

ALBERT C. WOODROOF — A. C. WOODROOF, JR.
ARCHITECTS

Architect's Sketch of New Men's Dormitory

Trustees Approve New Dormitory Plans; Will Be Available Sept. '57

A new dormitory for men, with a permanent residence for a Dean of Men, has been authorized for construction by the Board of Trustees. It will be available for occupancy by September, 1957. This building will be a modification of Shore Hall and will house 54 men and provide a social, recreational lounge for all men students. This should provide relief for the over-crowded conditions existing in Cox Hall. Renovation and refurnishing should be completed in Cox Hall by September of 1957, as was done in Archdale during the summer of 1956.

Contest Offers Trip To England

An Essay competition for the students of Quaker schools is offering a first prize of a trip to England or Europe for one month for the best 2,000 to 5,000 word attempt to express the Quaker Approach to the Abolition of War. The competition was arranged by Charles Marland, an English Friend, who was a visitor at Guilford prior to the Christmas vacation. He spoke to those attending the I.R.C. Christmas Dinner. All entries are to be turned in to Dr. Edward Burrows by the first of May. Competent judgment will be made before the summer months when the prize is to be awarded. Mr. Marland wishes to encourage all interested Guilford students to submit an entry. The number of first prizes will depend on the number of entries from the various Quaker schools.

Several other projects which are essential to a sustained enrollment of 550 students, have been approved and construction should be underway in the near future. An Auditorium-Chapel-Religious Education Building has been also proposed and will be large enough to provide for the College and the community—it is planned to seat 800 to 1,000. Included will be a modern stage with lighting equipment, adequate space backstage for scene-building and an amplification system. The auditorium will also have facilities for the use of films and slides and a small soundproof room for recordings and direct broadcasts. A $25,000 gift from the James Foundation of New York will be used towards this specific project.

As soon as an auditorium-chapel is available, the second floor of Memorial Hall will be made into faculty offices and classrooms. In the reconstruction of this building, consideration should be given to the adequate housing of the college's extremely valuable scientific collections.

As the development of the campus progresses, it becomes increasingly evident that the playing fields should be located just east of the gymnasium and should provide for both intramural and intercollegiate games. Experience has indicated that the Guilford students and alumni greatly prefer to have all home games played on the campus. Adequate seating and parking are being planned and will be part of the current Development Program.

Plans have been made to improve the entire lake area at Guilford College, especially the west shore and the bathing beach. The area north of the gymnasium has been chosen as an outdoor social recreational center.

Just north of the John Gurney Frazier Houses, six new units are to be constructed. These units are to be built primarily to house faculty families.

As the new buildings are completed, all essential walks will be laid and also, additions to, and extensions of, the central heating plant will be made, as progress advances.

Thought for the Week

Why is it always easy to say what you shouldn't, and hard to find the right words when you have something constructive to say?

Plans Underway for Religious Emphasis Week, February 11-15

The week of February 11-15 will be observed as Religious Emphasis Week on the Guilford campus. Highlights of the planned program will be a talk by Mr. James D. Glasse and a choral concert by the A & T Choir.

Mr. Glasse, who will speak in Freshman chapel on Monday of that week, and in Upperclassman chapel on Tuesday, is a graduate of Occidental College, Los Angeles, California, where he received his B.A. in 1946. He also attended Yale Divinity School where he received his B.D. in 1950. He has served in the U. S. Army Air Force and has held many responsible positions. At present Mr. Glasse is Associate Professor of Church Administration and Director of Field Work at Vanderbilt University Divinity School, Nashville, Tenn.

The A & T Choir, which enjoys a reputation for beautiful music, will sing on Friday evening at 8:00. This concert will be followed by a tea in the Student Union building.

Other activities of the week include: bull sessions in all dormitory sections, during which questions of a religious nature will be asked and answered; morning devotions on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 8:10; evening vespers, Monday through Friday at 6:45; and speakers at Wednesday night seminars who will tell students how religion is applicable to their respective vocations. This idea of the application of religion to vocation is the central theme for Religious Emphasis Week, 1957.

The people planning and working in various committees to make this week a success are: Mert Kiser, Virginia Honea, Betty Jane Beamon, Jo Ann Hundley, Royce Angel, Sylvia Fee, Carolyn Pipkin, Merle Shelton, John Slopey, Bob Iskowitz, Dale Embich, Shirley Lambert, Clara Atkinson, Dorcas Epperson, Frankie Brown, Jimmy Askins, Bill Smith, Mack Baker, and Ann Rae Thomas. Sponsors are Dr. Crownfield and Dr. Feagins.

Regional Study Conference Held at Davidson College

Jo Ann Hundley, President of the Westminster Fellowship, and Dr. E. F. Burrows attended the United Student Christian Council Southeastern Regional Study Conference held at Davidson College, North Carolina, December 27 through January 1. This council is composed of eleven denominational groups and the student YMCA and YWCA.

The conference brought together students, faculty, and administrative officials from 13 different Christian denominations and 126 colleges. The Davidson conference, one of seven regional conferences held during the Christmas holidays, attracted 319 delegates.

The conference theme, "Our United Witness on the Campus," was explored in platform addresses, faculty-led discussions, and small group Bible study. Professor Waldo Beach of Duke University, in five addresses, described the ideal of the university, the social and intellectual brokenness and disunity on the campus, and possible strategies for the recovery of wholeness in the academic community.

The student-led Bible study focused upon the brokenness and unity of the Church in the New Testament. Student groups discussed strategy for Christian concern in student government, summer work projects, ecumenical relations, study groups, religious emphasis weeks, and race relations.

Social Committee Sparks Student Union

The Social Committee has undertaken the task of assuring students of Saturday evening entertainment.

Individual members have volunteered to take charge of an evening's activity. Their tentative schedule is as follows:

- December 15 Royce Angel
John Slopey
- January 5 Joyce Hannum
Caroline Newlin
- January 12 Jimmy Askins
Rachel Richardson
- January 19 Mack Baker
Craven Mackie
- February 2 Bob Newton
Clara Hughes Jones
- February 9 Pat Lifsey
- February 23 Anne Rae Thomas
Dorcas Epperson
- March 9 Ann Rollins
Bob Iskowitz
- March 16 Joyce Hannum
Caroline Newlin
- March 23 Jimmy Askins
Rachel Richardson
- April 13 Mack Baker
Craven Mackie
- April 20 Bob Newton
Clara Hughes Jones

A new experiment in the social life of Guilford! It should satisfy a need long felt by the student body.

"This conference will help all student Christian movements recognize the importance of study as a Christian calling, and enlarge their programs of study on the campus," said Herluff Jensen, executive secretary of the U.S.C.C. "We have learned much here about our disunity and the need for more unity in our witness on the campus."

ESSAY CONTEST AWARDS $3,000

An essay contest entitled Alcohol and Safety is being sponsored by the Intercollegiate Association. Three-thousand dollars in prizes is being awarded through the Logan H. Roberts Awards.

The Awards are open to any full-time undergraduate students registered in a college, university or junior college in the United States and Canada for the school year 1956-1957. No student who has written professionally is eligible. The maximum length of each essay is 800 words; minimum length is 500 words. Manuscripts must be typewritten double spaced or written in ink. An entry blank must be attached to each paper submitted. These blanks, and further information, may be obtained from:

Secretary of Editorial Awards
Intercollegiate Association for
Study of the Alcohol Problem
12 North 3rd St. Room 522
Columbus 15, Ohio

All entries must be postmarked no later than May 1, 1957.

The Intercollegiate Association is engaged in full-time education among college students on the problems caused by alcohol. The aim of the association is to stimulate thinking and service, based

(Continued on page four)