The Guilfordian

Choir Begins Practice for "The Messiah"

Published by the Students of the South's Only Quaker College

Volume XLIII

GUILFORD COLLEGE, N. C., OCTOBER 24, 1958

INTERNATIONAL FAIR TO DISPLAY CULTURE OF VARIOUS COUNTRIES

is sponsoring a Fair to be held in the Student Union tomorrow from 11:00 A.M. until 4:00 P.M. The foreign students are primarily in charge of it, and will operate booths displaying products of their own individual countries. There will be exhibits of jewelry, literature, and pottery from the various nations represented on campus. Some of the countries to be included are Cuba, Greece, Finland, France, Japan and India. All in all, there will be at least eleven booths with a special section honoring the United Nations. Refreshments from each country will be served.

The Young Friends Organization is planning to provide the entertainment with games and prizes for all who are interested. There is the possibility that A & T College in Greensboro will also help in the presentation. The Fair is open to all members of the Guilopen to all members of the Guilford College community as well as regular college students.

This is a co-operative effort on the part of all International Rela-

Representatives Are Nominated

In a recent meeting the Student Affairs Board selected Bob Burns, Joyce Hannaum, John Hewlett, Larry Holland, Jo Ann Hundley, Bonnie Lewis, Brad Little, Jamie Mathews, Bruce Stewart, Chris Suiter, and Howard Walton as nominees for representatives to the annual State Student Legislature. In Tuesday and Wednesday chapels students will elect six of the above as representatives of Guilford College. The six delegates will meet in Raleigh with repre-sentatives of all other colleges and universities of the state in a model legislative body. The students will then discuss and debate controversial issues which have recently presented themselves to the state and to the nation.

The International Relations Club | knowledge about the various backgrounds of our foreign students here on campus and a further understanding of the purposes of the United Nations. The president of the organization, Heea Halder, extends an invitation to all who are interested to come to the Fair

IRC Will Present Chapel Program At Jamestown High

The students at Jamestown High School will have a chapel program Thursday, presented by the foreign students of the International Rela-tions Club. This program will be a climax to boys and girls work sponsored by a Jamestown civics club and will be an attempt to help the young people see more of the ways of life in other lands.

The program is to be about twenty minutes long and will consist of entertainment in the form of song and dance done according to the native fashion of the performer. Student Legislature

Those foreign students who can will be dressed in the attire of their homeland.

It is the hope of the I. R. C. that this variety presentation will help to widen the minds of the viewers on the world wide situation at

'59 May Day Court Selected

Selected by the Senior Class for the 1959 May Court are these 10 girls. First row (I to r), Pat Estes, Jo Ann Hundley, Janet Andrews, Gerdie Murrow, Mary Ruth Thropshire. Second row, Janet Smith, Claudette Belton, Coreen Case, Louise Beasley, Becke Blackwell.

WSG Council Establishes Committee To Investigate Academic Interests

Committee within the Council to investigate ways to carry out the findings in elevating the academic interests of the women students.

This committee was first formed in the Spring semester and this semester the committee has started working on a definite plan. This committee will be a permanent part of the W.S.G. and will attempt to keep up with the problems presented each year. It will thus con-

Freshman Class Officers

Freshman Class officers are (l to r) Evelyn Copeland, song leader; Tommy Kemp, treasurer; Jimmy Boles, president; Tom Bowers, vice-president; and Judy Allen, secretary.

The Women's Student Govern-ment has established a Scholarship committee as well as a working committee.

This year's committee members are Coreen Case, Clara Montgomery, Co-chairmen, Jinette Bou-dereau, Anne Taylor and Julie each representing the different dormitories.

The plans for this year cannot be told yet since the committee's report has to be approved by the W.S.G. Council, but it is hoped that in the next issue of the Guilfordian, the committee will be able to announce its plans and projects. However, there is one thing that can be said: One of the main purposes of this committee is to make available a student committee with which women students can feel free to discuss problems in connection with their academic life.

Quaker Newsletter

sue, the Young Friends group on campus will undertake the publica-tion of "The Young Friend," a newsletter concerning the Young Friends of North America. They will continue this job for six Co-editors will be Dorcas White and Millie Marshall. Lee Andrews is business manager, with Jim Childress and Robin Heritage serving as subscription editors. All members of the group will combine efforts to assemble the paper. Subscriptions cost $1.00.

Queen To Be Chosen Soon

Members of the 1959 May Court plans to teach history "somewhere have been announced by Dave Hardin, Senior Class President."

| President The ten girls on the court were elected recently by the entire Senior Class; the May Queen will be selected from the group later. Elections for the Queen will take place in chapels on November 4 and 12. The following make up the court:

BECKE BLACKWELL: Becke, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Blackwell of High Point, is an education major who plans to teach next fall. Becke was maid of honor in the 1958 Homecoming Court, president of the F.T.A., and is a choir member.

PAT ESTES: Coming from Mount Airy, Pat is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Estes. She is a Court and is now a member of the History Club and the W.A.A. Pat garet Haworth.

JANET SMITH: Janet, from Lexington, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. French H. Smith. She is an education major, senior represen-tative to the W.S.G., member of the Quaker staff, and plans to teach in an elementary school next year.

GERTRUDE MURROW: The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Murrow, of Pleasant Garden, Gertie is chief cheerleader and president of the W.A.A. She is a member of the choir and plans to teach next fall, after being married in the summer.

Coreen Case: A native of Charlotte, Coreen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Case. Coreen transferred to Guilford from Warren Wilson College at the beginpast member of the Homecoming Court and is now a member of the History Club and the W.A.A. Pat

Young Friends Print

Beginning with the October ising decorations went to the freshman class for the best float, Shore Hall Publication of the paper is a six months rotating affair. for the best girls' dorm, and Old South for the best boys' dorm.

Today Is United Nations Day