assume the duties of Registrar, and she also became secretary to the faculty at that time. She continues to serve in both of these capacities, thus having completed thirty-one years in these services. She was secretary of the Alumni Association from 1923 until 1928. Then in 1930 she became secretary of the North Carolina Association of Collegiate Registrars. She held this office until 1935 and then re-assumed these duties in 1948 for one year. For the year 1951-1952 she was president of this organization.

Miss Lasley's service has not been limited to the college itself, for she is a member of the Committee on Records of the North Carolina Yearly Meeting. We all wish to think of her in connection with the college, however, and are most appreciative.

Morning examinations will begin at 9:00 a. m., and afternoon examinations at 1:30 p. m. It is planned so that the three-hour exams will last until 12:00 noon and 4:30 p. m., respectively. All examinations will be given under the Guilford College Honor System.

On January 24, from 9:00 a. m. and 12:00 noon, registration for second semester will be held in the Library. All students are urged to check their catalogues of both Guilford and the Greensboro Evening College, and make tentative selections of the courses they wish to take.

Classes for the second semester will begin at 8:30 a. m. on Tuesday, January 25. All course drops and changes must be made within a week after that date.

Seniors are reminded that they must meet certain deadlines at the end of the first semester. Thesis outlines and applications for a degree must be submitted by that time.
