

May Day Festivities Scheduled

Semi-Formal Set As Finale Of Day

"Somewhere Over the Rainbow," the theme of the 1958 May Day festivities, will be carried out in the annual May Day dance which will be held Saturday night, May 3, from 8:30 p.m. until 11:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium. Music for "dancing and good listening" will be furnished by a Winston-Salem band, Jimmy Myers—His piano and orchestra, with vocal numbers done by Ruby Lee and the Three Tones.

Since this will be a semi-formal flower dance, the boys are requested to wear either tuxedos or suits. Tickets are $1.50 per couple ($.75 for stags), and they may be purchased from Martha Allen in Founders Hall, Sue Drake in Shore Hall, or Pat Garner in Mary Hobbs Hall.

Highlighting the dance will be a special figure (which will be directed by Jo Ann Hundley) honoring the Queen of May and her court, followed by a dance reserved for them.

Sponsored annually by the Women's Athletic Association, of which Gertie Murrow is president, the May Day dance has been planned by the W.A.A. cabinet members. Sue Drake and Nancy Russ, social co-chairmen of the W.A.A., are in general charge of the event and are assisted by Lynn Warren, Mary Ellen White, Margaret Haworth, Pat Garner, Pat Estes, Carol McBane, Sarah Atkinson, Martha Mackie, Frances Cashwell, Caroline Primm, Kay Burton, and Martha Allen.

Ruby Lee, Song Stylist

History Club Members Act As Jury At Duke

Last Wednesday and Thursday, twelve members of the Guilford College History Club sat in the jurors box at Duke University while the graduating lawyers tried to influence their decisions on make-believe cases being presented before them. The cases may have been make believe, but a marked atmosphere of reality prevailed as the future lawyers gestured and questioned witnesses.

Dr. Brodway of the Duke law school had extended the invitation through Bill Manson, president of the History Club. The club members went to Duke in three cars provided by club members. They were well received and dined very enjoyably in Duke's own exclusive restaurant, The Bok Room, and experienced an interesting event.

Dr. Brodway, pleased with the performance of the jurors decisions, said he expects to extend the same invitation next year.

Going through their routine for the May Day skit are these girls: Ernestine Williams, Gaye Burton, Kaye Burton, Martha Mackie, Judy Wolff, and Jo Cook. They will be labeled "Rip Van Winkles" in the afternoon performance which will begin at 4:00 p.m.

Articles Should Be Presented For Literary Magazine Publication

The staff of the newly organized literary magazine recently held its initial meeting. Ten members, including editor-in-chief Bill Bloom, were present.

For the first time in the history of Guilford College will a student-wide magazine be published. The only creative efforts made which resembles this magazine were in 1938 when a creative writing class compiled that year's work into a volume which may be seen in the library.

Advised by Dr. Chauncey Ives and David Morrah, an editorial board will read contributions and decide which articles are to be published. However, Bill Bloom will have the final decision.

The magazine will consist of a mixture of poems, essays, short stories, and humorous or satirical articles designed to please all readers.

The editor has said that the first issue of the magazine will have such contributors as Dave Morrah, Dr. Furnas, and Craven Mackie.

Dave Morrah, writer for both the Saturday Evening Post and the Greensboro Daily News, will contribute one of his high-quality pseudo-German tales. Dr. Furnas, well-known by some of the "old-timers" as quite a poet, will submit an article. Craven Mackie hopes to have either a short story

Post Barbour To Give Piano Recital

Tonight at 8:30 Post Barbour will present his Senior piano recital in the college auditorium. The program will consist of five numbers. Following the recital a reception will be held in the Student Union.

As a member of the A Cappella Choir Post has served for four years as accompanist for Handel's "The Messiah." He has also been an active member of the Fine Arts Club and the Student Affairs Board. During his college work he has gained honor roll distinction. In his Sophomore and Junior years here he was awarded the David Troll Rees Scholarship in Music. Upon completion of his work at Guilford in June, Post plans to do graduate study in music.

or excerpts from his new play ready for this issue. Also, Dr. Furnas's English 12 class has submitted numerous poems and short stories for consideration for publication the editor says.

Articles may be turned in tonight at the magazine's staff meeting to be in the Student Union at 7:00 p.m. Material must be typewritten, double-spaced. It is important that the material display the high quality found in the creative writings of the students.

It is the hope of the whole staff that this magazine will become a regular feature on the campus as they feel that there is a lot of latent creative talent on the campus and that there is a definite need for a media through which these writers may express their talents. The staff also hopes that the students will support the magazine through its interest and literary contributions.

S.A.B. Elects Heads For Coming Year

Bill Crofton will head the new staff of Student Affairs Board officers for the coming year as president. Bill is a rising senior and is the vice-president of both the Men's Student Government and the Senior class.

Heea Halder will serve as vice-president. Heea is the president of the International Relations Club. She is also a rising senior. The job of secretary will be filled by Betty Ann Pringle, a rising senior from Greensboro. Betty Ann will also serve as president of the Fine Arts Club for next year. Sue Drake, a rising sophomore from Gastonia will be the assistant secretary. She is the chairman of the social committee.

The two main committees of the Student Affairs Board for next year will be the Budget Committee, headed by Dave Hardin as chairman with Jordan Washburn, and Carol McBane, and the Handbook Committee, whose main function will be to publish a handbook for all the freshman students. This handbook will be sent to every freshman before the start of the fall term. The chairman will be Virginia Cox with Bob Matthews and Doug Kerr serving under her.

Boys', Girls' May Day And Crowning Set For May 3

Guilford College's traditional May Day celebration will take place May 3. It consists of Boy's May Day, Girl's May Day, and the presentation of the May Court and the crowning of the queen.

All these events are traditions of the college that go back over twenty years. The first event of the day is Boy's May Day which starts between five and six in the morning. No definite plans have been made yet but noise and skits and amusement is guaranteed.

A slightly more sedate Girl's May Day follows at four that afternoon. Jo Ann Hundley and Miss Kitty Upchurch are in charge of the program. The theme for this year is "A Land of Fantasy: Somewhere over the Rainbow." A narrator will read a script and introduce the dances. Before the dances the May Court and the Queen will walk down the path and onto the grass at Front Campus. The style and color of the dresses is kept a secret until that day. The flower girl will be Penny Parsons, the Parsons' daughter; and the Moore's son Doug will be the crown bearer. The queen, Rachel Richardson, will be crowned by her escort. Her maid of honor is Mary Cashwell and the court consists of: Ann Harper, Eilene Murry, Pinky Lapp, Clara Atkinson, Ruth Simpson, Jo Anne Kellis, Denny Walters, Suzie Walter.

The celebration of May Day goes back hundreds of years and is found in many different cultures. It can be found in ancient Rome and in medieval and Tudor England. There it was considered a public

"Intercollegian" To Sponsor Student Photo Contest

A contest for college student photographers is being sponsored by The Intercollegian, a magazine covering the college field and published by the National Student YMCA-YWCA. Theme of the contest is student life and education in America, and $850 in prizes in equipment and cash are offered.

The contest will close November 1, 1958. For complete contest rules and entry blank students may write to Intercollegian Photography Contest, 291 Broadway, New York 7, N. Y.

Top equipment prizes are as follows: Konica III MXL Camera, case and flash; DeJur Eldorado III 8 mm. Movie Camera; Argus C44 Camera, case and flash; Graphic 35 Camera and Ansco Menar Travel Outfit (camera, case and flash). First prize winner will receive $150 and first choice of one of the pieces of equipment, and second prize winner $50 and choice of one piece of equipment. Third through fifth prizes will be equipment, and sixth prize will be a 3.5 Flash Flex Capacitor Flashgun.

Honorable Mention awards will include six prizes of $15 in cash; No. 2 Nikor Stainless Steel Developing Tank for 120-620 film; five copies of Picture, the American Society of Magazine Photographers Annual; five copies of The Family of Man; six super-slide kits for Rollei Cameras, and ten Ansco 35 mm. magazines of Super Anscochrome.

holiday when people went into the woods and gathered branches and flowers. They carried them in procession in the center of which was the May pole decorated with robbers and flowers. The people danced and sang around it.

Here at school May Day is an opportunity for the boys to let off excess energy at five in the morning, for the most beautiful Senior girls to parade, for the May Day dance that night and the realization that there is less than one more month of school.

Following are the names of the dances, those participating in them and those in charge for Girl's May Day:

Rip Van Winkle

Martha Allen, Sarah Atkinson, Lillian Burrow, Gaye Burton, Kaye Burton, Francis Cashwell, Joyce Causey, Margaret Haworth, Martha Hobbs, Virginia Honea, Joyce Hannaum, Mai Liis Luide, Cheryl McCumby, Martha Mackie, Clara Montgomery, Lyn Warren, Betty Welch, Ernestine Williams, Susan Gillespie, Andrea Rogin, Delores Fleenor. Dance Chairmen, Joyce Hannaum, Delores Fleenor, Bobbie Kerr; Costume Chairmen, Virginia Honea, Cheryl McCumby.

Peter Pan

Becki Blackwell, Wanda Carter, Peggy Sue Chilton, Virginia Cox, Pat Estes, Jackie Glisson, Lynda Ingle, Soon Hi Kim, Carol McBane, Betty Lou McFarland, Cynthia Moore, Joan Maylor, Joyce Neal, Mary Nell Parker, Betty Jean Steele, Geraldene Wald-rup, Dorcas White, Mary Ellen White, Elizabeth Willey, Gertie Wright, Gaye Garrison. Dance Chairman, Mary Ellen White; Costume Chairmen, Becki Blackwell, Cynthia Moore.

Witches

Miriam Almaguer, Judy Austin, Claudette Belton, Louise Beasley, Janna Carpenter, Heea Halder, Ginny Hardin, Jane Mowery, Betty Ann Pringle, Ruth Rollins. Dance Chairmen, Ruth Rollins, Betty Ann Pringle, Claudette Belton; Costume Chairmen, Louise Beasley, Ginny Hardin, Janna Carpenter.

Fairies

Ann Clark, Norma Clark, Cathy Coble, Betty Lou Chilton, Rasma
(Continued on page two)

Jr.-Sr. Dance Begins At 8:30 Tomorrow

Tomorrow night at 8:30 the annual Junior-Senior dance of Guilford College will be held in the gym. Because it is a semi-formal dance, boys are asked to wear either suits or tuxedos. Guests who are not from either the Junior or Senior class may be invited. It is not a flower dance.

The "Appatones" from Appalachian College will furnish the music. There will also be other entertainment.

In charge of decorations are Claudette Belton and Buck Carson. The decorations will be of a spring motif. The theme is being kept a surprise for the Seniors.

Punch and cookies will be served for refreshments. Louise Beasley, Martha Crater, and Maaret Koivula are in charge of this.

A fee of $1.50 from the Juniors, which covered the banquet, will also cover the dance.