Club Activities

The History Club heard Burke Davis, author and journalist, speak on how to write a historical novel at their meeting on January 7th. The club was organized just this year for history majors and has about forty members. Chick Traf-ford is president and Dr. Burrows and Dr. Newlin act as sponsors.

On Sunday night, December 11, members of the F. T. A. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bailey at a buffet supper given in the Bailey home.

After the meal, a report was made by the nominating commit-tee. The members then voted on the candidates named for presi-dent and Vice-president. Officers elected were Ruby Sheffield, pre-sident, and Merle Shelton, Vice-president.

Immediately following the bus-ness session, Evelyn Cline, ac-companied by Ann Cox, sang "Sweet Little Jesus Boy" and "Have Yourself a Merry, Merry Christmas".

The feature of the evening was Dr. Tomlinson's review of Virg-inia Gildersleeve's Many a Good Crusade, an autobiography telling of Miss Gildersleeves work as Dean of Barnard College.

The final activity was the sing-ing of carols by the group.
