

Homecoming Festivities Are Scheduled

Tomorrow's Dance Is Sponsored By WAA

The 1959 Homecoming celebrations will be brought to an appropriate end with the annual Homecoming Dance tomorrow night. The Women's Athletic Association is responsible for the affair again this year. The dance is scheduled to begin at 8:00 p. m. in the college gymnasium, and will last until 11:45.

The 1959 Homecoming Queen, with her Maid of Honor and her Court, will be introduced at the dance into a figure out on the gym floor. The six girls that comprise the court are: Betsy Winsett from Pinnacle; Caroline Primm from Snow Camp; Miriam Almaguer from Miami, Florida; Carol Triplette from Winston-Salem; Merle Mallard from Wallace; and Lucy Garcia from Cuba.

Music for the annual semi-formal affair will be provided by Johnny Shields and the Mellotones.

Tickets for the dance can be purchased from any member of the WAA, either before the dance or at the door of the gymnasium tomorrow night. These tickets are priced at $1.50 per couple and 75c stag.

The Homecoming Dance is semi-formal, and is not necessarily a flower dance. Refreshments will be served.

Waldrep Is Alternate Honor Board Member

Jerri Waldrep was chosen by the Student Affairs Board as the new alternate member of this year's Honor Board. Jerri replaced Betty Lou McFarland, who became a regular member of the Board when Ann Carmichael did not return to Guilford this fall.

The Honor Board selected several people whose names were turned over to the Student Affairs Board. The SAB, in turn, selected the new alternate member.

Regular members of the Honor Board this year include Miriam Almaguer, Betty Lou McFarland, Charles Chase, A. T. Barbee, and Tom O'Briant, chairman. Mr. Stuart Devlin, assistant professor of economics, is the Board's faculty advisor, and Mr. Herb Apenzaller, head football coach, is the alternate advisor.

HOMECOMING COURT -- 1959

Tenth Annual Ward Lecture To Be Given By Dorothy Gilbert Thorne

Founders Day commemoration, which began yesterday in chapel, will be concluded by the Ward Lecture to be given by Mrs. Dorothy Gilbert Thorne at 8 p. m. tonight in the auditorium. Her subject will be "Quakerism in Fiction and Poetry Recently Written by Women." Mrs. Thorne has a long teaching record at Guilford and a thorough knowledge of the history of the college. She is the author of Guilford's A Quaker College.

She received an AB degree from Earlham College and an AM degree from Columbia University. She did graduate study at the University of Wisconsin and the University of North Carolina. Her duties at Guilford, beginning in 1926, included professor of English and also acting librarian for a while.

A continuation of Founders Day activities will be homecoming tomorrow. Many former stu-

Musical Production To Be Staged Here

The Convocations Committee has approved and allotted funds for a brand new idea, that being a student production of Roger's and Hammerstein's "Annie Get your Gun." The musical comedy is to be presented in March at Memorial Hall, and the main goal for the program is a quality performance. Mr. Smyre and Mr. Deagon will direct and the cast will be chosen completely from the student body, if possible.

The try-outs are to be held November 23 and 24; all interested are invited to show their talents, which should consist of a little acting ability as well as being able to carry a tune.

The music department will co-operate with the home-economics department, which is to help with the costuming, and the physical education department which is to provide dancing in adding more student participation. Everyone is urged to participate if interested, and to show complete co-operation to make the show a success.

Anyone desiring a backstage job should also contact Mr. Smyre.

Queen To Be Crowned At Halftime Of Game

The 1959 Homecoming Court was chosen by the entire student body in chapel elections last week. On Tuesday, October 27, and Wednesday, October 28, ten candidates were presented in chapel programs to the entire college. Of these ten, six were chosen to compose the annual Homecoming Court of Guilford College. The Queen, who is the court member with the largest number of votes, and her maid of honor will be announced during the halftime of the Homecoming game tomorrow afternoon.

The Homecoming ceremonies will kick off tomorrow, the climax coming when the Quakers meet the Mountaineers of Appalachian State Teachers College who travel down from Boone, on Hobbs Field at 2:00 p. m. The dormitories will be decorated, and a group of judges will be visiting them during the morning to pass their final decision. A prize will be given for the best, and a prize will also be given for the best float. These will be awarded during the halftime ceremonies.

Held in suspense until the last moment, the Homecoming Queen will be crowned by Dr. E. Daryl Kent, Guilford's Dean of Men.

This year's Homecoming Court consists of: Betsy Winsett, a sophomore from Pinnacle, N. C.; Betsy is majoring in elementary education. She was on the Homecoming Court last year, and is being sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association, this year.

Caroline Primm is a senior from Snow Camp, N. C., and is sponsored by the Men's Student Government. She is an elementary education major, and is a member of the 1960 May Court, also.

Merle Mallard is a sophomore music major from Wallace, N. C. Merle is sponsored by the Choir.

Miriam Almaguer is from Miami, Florida. She is a junior math major and is being sponsored by the GUILFORDIAN. Miriam is president of the junior class and also president of the International Relations Club. She is also a tutor for the Spanish department.

Lucy Garcia is a sophomore from Cuba. She is a chemistry major and is being sponsored by the International Relations Club. Lucy was also a member of last year's Homecoming Court.

Carole Triplette is the only freshman member of the Court. She is an elementary education major from Winston-Salem, N. C. and is being sponsored by the Monogram Club.

News Briefs

All the cheerleaders extend a welcome to Judy Wells, the new alternate cheerleader from Wallace, N. C. Judy is a member of the freshman class and lives in Mary Hobbs Hall.

There will be a special pep rally tonight, after the Ward Lecture. Everyone is urged to go to the gymnasium at the end of the program to show the football team that they have our support behind them for the Homecoming game with Appalachian Mountaineers tomorrow. The cheerleaders send an extra special invitation to each student.

A reminder — the quarter ends and the grades are due in to the office one week from tomorrow, on November 14. These grades will be issued shortly thereafter!

Individual pictures for the Quaker will be taken on November 9-17. These pictures are scheduled to be shot in the College Union, and nothing else is to be scheduled in the conference room during these eight days. The price is $1.50 per person.
