Who Declared War? by Frederick Parkhurst (page two)

VOLUME L

The Guilfordian

Published by the Students of the South's Only Quaker College

GREENSBORO, N. C., JANUARY 15, 1966

Examination Schedule (page three)

NUMBER 5

Proposed MSC Construction to Go Up For Ratification Vote

The Men's Student Council of Guilford College may soon have a new constitution. On January 5th the M.S.C. unanimously approved the new proposed constitution af-ter several weeks of discussion. It will now be brought before the Stu-dent Legislature on January 31st. If the Student Legislature finds no faults with the constitution, it will faults with the constitution, it will permit the M.S.C. to bring it before the men students for their ratifica-tion. If three-fourths of the men

Exam Time – An Honor Board Reminder

Keminder by Alvis Campbell As examination time draws near the Honor Board would like to re-mind each student of his responsi-bility under the Honor System, both to himself and to his fellow student. Article 21-3 of the Honor Board Constitution is of special signifi-cance during semester examina-tions:

tions: "Students shall be reminded that they may use rest rooms, porch-es and halls of the building in which the examination room is lo-cated, and the student union build-ing for brief periods during a quiz ing for brief periods during a quiz or examination. Leaving an exami-nation room to sit in cars or vacant rooms or to return to dormitories shall be considered an infraction of the honor system." Each year students are turned over to the Board because of suspicious actions of which they are usu-ally unaware. For your own protection, be alert as to your own plotted duct while taking examinations. And finally, as the Board always urges, take a few minutes to com-pletely familiarize yourself with the Honor Board Constitution as found in the Pathfinder in abbrevi-

1966 Yearbook Something Unique by Susan Belk The 1966 yearbook staff is at-

The 1966 yearbook star is at-tempting to present an interpreta-tion of campus life at Guilford and to place the various facets in a per-spective which will be meaningful to you as a student. It is very easy for a yearbook to be a mere record-ing of facts and data pertaining to a specific college during a specific vear However to have any relea specific conlege during a specific year. However, to have any rele-vance or meaning to each student, the annual should recognize the undesirable as well as the laudable undesirable as well as the laudable aspects of Guilford and should in-corporate throughout, those goals and hopes toward which we are striving. We want you to approve; we want you to disapprove, and most important, we want you to in-terpret and evaluate our evaluation for only then can the yearbook mean authing to anyone mean anything to anyone.

There are two important changes in the M.S.C. constitution. The first tors of M.S.C. rules. Under this a system the M.S.C. president will, each year, appoint with the advice and consent of the M.S.C., the members of the Judiciary Board. Several steps have been taken to guarantee the defendant a fair trial. In addition the defendant fair trial. In addition the defendant of the Judiciary Board whom he would consider to be prejudiced against him. These members would not be permitted to sit on the Board for that particular trial. The Judicial Board is expected to greatly aid in accomplishing the M.S.C.'s judicial function. The second important change is the second important chang is the inclusion of a Judiciary Board is the inclusion of a Judiciary Board which will serve to prosecute viola-tors of M.S.C. rules. Under this system the M.S.C. president will, each year, appoint with the advice and consent of the M.S.C., the members of the Judiciary Board. Several steps have been taken to guarantee the defendant a fair trial. In addition the defendant will be function. The second important change in the new constitution permits Day Hops to be eligible for election as M.S.C. officers. They have not been allowed to run for M.S.C. offices in

In addition to these two major In addition to these two major changes, the new constitution has removed numerous ambiguities and fills in the "gaps" of the old consti-

President David Mockford feels rostitution will play a major role in making the M.S.C. a more effective and capable organization.

Chapel Speaker Sam Levering:

Student Body, Faculty Polled on Viet Nam; Faculty and Students Disagree on Many Issues

How Much Influence Did

Duaker Atmosphere Provide? On Friday, January 7th, the Guil-fordian and the Student Legislature conducted a Viet Nam opinion poll among the students and faculty of Guilford College. Playboy Maga-zine had run a similar poll which covered 200 colleges across the na-tion. The Guilfordian and the Stu-dent L arising desided that it

Yes
77% 82% 44% 72%

No
18% 15% 56% 25%

No
Opinion
5% 3% 3%

2. If we are unable to effect a negotiated settlement before the end
5% 15% 15% of February, 1966, should we:

Pull out of Viet Nam
completely?	8%	6%	32%	8%
Continue to send aid in
dollars only?	7%	3%	8%	5%
Confine our
military action	n
to South Viet
Nam only?	31%	35%	40%	59%
Push the war
into North
Viet Nam ²	54%	56%	20%	28%

3a. The administration's current policy is correct in dealing with the Viet Nam situation. Strongly agree 12% 18% 8% 18%

Agree 53% Disagree 26% Strongly disagree 9%

Very Active in Waging Peace

by Porter Dawson Guilfordian Staff Writer

On Monday, December 13, our chapel speaker was Samuel R. Lev-ering, a well-known orchardist and leader in the Religious Society of Friends. Educated at Cornell Uni-versity, he received his B.S. in 1930 and grant the part four years in Years Meeting of Friends, Mr. Lev, Years Meeting of Friends, Mr. Lev-er-ing represented the nation's Quakers as delegate to the World Council of Churches meeting in New Delhi, India, in 1961. He was a founder of both the American Freedom Association and the Na-tional Executive Council of the United World Federalists, and has served as president of the former. A frequent lecturer and writer versity, he received his B.S. in 1930 and spent the next four years in graduate work for a Ph.D. After spending the next five years with the Farm Credit Administration, he returned to Ararat, Va., and be-gan what is now an orchard that produces 40,000 bushels of apples a year. Well known in the field of horticulture, he has served among his other capacities as Director of the Virginia State Horticultural So-ciety, and has spoken all over the nation on the subject of horticul-tural developments.

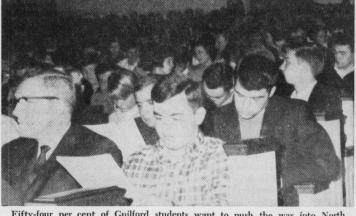

A frequent lecturer and writer, his papers on a wide range of topics appear frequently in periodicals and scholarly journals.

His topic at Guilford was the re-quirements of peace. He broke the general term peace down into three nation on the subject of horticul-tural developments. In 1943 he was one of the found-ers of the Friends Committee on National Legislation, and he has served on its executive body since that time. He is now Chairman of the Executive Council. Chairman of the Board of Chris-tian Society Concerns of the Five categories: spiritual, social, and po-litical, and explained that each cat litical, and explained that each cat-egory has requirements of a differ-ent nature. He pointed out the dan-gers and defects in many currently-held beliefs concerning peace and the need for correcting these. One of these, he said, the notion that Communism must be elimi-nated before peace can be estab-lished, is one of the most dangerous and thus one that demands imme-diate rectification.

Legislative Notes

A reminder to presidents of clubs and organizations on the Guilford College campus: the first semester is rapidly drawing to a close, and with it the deadline for filing con-stitutions with the Student Legis-lature. If no attempt has been made automobiles Talent Show provided our students with an idea of just what talents, musically, we have on out campus. All who were present saw quite a successful evening of entertainto comply with the request mailed to all club presidents concerning constitutions, funds will be refused and no requisition orders will be signed. ment. iors

Fifty-four per cent of Guilford students want to push the war into North Viet Nam if negotions fail. (Photo by Bowles)

179

3b. Use of non-toxic tear gas is justifiable as a means of disabling the Viet Cong without endangering the lives of the civilians. Strongly agree 37% 48% 23% 43% Agree 48% 40% 35% 40% Disagree 10% 9% 27% 9% Strongly disagree 5% 3% 15% 8% 3c. We should avoid bombing military installations and supply lines in populous areas in North lines in populous areas in North Viet Nam, such as Hanoi Viet Nam, such as Hanoi. Strongly agree 8% 15% Agree 22% 18% Disagree 38% 40% Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree 38% 15% 28% 29%

27% 32% 12% 4. Do you feel Americans have an obligation to accept military service even if they disagree with government policies? 80% 20% 90% 10% 58% 42%

82% No 20% 10% 42% 18%5. In your opinion, the recent public demonstrations against our policy in Viet Nam reflect the atti-tudes of approximately what per-centage of the students on your campus? 5% 5% 10% 5% campus? 5% 5% 10% 5% In addition, Guilford students were asked if they could condone draft card burning. Roughly four of every five students (82%) out of every five students (82%) could not pardon those who burned their draft cards, while 12% said that they could forgive these people

A final question was asked of the A final question was asked of the men students: Are you a conscien-tious objector? Twenty-eight an-swered "yes," 366 answered "no" and 21 men offered no comment. This means that 7% of the men stu-dents who answered this question are conscientious objectors; 88% are not and 5% did not wish to com-ment.

It is apparent that Guilford College student and faculty opinion have been influenced by the "Quak-er atmosphere" which exists on our lege

Dick Arculin pauses for consideratio

bers to the left of their national counterparts. On most every ques-tion, however, the two groups of students did not differ as much as did the two groups of faculty mem-bers. Of the four groups that were polled, Guilford faculty members were clearly unique. They were the only group in which a majority felt that we did not have an obligation to provide active military assistance to Viet Nam. An unusually high amount, 32%, wanted to pull out of Viet Nam completely if we were unable to effect a negotiated settle-ment in the near future. On this question a majority of the students wanted to push the war into North Viet Nam. The question (3a): The adminisbers to the left of their national

The question (3a): The administ The question (3a): The adminis-tration's current policy is correct in dealing with the Viet Nam situa-tion, brought interesting results. Not only was the Guilford faculty the only group in which the ma-jority did not agree, but more mem-bers of the faculty strongly dis-agreed than merely disagreed.

A final point of interest is ques-tion 4: Do you feel Americans have campus. The campus opinion might also be influenced by the large amount of northerners within the student body and faculty. Question number one, for example, places Guilford students and faculty mem-influenced by the large is an obligation to accept military service even if they disagree with government policies? A larger per-centage of Guilford students (20%) said no to this than did national faculty members (18%).

Junior Class Driving For Funds The junior class is just making out with what support can be mus-tered in these trying times. It start-ed its year of fund-raising for the "Junior-Senior" by having two car washes early in the fall. Those who showed up received a bath as well as a full afternoon of washing dirty automobiles

by Dave Stanfield Guilfordian Staff Write

though the usual lack of enthusiasm has hampered sales, and all areas of the campus have not yet been reached, the campaign is fairly well Now the juniors are looking for

Now the juniors are looking for help and with eagerness for the drive to the Junior-Senior, which they hope will be a nice send-off for the class of 1966. Junior officers Brenda Marion, Treasurer; Bede Walker, Secretary; Martha Chilton, Vice-President; and Dave Stanfield, President, are hoping to get the ball rolling once more for a successful year.

Dean Kent Announces Freshman Scholarships Totaling $15,000

Dr. E. Daryl Kent, Academic Dean of Guilford College, has an nounced institution of twenty-five Annual Freshman Scholarships val-ued at $600.00 each. The first of the grants will be awarded for the 1966 67 academic year. "With our Dana Scholarship pro-gram, instituted several years ago we can now offer an outstanding scholarship program for the out standing student during each of his four years of study." Dana Scholarships provide up to full tu-ition grants for outstanding, stu-dents during sophomore, junior,