College Poetry Review: The National Poetry Press announces the closing date for the submission of manuscripts by college students is November 5.

Any student attending is eligible to submit his verse. There is no limitation as to form or theme. Shorter works are preferred because of space limitation.

Each poem must be typed or printed on a separate sheet, and must bear the name and home address of the student, and the college address as well.

Manuscripts should be sent to the Office of the Press: National Poetry Press, Box 218, Agoura, Ca. 91301.

Guilford Scholarship Society meeting, Wednesday, October 12, 5:15-6:15 p.m. in the east dining room. Sociologist Robert Bellah has been invited to eat with us and we hope that his schedule will allow him to do so. Please try to attend, if only for a short while.

Girls and guys - there will be a morning exercise class given on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 11:15 to 12:00 a.m. at the Guilford YMCA on Guilford College Road. Come for a complete and thorough workout for anyone interested in keeping their bodies slim, trim and fit or just in good, healthy condition. If your joints need oiling, here is an opportunity to get your blood flowing and your muscles growing. In addition, there will be a Modern Jazz dance class taught on Wednesdays and Fridays from 4:30-5:30 p.m. This more advanced class will enable students to expand and increase the knowledge of their own bodies. Individual as well as group participation situations will be geared to the student who has at least some sense of rhythm and balance. Don't be shy; give it a try. For registration information, call 855-6377. Class will begin on October 24, the week after fall break.

More Student/Faculty committee representatives elected: The Senate has elected Richard Phillips to serve on the Student Awards Committee and Bob Franklin to represent the students on the Student Aid Committee. Representatives to the Graduation and Library Committees are still needed.

What do you know about the West Indies? Probably not very much, unless you know either Garnet or Roberta Maharajh who happen to come from Trinidad. Now is your opportunity to "broaden your horizons" by coming to hear Garnet speak about his country at the next meeting of the International Relations Club. This will be the first in series of informal talks given by several of the club members on their respective countries, but American students - don't think this excludes you! All are invited to come - Wednesday, October 12, at 12:00 in the small dining room in the back of the cafeteria.

Broadway in Greensboro: A limited number of discount tickets are available to Guilford students to Sir Michael Redgrave's performance of Shakespeare's People, Wednesday, October 13, at 8:15 p.m. in the War Memorial Auditorium of the Greensboro Coliseum. These tickets are available at the incredibly low price of $2.50 each, due to a generous subsidy provided by the Community Senate, College Union, and the Arts Series. Don't miss this great night of theatre! Normal ticket price for this show is $6.00.

Road Races: On Saturday, October 15, the Greensboro Runners Club is sponsoring three road races in this area; a marathon (27 miles), a half-marathon (13 miles) and a 10,000 meter race (6.2 miles). Entry fee is $3.00 cheap if postmarked no later than October 8. For further information, drop a note in box 17226 and address it to David Harris.
