

Guilford's Undefeated Tennis Team Leads Spring Sports Scene

Baker and Stutts Are Named Baseball Co-Captains for '60

Guilford's baseball team, currently tied with Catawba for second place in the North State Conference title race, last week elected Brodie Baker and Jim Stutts as co-captains for 1960.

Baker, a junior from Wendell, is the team's number one pitcher and has a batting average of .375. The right-hander has won two games and lost one since the baseball season got underway in March. Baker is a letterman from last year's squad and is a member of the football team. When he is not pitching he plays second base.

Stutts is a junior from High Point playing at the catcher position. Coach Stuart Maynard has called him one of the best catchers in the North State Conference. Stutts is a letterman from last year's squad and has a batting average for this season of .315. During the fall Stutts plays first string end on the Quaker football squad. He is president of the Men's Athletic Assn.

The Guilford baseball team is playing today at Lenoir Rhyne. To date they have won six and lost two games matching Catawba's record. East Carolina is on top of the conference with four wins and one loss.

Racquet Squad Tackles Apps Here Thursday

The Guilford College tennis team, undefeated in conference play to date, will be matched against undefeated Appalachian Thursday on the Quaker's home court.

The Quaker racquet squad will be looking for their sixth victory Thursday and the outcome will give a good idea on how they will fare in the North State Conference Tennis Tournament.

The Quaker tennis team has wins over Pfeiffer, Elon, High Point, and Atlantic Christian. If they can beat Appalachian, they could be well on their way to a conference title if they could also beat East Carolina, pre-season favorite to win the conference title, in tournament play.

All of the members of the tennis team are sophomores except one, and he is a junior. Leading this sophomore-studded tennis ladder is Brooks Haworth of Winston-Salem, number one man and perhaps number one in the North State Conference.

The remaining members of the ladder are Edward Giles of Darien, Conn., Dave Edgerton of Goldsboro, Long Vu of Viet Nam, the only junior on the team, Dan Hammond of Greensboro and Ray Sharpe of Newton.

Haworth, Giles, Edgerton have not been defeated in singles play this spring. In doubles play, Haworth and Giles, Long Vu and Edgerton still remain undefeated.

James and Bailey Are Elected To Lead 1960 Thin-clad Squad

Harold James and Frank Bailey have been elected co-captains of the 1960 edition of the Quaker track squad, according to Coach Herb Appenzeller.

James, a junior from Virginia Beach, Va., is leading the squad in the number of total points scored in the Quaker's first five meets. Known to many on campus as "Spot," James has scored 69 points in the javelin, high jump, broad jump, pole vault, and the low and high hurdles. Against Pfeiffer he scored 21 points.

A football player as well as a thin-clad, James was leading scorer for the track team in 1958 with a total of 110 points, which established a school record. He was also elected the squad's most valuable member for that year.

Bailey is a sophomore from Washington, D. C., and has scored 37 points in the javelin, broad jump, the dashes, and mile relay. He also hurdles and has high jumped and pole vaulted. Bailey was elected the squad's most valuable member last year.

Another top scorer for the squad is Howard Braxton, a freshman from Scotland Neck, who has a total of 43 points for five meets. Braxton runs the 440, 880, and mile relay. Coach Appenzeller thinks this freshman could develop into one of the greatest runners in Guilford's history.

Wayne Wagoner, a sophomore from Yadkinville, has scored 36 points by running the mile and two miles races.

Bill Brown of Philadelphia, Pa., a freshman, has a total of 19 points. He runs the low and high hurdles and is a member of the relay team.

Phil Fulton, a sophomore from High Point, is the team's leading scorer in the pole vault by scoring 17 points in the first five meets. Fulton was injured last week in a meet with Atlantic Christian, but WAA cabinet members in each dorm will have a key to them; Miss McFarland, Hobbs; Sue Drake, Shore; and Lynn Hundley, Founders.

Regulations for bicycle use are as follows:
Rent - ten cents per hour; five cents for every extra half hour.

Girls will be expected to sign out with the person from whom they receive the key to the bikes. They will also sign out on a sheet to be found on the bulletin board in the gym giving the tentative time of their return.

Walter Lamb, Dick Archer, Ken Layton, John Sherrill, and Ken Miller.

The first tournament will take place May 4 in the College Union against Belmont Abbey. The team will be matched against Catawba on May 5 at Salisbury. Other tournaments are scheduled for May 9 and 11.

Bikes Bought for WAA for Co-Eds

Two new bicycles have been bought by the WAA for the use of Guilford's women students, according to Betty Lou McFarland, WAA president.

"We would like to expand this program each year and build up a supply of bicycles," said Miss McFarland. "The WAA would like to see bicycling become a favorite pastime for girls, and it should build up physical fitness and be good recreation at the same time."

The bicycles will be locked in the WAA room at the gym and one

Spring Sprouts Scholar Sport

Spring seems to be the season for sports here at Guilford, and student interest has now brought forth an intellectual game.

This year a five-man chess team brings new competitive attraction to the campus. The team members will be selected according to skill from 11 men, primarily day students.

The 11 competing for a place on the team are Charles Pratt, Ruffin Tucker, John Salter, Jerry Jenings, Charles G. King, William Cloud,

GOLFERS

An all-campus golf tournament will be sponsored by The Guilfordian during the first week in May. Application blanks and information sheets concerning the tournament may be picked up in the College Union Thursday and Friday of this week.
