

'The Scarecrow' Begins Run Here At 8 p. m. Tomorrow

Curtains rise at 8 p.m. tomorrow on the Reveler's Club's first production of "The Scarecrow," a four-act melodrama. Admission is free to all Guilford students. For adults it is $1.00 and for outside students, it is $.50.

Period costumes of the 18th century will be one of the highlights of the play. Unusual staging and lighting will heighten the suspense as scarecrows come to life at the commands of the witch.

The second and last production will be Saturday night at the same time.

Action will begin in the witch's den where the witch and her confere, the devil incarnate, are making a scarecrow. When the witch seeks revenge the scarecrow comes to life and the play moves into high gear.

Evelyn Westphal, Stuart Lennox, Jamie Mathews, John Huffman and Michael Keyes will be playing the lead roles.

Group Will Submit Interfaith Council Proposal to SAB

After a long series of planning meetings the combined forces of the Student Christian Association, Hillel Society and Newman Club have laid plans for an Interfaith Council. This proposal will be presented to the Student Affairs Board for approval tonight.

According to Jimmy Childress, the Council will be made up of representatives from the SCA, the five protestant groups on campus, the Hillel Society and the Newman Club. These representatives will probably be the presidents of the respective clubs.

Until other arrangements are made, funds for the Council will be fed to it by the SCA.

The duties of the Council will be to serve as a co-ordinating committee for the religious organizations on campus and to sponsor activities which all groups will be interested in, especially Religious Emphasis Week.

After Spring Elections the Council will meet to select a chairman and secretary.

Continuation of these plans is subject to the approval of the SAB tonight and then of the administration.

FTA Plans Meeting

The FTA will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the College Union. Dr. House, Director of Instruction of the Greensboro City Schools, will be the guest speaker. His topic will concern what the city of Greensboro looks for in a new teacher.

After his talk he will conduct mock interviews with two students, Betty Lou McFarland and Bruce Stewart, to illustrate how prospective teachers are interviewed for positions.

Dance, Elections Planned Week Before Vacation

By GARY BLANCHARD

Oratory, elections, hair-setting and Mambo music—in that order—highlight the campus docket as Guilford swings into its final week of classes before spring vacation begins at noon, March 18.

Spring Frolic

The Social Committee has pegged March 17 as the date for the semi-formal Spring Frolic dance to be held in the campus gym from 8 to 11 p.m.

Special permission from the administration has been given for the event since it is being held on a regular school night (Friday) with classes being held until noon the following day.

Chapel announcements will be made when arrangements are completed and the date concretely set.

In the planning stage are several entertainment prospects for the evening including a dancing exhibition by professional dancers and a dancing contest with prizes to be awarded the winners.

Costs of the dance, estimated at $500, will be paid out of the Student Activity Fee. Admission will be free to all students and their dates.

The Spring Frolic semi-formal will fill the gap left in Guilford's social calendar by the postponement several weeks ago of the Valentine's dance due to scheduling difficulties.

In charge of decorations is Fraser Smith. Co-chairmen of the Social Committee are Jim Boles and Lynn Hundley.

Anne Taylor and Betty Lou McFarland are in charge of refreshments. Other committee members giving shape to the Frolic are Tommy Bowers, Tommy Kemp, Dwight Thomas, Charlie Little, Frank Bailey, Judy Wells, Patty Burgess and Jane Coletrane.

Faculty advisors to the Social Committee are Miss Gwen Reddick and Miss Kitty Upchurch.

Campus Elections

Campus politics moved into their final week today, with candidates for four offices scheduled to speak in chapel Tuesday and Wednesday, and ballot-casting to be done Thursday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Biology Lab of King Hall.

Students contending for the four offices of Men's Student Government president, Women's Student Government president, Guilfordian editor, and Quaker editor will be allowed 2-3 minutes apiece to state their qualifications in chapel.

Candidates for all other offices of organizations financed by Student Activity Fee funds under the supervision of the Student Affairs Board will make only unofficial speeches to their classmates.

Successful candidates will take office March 28 after Spring Vacation.

Special absentee ballots will be issued to students upon the approval of the Dean of Men or Women. These ballots must be turned in at the polls by 4 p.m.

Voting will be conducted under the supervision of the SAB elections committee which includes Dr. E. G. Purdom, Judy Allen, Alan Atwell and Jim Boles, chairman.

All members of the SAB will participate in the counting of ballots immediately after the polls close. Election results will be posted on bulletin boards in the College Union, Founders Hall, and Memorial Hall as soon as they are available.

Eligible Students Should Apply Now to Take SSCQT

Applications for the April 27, 1961 administration of the College Qualification Test are now available at Selective Service System local boards throughout the country.

Eligible students who intend to take this test should apply at once to the nearest Selective Service local board for an application and a bulletin of information.

Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application and mail it immediately in the envelope provided to Selective Service Examining Section, Educational Testing Service, P. O. Box 586, Princeton, New Jersey. Applications for the April 27 test must be postmarked no later than midnight, April 6, 1961.

According to Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the College Qualification Test for the Selective Service System, it will be greatly to the student's advantage to file his application at once. Test results will be reported to the student's Selective Service local board of jurisdiction for use in considering his deferment as a student.

With this issue of the GUILFORDIAN an old regime ends and a new one begins. The next paper will be published by a different staff. May we take this space to say that the present staff has enjoyed its work and wishes the new editors a successful year.—M. H.

Shotgun Raiders, Riverboat Pilots

Thousands of college students are wanted this summer—at $75.00 to $100.00 per week—to fill glamorous and interesting jobs.

This break for students who need vacation employment comes from an unexpected source. Big family-style amusement parks, the nation's newest extravaganzas, are paying college students bonus wages.

Freedomland in the East and Disneyland in the West head a growing list of parks which employ thousands of students each summer.

The employment peak begins in June and continues until Labor Day. And the jobs are located in prime vacation spots: New York, southern California, Texas, Massachusetts, Ohio. Others are opening soon in Washington and Florida.

Students are free to work during America's main vacation months, exactly the season when the parks need large staffs.

Including both the unusual and the ordinary kinds, there is a fabulous variety of job openings.

There are jobs for hosts and hostesses to greet guests at the main gates, answer questions and help park visitors enjoy the various rides and amusements. There are jobs in guest relations and child relations for persons able to set others at ease. There are jobs for security officers, groundkeepers and costumers.

Special talents sought, but not required, include: "Speilers" and lecturers. Stagecoach drivers and shotgun riders. Tugboat operators, riverboat pilots, submarine operators. "Indian" canoers. Harness makers and horse shoers.

Many other kinds of jobs are also available. Office workers are in demand. Receiving and shipping clerks and warehousemen are needed. Cash control people must be found. Parking lot guides and controllers are wanted.

But time is short! These jobs are rapidly being filled for the coming summer. Interested students must act immediately.

Exclusive, inside information about these jobs has been put into a brochure that is packed with the facts needed: A list of available jobs and their pay ranges; a list of parks and employment managers; application deadlines and dates of hiring peaks; and answers to the questions most frequently asked by applicants. Plus—detailed instructions about how to apply, when to apply, where to apply, what to stress, what not to say.

FTA To Send 3 Delegates To Annual NCEA Meet

Three FTA members of Guilford College will be official delegates to the annual NCEA convention to be held in Asheville March 24 and 25. Lillian O'Briant and Charles Wayne Stout, Guilford's "Mr. and Miss FTA" of 1961 will represent Guilford along with Margaret Haworth, the third delegate. Harold M. Bailey, the chapter's advisor, will accompany the group.

The Guilford delegation will attend meetings and conferences with other FTA members from all North Carolina colleges and universities. Separate sessions will be held for secondary school teachers.

The two groups will have a joint meeting, however, on Friday night, March 24, when the students selected as "Mr. and Miss FTA" from all the represented colleges will be presented to the entire group.

Lillian O'Briant, president of the Guilford College chapter of the FTA, expressed the feeling of the delegation when she said, "We believe that we will gain a great deal from this conference in that we will have a chance to meet some of North Carolina's leading educators with whom we will have dealings when we enter the actual teaching field."

Delegates to the NCEA Convention to be held in Asheville March 24-25 will be Lillian O'Briant, Charles Wayne Stout and Margaret Haworth.
