GUILFORD COLLEGE, FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1956

NO. 13

Date For Spring Elections Is Approaching

Pictured above are the three student members and one student alternate elected by the student body to serve on the Committee on Athletics. They are left to right, Ketchel Adams, Bill Gibson, Charlie Strider and Lee Jacobson, alternate. Also serving on the committee will be three faculty members, three former Guilfordians, and three members of the Board of Trustees.

Tuesday, March 13th Set For Election Day

As March 13th, the day for spring elections at Guilford approaches, it is time for the students to think of the qualities and traits they want their campus leaders for next year to possess.

These student elections should definitely not be popularity contests; they should mainly be a question of capability. Each candidate should be weighed carefully with consideration of his past experience and leadership.

Just what are some of the traits that a student who represents Guilford College in his position as a campus leader should have? He or she ought to be honest, conscientious, dependable, friendly, just, likable, and cooperative. He should be able to work well with other people - - all types of people; he should be able to accept criticism and to control his temper; he should be interested in the position he holds and also realize his responsibility. He should be capable of building better relations between the administration and the students. Last, but not least, he must respect Guilford College and what it stands for.

Dr. Clyde Milner has this statement to make to the student body concerning the elections: "Students have an opportunity and real responsibility in electing their best possible leadership. Capacity for constructive administration of office sought and demonstrative influence in previous positions should be taken into consideration. In your choosing, think carefully about each candidate before voting and exercise your privilege of franchise with your best and carefully matured judgment."

Surely it is the duty of each student to think carefully before he votes, and not wait until the last moment to choose. Let's have a good slate of officers for every organization next year, and may the best men and women win!

Second Semester Registration Statistics

Each year following registration, enrollment statistics are compiled by the registrar, Miss Era Lasley, and her staff members. Many complaints have come in from the students and faculty concerning the over-enrollment at Guilford this year. The following figures seem to bear out their complaints.

For second semester:
Women Students	201
Men Students	446
Total	647

Out of this group there are 151 veterans, 108 married students, and 43 new students.

For the entire year:
Women Students	216
Men Students	485
Total	701

Out of this total for the year, there were 198 freshmen and 78 transfer students.

Strider, Gibson, And Adams Chosen To Serve On Athletic Committee

The athletic situation at Guilford was considered by the Board of Trustees in a meeting Friday, January 20. They were presented with a plan to subsidize sports at Guilford. The Board of Trustees suggested that a committee be appointed to draw up plans and present them to the board at a regular meeting in April. The committee is to be made up of three members from the Board of Trustees, three from the faculty, three from the alumni, and three students.

During freshman and upper class chapel last week, Bill Gibson, Charlie Strider, and Ketchel Adams were elected to represent the students.

The following ideas were expressed by the representatives.

Charlie Strider: "Guilford's athletics are in a very bad state and there should definitely be a change in the policies of the support of our intercollegiate teams. I will work toward a result which will satisfy the students and bring up the standards of Guilford's teams. We must all remember that this

Honor Roll For First Semester Released

The names of those students attaining 2.5 quality average or better, for the first semester, have been released. There were forty-one students who qualified for the honor roll. Out of these forty-one students there were eighteen seniors, ten juniors, nine sophomores, and three freshmen. Also out of this group there was one special student who made the honor roll. We will list those students out of this group who made all A's and those who made all A's but one. There are too many names to list all of the honor roll students, but for those interested the full list will be placed on the various campus bulletin boards.

The following students made all A's:

- Adams, Cornelia
- Bumgarner, Larry
- Edwards, Grady
- Jaffee, Alvin
- Shepherd, Marilyn
- Smith, Carol
- Tengve, Britta
- White, Margaret Anne

The following made all "A's" but one:

- Bainbridge, Rachel Shelton
- Brown, Edwin
