

1969 Grid Schedule

Newcomers Davidson and Gardner-Webb highlight the 1969 Guilford football schedule released this week by Athletic Director Herb Appenzeller.

The Quakers of coach Bob Lord open their season with Southern Conference foe Davidson September 20 under the lights at Greensboro Stadium.

Gardner-Webb, becoming a four-year institution next season, will come to Armfield Athletic Center on October 4. Other non-conference rivals are Emory and Henry on November 8 and Appalachian, November 22.

Within the Carolinas Conference, the Quakers will play Elon, Lenoir-Rhyne, Presbyterian, Newberry, and Catawba.

WRA Play-Day Last Thursday Night

The Women's Recreational Association sponsored a volleyball play-day last Thursday night, April 24. Teams representing Bennett College and Greensboro College, as well as a team from Guilford, competed in a round-robin tournament.

At the end of play the team from Guilford was declared champion. That team consisted of Teela Clifford, Val France, Betty Green, Susan Krstich, Lexa McClean, Jean Marshall, Trudy Matthews, and Diane Smith. The WRA hopes to continue this play-day as an annual affair.

At bat, Guilford's Jeff Clark, the Carolinas Conference top hitter at .400

Quakers Win Track Meet

Coach Jack Jensen's Guilford track squad, led by double winners Bob Milan, Joel Deaton, and Mike Swain, routed UNC-Charlotte 105-39 Tuesday afternoon for their initial victory of the season. The Quakers travel to ACC today for an attempt at two straight triumphs.

Milan remained undefeated in six meets by winning the mile and three-mile. Freshman surprise Ken Bailey once again followed Milan in both races, losing by only a tenth of a second in the mile.

Deaton scored wins in the 220 (24.0) and the 440 (53.5).

Other Quaker triumphs were: Tom Ennis (discus), Denny Robey (Javelin), Jim Becker (shot put), Ray Mitchell (100), John Dent (high jump), and the Guilford 440 and mile relay teams.

Distances aces Bob Milan and Ken Bailey are seen in familiar front-running positions during meet with Elon.

Grayson Gets Grand Slam

Tommy Grayson who gained All-Conference, All-District and All-American honors in baseball during his Guilford career and signed a professional contract with the Detroit Tigers, made a sparkling reappearance in the area last weekend as he and his class A Carolina League Rocky Mount Leafs played at Winston-Salem and High Point-Thomasville.

Against Winston-Salem, Grayson slugged a grand slam home run, before hitting a game-winning three-run blast against the Hi-Toms the following evening. Playing second or third base, Grayson is expected to be moved up to AA ball when his Rocky Mount teaching assignment is finished this month.

Grayson's next area appearance will be May 6 and 7 as the Leafs play at Burlington.

Aside from his baseball honors Grayson was a stand-out football halfback for the Quakers and also played one season of basketball for coach Jerry Steele.

Freshman Joel Deaton is about to Pass Elon runner during his 120 yard high hurdles victory on Monday. Deaton was a double winner on Tuesday during the 105-39 rout of UNC-Charlotte.
