

Quaker Of The Week

M. L. Carr

How do these two-game totals sound - 51 points, 35 rebounds, nine assists? Two games against top conference contenders, two victories, and for Guilford's M.L. Carr, THE GUILFORDIAN's Quaker of the week.

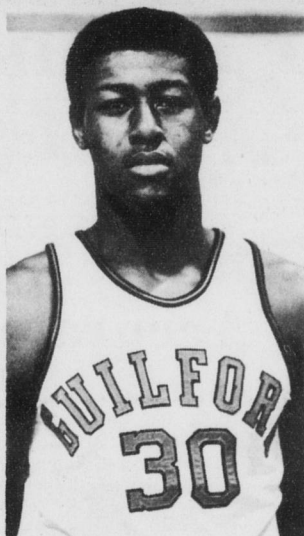

Carr, the super rookie from Wallace, N.C., performed like a veteran rather than the first year performer that he is during the Quaker's crucial wins over Lenoir Rhyne 98-79 and Elon 62-59.

Against the Bears, Carr connected on 16 of 21 shots from the field, grabbed 17 rebounds, handled seven assists, and personally wrecked LR's hopes of an upset.

Elon slowed the tempo of the game but failed to shut off Carr who tallied 16 points (game high) and grabbed 18 rebounds, several of which came in the late stages of the Carolinas Conference battle.

For the season, M. L.'s rapidly soaring point average is at 14.8 with his rebounding average at 8.4. His 65.6 per cent field goal accuracy is among the best in the nation.

FRESHMAN M.L. CARR'S 51 POINTS AND 35 REBOUNDS IN TWO CONFERENCE GAMES LAST WEEK ENABLED GUILFORD TO RETAIN UNDISPUTED POSSESSION OF FIRST PLACE.

Quakers Scalp Indians 85-78

Guilford cleared the first hurdle of a 3 game obstacle course last Saturday night, overcoming Newberry's homecourt advantage, unbeaten league record and a storm of fouls on Guilford players while wiping up the Indians 85-78.

The Quakers remained unbeaten in Carolinas Conference action, suppressing a late Indian rally which pulled Newberry to a 73-69 deficit after being down by 15.

David Smith and Tom Ennis applied a one-two punch to the Newberry attack, as 3 other Quaker starters were stranded on the bench for much of the game with foul trouble. Smith dumped 19 points and collected 12 rebounds, while Ennis came through with one of his best performances this season with 18 points and 10 rebounds.

Quaker stars M.L. Carr, Jerry Crocker, and Ted East were each saddled with 3 fouls before midway in the first half. Carr had 8 points in sparking a first half surge, but was quickly colared with a third foul.

John Dixon and Eddie Dyer provided bench power after the Quaker starters left the floor, each popping in 6 points as the cagers moved from a 2-2 tie to a 14 point lead.

A Newberry timeout resulted in some inspired Indian shooting, and the margin was cut to 45-39 at intermission.

Guilford roared to a 15 point advantage immediately after the second-half tap, then Newberry caught fire and fought back to a 4 point margin. Ahead only 73-69 with 4:04 to go, Guilford collected 2 quick layups by Dyer and Ennis, and the Quakers were back in control.

East dropped 4 free throws to carry the Quakers down the stretch, Dyer sank 2 more, Carr popped in a follow shot, and Newberry fell 85-78.

Carr and Dyer each had 14 points for the Quakers, adding to those of Smith and Ennis. 6-9 Buddy Moore had 22 for Newberry, as did forward Charlie Gilroy.

Guilford outrebounded Newberry 55-30 for the Quakers best board control game of the year.
