Junior-Senior Banquet To Be Held Tomorrow Night

Evelyn Cline To Present Piano Recital

Evelyn Cline, assisted by Calvin Strickland, will present her Junior Voice Recital tonight at 8:00 in Memorial Hall. It will be the first Junior Recital to be presented by a girl in a number of years. Maxine Ljung will be the accompanist.

The program consists of German, French, and Italian numbers with a duet from Don Giovanni. The last part of the program will be made up of light numbers such as "Summertime," "Bess, You Is My Woman Now," "I Got Plenty of Nuthin'," "The Nightingale," and "Love Is Where You Find It."

The public is cordially invited to attend the recital.

International Relations Club To Meet

The International Relations Club will meet on Thursday, April 28, with the Intercollegiate Council at the Student Union Building of Bennett College to take part in a lecture and discussion led by Dr. Chatterjee, a visiting professor at Bennett and native of India. Dr. Chatterjee, who was a personal acquaintance of Mahatma Ghandi, will speak concerning an Asian's views of the West. Discussion will follow the lecture with members of the Intercollegiate Council participating.

The Intercollegiate Council is composed of students and faculties of Guilford, Woman's College, Greensboro College, Bennett and A. & T. Colleges, interested in getting to know each other and to discuss college, domestic and international issues. The Guilford College group of the Intercollegiate Council is under the guidance of Dr. Lovejoy and Mr. Stafford of the sociology department.

The meeting is open to all students and faculty, and offers an opportunity for a more learned understanding of the way that other nations look at the United States, their government and culture. The Guilford group will meet at Memorial Hall at 7:30 Thursday night.

Fisher and Tennyson In Chapel Lectures

This past Wednesday we were fortunate in having Mr. Hallam Tennyson as speaker during the chapel period. Mr. Tennyson, the great-grandson of the Victorian Poet Laureate, Alfred Lord Tennyson, is well known in his own right. He is the writer of books, plays and short stories.

Mr. Tennyson is an active member of the Society of Friends and during 1945 he traveled extensively in India under the auspices of the American Friends Service Committee. He is presently occupied with the writing of a novel about India. All of this and many other things can be said of Mr. Tennyson, but most of all we wish to express our enjoyment of the lecture which he gave on Wednesday.

Today we have another outstanding chapel speaker in the person of Dr. Edgar J. Fisher, Director of the Southern Region, American Friends of the Middle East. He will speak this morning on "The Middle East in Transition." He has spoken to many college and university groups and his address should be of interest to all of us.

Revelers' Club To Present Spring Play April 29-30

The Revelers' Club will present its spring production on Friday and Saturday nights, April 29 and 30. The cast, under the direction of Lee Haring, includes Eileen Murray, Lee Haring, Billy Barnes, Jim Shelton, Dale Embich, Sydney Thompson, Nicole Schreiner, Martin Singer, Ted Brown and Samuel Walters. Lee Schmid has the position of Stage Manager.

The Lady's Not For Burning, by Christopher Fry, is a poetic comedy set in fifteenth century England. The characters are clear-cut and amusing. The plot is rather lost in the confusion of the telling but is simple to follow. It concerns a young man who wants to be hanged for at least one murder he has committed and a young girl who is to be hanged for witchcraft. She has no desire to be hanged and so Thomas, the young man, tries to prove to the mayor that it is ridiculous not to please each of them in their own fashion.

The play will be held in Memorial Hall with Guilford students admitted free.

Bill Jeffries And Carolinians To Provide Music

Tomorrow evening, April 23, the Junior Class will honor the seniors at the annual Junior-Senior banquet to be followed by a semi-formal dance. Beginning at 6:30, a roast turkey dinner with all the trimmings will be served; afterwards, the band of Bill Jeffries and the Carolinians will supply dance music until 11:30.

This year the Junior Class has worked hard to provide an evening of good entertainment for its guests. The theme of the banquet and dance is, of course, kept a secret until the awaited night, but from the rumors that have been leaking out, tomorrow night's program promises an evening of unusual and amusing performances and fun for guests and hosts alike.

The committee chairmen that have been in charge of organizing this event are: decorations, Ed Brown and Charlie Strider; food, Emily Warrick; invitations, Margaret Ann White; programs, Betsy Marklin; and entertainment, Evie Cline and Ketchel Adams.
