Christmas Dance To Be Sponsored By Monogram Club December 10th

Harold Gale To Provide Music

From 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. on the evening of December 10th the Monogram Club will sponsor the annual Christmas Dance. Harold Gale and his orchestra will accompany featured soloist, Guilford's own Gertie Wright, from the bandstand. The surprise crowning of the Christmas Queen will climax the evening.

Each year the senior Monogram members are honored, and this year Bob Alligood, Bill Atkins, Chester Baker, Ed Brown, Ted Brown, Marvin Carruthers, Bob Cornish, Ducky Everett, Bill Gibson, Curt Hege, Gerald McCumby, Bill Rogers, Eli Self, Charlie Strider, Chick Trafford, and Tom Younts are the honored ones.

Of course, committees are necessary for planning this big event. Chester Baker heads the decoration committee, Roger Roan plans invitations, Tom Younts mixes refreshments, Ed Brown plans for sufficient entertainment, while G. F. Seymour makes sure that every one knows about the dance.

All this for $2.00 per couple? Sure, and you never can tell what might happen after you're there. Will we see you then?

Jake McKeown is president of the Club this year. G. F. Seymour, vice-president; Bill Gibson, secretary; and Tom Younts, treasurer, are his assisting officers. We look forward to this year's dance as all previous dances under their sponsorship have been outstanding.

Rhodes Scholars To Visit Guilford Campus

On Tuesday evening and Wednesday, December 6th and 7th, Guilford College will be host to the Committee of Selection for Rhodes Scholars. This committee is made up of five Rhodes Scholars, one of whom will act as secretary to the committee. The chairman of the committee is not a Rhodes Scholar and is invited to preside by the committee. This year Dr. Milner will be committee chairman.

There will be two candidates to the regional conference selected from seventeen applicants. These scholarships provide for study at Oxford University. The basis of selection is as follows: (1) Literary and scholastic ability and attainments. (2) Qualities of manhood, truthfulness, courage, devotion to duty, sympathy, kindness, unselfishness, and fellowship. (3) Exhibition of moral force of character and of instincts to lead and to take an interest in his fellows. (4) Physical vigor, as shown by fondness for and success in sports.

Tuesday evening the candidates will have an opportunity to display their social bearing and on

Tickets For Lecture Available

The regular Greensboro MacDonald concert series will be started in Aycock Auditorium at 8 p.m., December 5, 1955. The Convocation Committee of Guilford College, which is made up of students and faculty, have bought ten tickets for the series of which there are five different programs.

The tickets are kept in the library and any one student can pick up a ticket after twelve o'clock on December 5. The tickets may be reserved by signing up before hand.

Vocalist for the first concert is Mr. Jussi Bjoerling, world famous tenor and artist of the metropolitan Opera Company. A superior musical artist like Jussi Bjoerling cannot be brought to the Guilford campus so the Convocation Committee has decided to buy a few tickets in order to make it possible for at least a few students to benefit from hearing good music. The committee seriously hopes that all ten tickets will be used for each program of the series. Further announcements will be made about the remaining four concerts.

Inter-Collegiate Council Meets

The Greensboro Inter-Collegiate Council consisting of students from the six colleges of the Greensboro area met at Greensboro College, last night December first. Students from Greensboro College presented the program for the meeting.

The Inter-Collegiate Council is composed of students enrolled in the six colleges of the Greensboro area interested in fostering social contact with students of other colleges who have similar intellectual interest and concern. Usually the meeting consist of discussions of collegiate, national and inter-national issues. Despite the fact that the council consists of both faculty and students from the various colleges, it has no formal connection with these colleges represented nor does it have any requirements for membership except a desire on the part of its members to want to know other students having diversified collegiate, racial, and vocational backgrounds.

Guilford students interested in attending future meetings should contact Martha Wellons or Frank Laraway and watch for announcements in the Guilfordian.
