

photos by Wil

NOVA

by Susan Hardee

Crash, bang, hammer, thud--King Hall is being renovated. And although Mary Hobbs girls like neither the noises nor the workmen peering in in the mornings, Doctor Purdom and various very enthusiastic about the changes being made.

Rubin

The section of King Hall built in 1910 was town.

built in 1910 was torn down and a new section is being built to take its place. The section built in 1949-the series, as well as the dismal ticket sales.

The addition of Hatfield and the removal of Rubin was announced in the GREENSBORO DAILY NEWS remodeled. The new section three feet lower than the old so that the floors in the front and in the new section are even where they come together except in the nent.

Cancelled

Be Graphic Submit!!

The GUILFORDIAN soliciting contributions of an artistic nature from students wishing to have materials rinted.

Graphics, cartoons, poetry, artistic photographs and written pieces net exceeding 300 words will be considered. Photos should be glossy

Photos should be glossy black and white prints. Drawings should be done in black ink or other media on heavy white paper.

All work must be signed and original.

houses a large classroom with seats capable of seating 00 persons. This rising seats capable of seating 9.0-100 persons. This classroom can be used by any department in the building. At the back of it is a combination workroom-storage room where the various departments can set up experiments can set up experiments for lectures in the classrooms. Heating and air conditioning in the classroom can be separate from that of the rest of the building.

The physics labs are in the new basement section as are a new basement section as are a darkroom and a repair shop for all the departments in the building.

The geology department in the front part of the hasement. The rooms have and not be a second of the sec basement. The rooms have been rebuilt and new furniture added. In addition, there is a display case at the foot of the steps. The basement is entirely waterproof. have waterproof.

waterproof.

On the first floor there is new flooring in the front part and a display case. The biology department there will get some new furniture to replace part of the old.

In the new section there is a special room for the biology animal lab. The lab

GREENSBORO DAILY NEWS on Saturday and on local radio stations on Sunday and Monday. On Tuesday fifty ticket orders were received. During the two weeks following the public announcement the ticket sales picked up and over $3,000 worth of subscriptions were sold. Union Board Retreat

The Board of Directors of the Guilford College Union met at the Albert Pick Motel last Saturday to discuss the philosophy and functions of the 1970-71 Union.

the 1970-71 Union.

The Dance and Pop Arts Committee, of which David Sheppherd is the chairman, has scheduled Kenny Rogers and the First Edition for Homecoming Weekend. Ian and Sylvia will appear at Guilford later in the semester.

The Films Committee has scheduled several Hollywood

The Fi scheduled several Hollywood films, including Seven Days in May, The Sandpebbles, Cool Hand Luke, and Wait Until Dark. The Hollywood films will be shown on Friday will be shown on Fridav nights.

Joel Deaton is the chairman of the Recreation Committee. His committee is interested in trying to schedule events involving small groups of people who have special interests or hobbies.

The Student Involvement Committee, of which Tori Potts is the chairman is a new committee of the Union. It is not a committee with a new committee of the Union. It is not a committee with a permanent set of members. Its purpose is to act as a liason between interest groups on campus who are concerned with a particular problem on the campus, and the College Union Board. It will attempt to provide the necessary funds, supplies, and logistical support to carry out the proposals or solve the problems with which the groups are concerned.

The Advancement Committee, Tom Clayton chairman, tries to respond to specific needs of the campus in an effort to create a real sense of community between in an effort to create a real sense of community between faculty, staff, alumni and students. They will be sponsoring dinners with various groups during the year to try to create meaningful communication.

The member of the try communication.

The members of the Union Board met with interested Freshmen Tuesday night to explain the goals, projects and needs of the Union. Anyone who is interested in working with Union on any one of its numerous projects or committees should contact Steve Kraft or Cliff Lowery.

Paul Zopf Is Honored

Dr. Paul E. Zopf Jr., chairman of the Guilford College department of sociology, has been selected as one of the "outstanding educators of America."

President Hobbs was notified of the honor to Dr. Zopf by headquarters of the Outstanding Educators of America, located in Chicago.

A teacher at Guilford College since 1959 and now Dana Professor of Sociology, Dr. Zopf graduated from the University of Connecticut and earned his master's degree and doctorate from the University of Florida.

be hosed down.

The chemistry department which has been enlarg occupies the old psychologepartment in the frontion of the second flower flower than the chemistry labs will completely new furniture acquirement.

equipment.
In the labs using chemic there are exhaust pipes from the tables and sinks in which waste chemicals may poured. Pyrex pipes carry acids to a sewage useparate from that of the servery servery acids to a sewage useparate from that of the servery ser separate from that of the 1 of the campus.

The psychology departm is in the new part of second floor. Unlike the ot faculty offices on campus, six new offices for psychok professors are grouped arouthe secretary's office so t to get to any one professor office it is necessary to through the secretary's office through the secretary's office are new psychologically office partment has seve observation rooms as well department has seve observation rooms as well senior labs. There are a about a dozen compartme where individual work can done.

Parts of the front port are currently in use. The modeling should completed in about the state of the model of the model. completed in about the weeks. Use of the nesction in back will be second semester.

second semester.

The entire project will c $750,000.00. Hewi Construction Company Greensboro is doing the wowith Jack Wakefield being charge of building. T money is coming from a k range fund raising campa headed by Al Wheeler, call Challenge of the '70 Program.

Challenge of the Corporarm.

The entire building will air conditioned. Offices a classrooms are to be carpetted to the condition of the condit

Jerry Rubin, scheduled to speak at Guilford October 3 as part of the Art Series, has been replaced with Senator Mark Hatfield (D. Oregon).

Yippie Rubin has been replaced due to overwhelming public response, Cliff Lowery, Student Activities Director, a n n o u n c e d t o t h e GUILFORDIAN.

Ticket sales to the public, an nounced to the GUILFORDIAN.

Ticket sales to the public, necessary to balance the Series budget, were poor due to the inclusion of Jerry Rubin on the schedule, forcing the Executive Committee of the Student Union to cancel Rubin's contract and hire a more publicly acceptable speaker.

The Art Series budget consists of $18,000; $12,000 from the college and $6,000 from public ticket sales. Two weeks after the Series speakers were announced, less than $2,000 had been collected. In years past, the entire public subscription would have been complete in this time but letters and phone calls to faculty and administrators agreed with one pen man who said "I wouldn't buy a ticket to this Art Series in the world."

According to Lowery the Executive Committee decided to replace Rubin unanimously after deciding that Yippie Rubin was more of a hindrance than an asset to the public's view of the

Anyone who expects to student teach in the Spring 1971 and has NOT filled out 1971 and has NOT filled out an application for Student Teaching should do so IMMEDIATELY with the Department of Education, Center Section of Cox Hall, Room 322.