

A&T Musicians To Be Featured In Talent Show

There will be plenty of song and dance for everyone this Thursday night when the Monogram Club holds its annual Talent Show in Memorial Hall auditorium at 7:15.

Along with the approximately eight or nine acts using campus talent, a special feature will be performances by a group of students from A & T College in Greensboro. This group will have five acts with talent ranging all the way from vocals to instrumentals to combos. Each of these A & T students holds a degree in music.

An annual award will be presented for the best male and best female performances. Johnny Shields, winner of last year's male award, will be back to defend his title. Jerry Farber will be assisting him.

"This show will be far beyond any talent show ever presented on Guilford campus," says Johnny Meroney, retiring president of the Monogram Club.

Admission will be 50¢ and tickets will be sold at the door. "All proceeds will go to the Monogram Club—a worthwhile investment," Johnny concluded.

Bob Winsor to Present Senior Piano Recital

Bob Winsor will present his senior piano recital at 8 p.m. Friday in Memorial Hall.

His program will include "Sonata in E Minor" by Haydn, "Concerto Number 2 in B Flat Major, Opus 19" by Beethoven, "Au Bord d'Une Source (by a Spring)" by Liszt, and "Carnival Opus 9" by Schumann.

Although classical music is his specialty, he enjoys other types of music now and then.

Bob has been the business manager of the Choir for the last year. He has been accompanist in the choir's performances of Handel's Messiah for the past two years and he will accompany Mozart's Requiem which will be performed by the choir in May.

6 Faculty Members Promoted in Rank

Stafford, Hilty Burrows, Marlette Gain New Titles

Four Guilford College professors have been elevated in faculty rank: Dr. David B. Stafford, Associate Professor of sociology, and Hiram H. Hilty, Associate Professor of Spanish, to full professors; Miss Mildred Marlette, Assistant Professor of English, and Dr. Edward F. Burrows, Assistant Professor of history, to associate professors.

A fellow in the American Sociological Assn. and a member of Guilford's faculty since 1946, Dr. Stafford serves as the administrative head of the college's Sociology and Anthropology Department. He received his Ph.D. degree from Duke University in 1955 and holds degrees from Guilford and Haverford College. He has done graduate work at Columbia University and at the University of North Carolina.

Mr. Hilty came to Guilford in 1948 and is now head of the Department of Foreign Languages. He is vice-president of the North Carolina chapter of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese. He holds degrees from Bluffton College and Hartford Theological Seminary and has studied at Universidad Nacional de Mexico and Duke University. Miss Marlette, a faculty member at Guilford since 1949, is Dean of Women. She did her undergraduate study at Guilford and holds a master's degree from the University of North Carolina, where she has completed all work toward the Ph.D. degree except dissertation.

Dr. Burrows joined Guilford's faculty in 1948. He was graduated from Washington and Lee University, Duke University, and the University of Wisconsin. During the fall semester he was a visiting lecturer in history at Woman's College.

Stafford

Hilty

Marlette

Burrows

Yates

Mathis

Yates and Mathis Get New Positions

Dr. Clyde A. Milner has announced the appointment of Bill L. Yates, a Thomasville native and a 1953 graduate of Guilford, as Registrar. Mr. Yates has been serving as Acting Registrar for the past year, succeeding Miss N. Era Lasley, who is devoting all of her time as Special Alumni Assistant. He will continue his duties as Registrar June 1.

Since his graduation from Guilford, Mr. Yates has taught at Guilford High School and at Thomasville High School and was Personnel Clerk in the Adjutant General's Section of 7th Army Headquarters, United States Army, Stuttgart, Germany.

During the summers of 1952, 1953 and 1956 he was head counselor at Camp Hemlock, where he worked not only with campers but also with the college men who were counselors.

Mr. Yates served as Dean of Men at Guilford in 1957-59, and has been an Assistant Professor of Education.

Head Librarian

Mrs. Treva W. Mathis, an Assistant Librarian at Guilford College since 1950, has been appointed Acting Head Librarian. Mrs. Mathis assumed her new duties March 1.

Before coming to Guilford, Mrs. Mathis was Assistant Circulation Librarian at Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, where she received her A.B. degree in Library Science.

Mrs. Mathis is president of the Greensboro Library Club and is Chairman-Elect, College and University Library section of North Carolina Library Association.

JR.-SR. EVENTS ARE APRIL 23 IN FOUNDERS, COLLEGE UNION

All seniors are to be feted on the night of April 23 when they will be the guests of honor at the annual Junior-Senior banquet and prom. The dinner hour will be 6:30 p.m. at Founder's Hall and the prom will begin at 9:30 in the College Union.

Society Inducts 10

Jane Carroll has been named president of the Scholarship Society for 1960-61. Ten new members have been installed in the organization. Students receiving this honor were Jane, Tom Copeland, Ira Ross, Anne Taylor, Doug Connor, James Butcher, Miriam Almaguer, Jerry Jennings, Joyce Neal Campbell, and Ramona Barrow.

Speaking of the new members, Julie Trimble, retiring president, said, "This is the largest group ever to be inducted at one time here at Guilford."

Patronize Our Advertisers!

Marshals Named; Childress is Chief

New marshals for the school year 1960-61 have been announced. James Childress, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Childress, will act as Chief Marshal. He is a religion major from White Plains and is a day student living in the Frazier Apartments.

Among the other marshals is Judy Allen, a biology major from Hyattsville, Md. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Allen.

Frances Cook of Siloam is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Cook. She is an English major.

David Edgerton is a math major from Goldsboro. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Edgerton. Edward Murrelle, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Murrelle of Greensboro, is an economics major. He lives in the Frazier Apartments.

George Parish, a day student from Greensboro, is the son of E. W. Parish. He is a history major.

Dora Smith, a French major from Goldsboro, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Smith. Sara

Lou Phillips is from Mt. Airy. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Phillips and is a math major.

The first duties of these marshals will be to serve at graduation.

Marshals for the coming year of '60-'61 are (front row, 1 to r) Dora Smith, Frances Cook, Sara Lou Phillips, Judy Allen; (back row, 1 to r) Edward Murrelle, George Parish, David Edgerton and James Childress, chief. These marshals will take over their first duties at the graduation exercises in May.

Revelers Prepare Chapel Production

The Reveler's Club will present a comic drama in chapel April 20. It is a one act play entitled "The Lesson" by Eugene Ionesco.

Playing the three characters in the play will be Bill Bloom as the Professor, Cathy Coble as the Maid, and Evelyn Westphal as the Young Pupil. The setting is in the professor's office.

This play will also be presented for the Carolina Dramatic Association's 37th Annual Festival at the Playmakers Theatre in Chapel Hill on Friday, April 29.

The kiddies were being taken on a tour of the mint.

"Why is it," asked one of them, "that they stamp 'In God We Trust' on the pennies?"

"That," explained the guide, "is for the benefit of people who use them for fuses."

Burton Announces May Day Plans

May 14 has been set as the date for the annual May Day festivities. Holiday Capers will be the theme. The program will begin at 4 p.m. on the green between Founders and King Halls.

According to Gaye Burton, May Day chairman, the program will be "an interpretation of holidays throughout the year done in dances for special days of the year such as 'the Fourth of July,' 'Labor Day,' 'Halloween,' 'Christmas,' and 'May Day.' The history and background will be given, including how certain holidays got their names, why they are celebrated, and why they are celebrated when they are."

The WAA sponsors this event. Dance rehearsals will be worked differently this year. Rather than have practices during the regular physical education classes, they will be scheduled in the afternoons and at night.

Larkins to Speak In Chapel

John D. Larkins, N. C. gubernatorial candidate, is slated to speak in upperclass chapel this Friday.

Mr. Larkins is a Trenton attorney. He is a trustee of the University of North Carolina, a graduate of Wake Forest College and a trustee of the Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem and New Bern.