

Announcements

Is anyone out there? Anyone with culture, emotion, and a sense of appreciation? If you feel like you can contribute a spark of imagination towards making Guilford a more tolerable (not to mention more exciting) campus to live on, we want you now. A new committee is forming, called the Fine Arts Committee. For further information, call 292-2439 and ask for AF2. Look for signs about upcoming meetings. We'd like your interest and ideas.

Marion Starnes: Saturday, November 19, 8:00 p.m., Gallery, Founders Hall, Marion Starnes will speak on "A Metaphysical Approach to Higher Consciousness." Students who are interested in forming an organization for sponsoring speakers on meditation, dreams, and other New Age approaches will meet in the Gallery after the talk. If unable to attend but interested, contact Dr. Biedler, ext. 182, Dana.

Illegal use of college I.D.'s is a violation of the student honor code. Illegal usage includes using an I.D. issued to another student or an improper I.D., ie. out-dated or wrong classification. Violations will be brought before the campus Judicial Board.

Below is an updated recruiting schedule for the rest of November. If you would like to talk to any of these recruiters, please sign up for interviews in the Placement Office right away.

The Women's Coalition is starting a consciousness raising group, open to any woman who wishes to participate.

Wherever you stand with relation to the women's movement, we all have in common the fact of being women. In the CR group we will explore what it means to be female in this country at this time. We can talk about how each of us deals with personal conflicts rising out of that position. We will share ideas, experiences, and support.

The consciousness raising group will have a meeting Monday, Nov. 21, at 9:00 in the Women's Center office (upstairs Founders). Please come.

Free Tickets: On Tuesday, November 22, see the Oxford Cambridge Shakespeare Players in Aycock Auditorium at 8:15 p.m. A Shakespearean production and performances which feature the fine talents of this excellent touring repertory company. Guilford students, pick up your ticket now! (tickets regularly $5).

Faculty Colloquium: Wednesday, November 16, at 3:30 p.m., Gallery, 2nd floor Founders Hall. Ann Deagon and Carol Stoneburner will speak on "Autobiography and The Woman Hero." Everyone is invited to attend.

Revelers Production: The Revelers' Fall production Rhinoceros by Eugene Ionesco will open Thursday, November 17 and run through Sunday, November 20, at 8:15 p.m. in Sternberger Auditorium. Non-Guilford College student tickets are $1.00 and adult tickets are $1.50. Make your reservations today for Rhinoceros November 17-20 at 8:15 p.m., in Sternberger Auditorium.

The Physical Education department is glad to announce a new course for next semester that could be of great value to any student. The course is PE 360, Section 003, Team Sport Officiating. The class is one credit, Pass/Fail, and meets for two hours a week for those people interested in officiating basketball, soccer, volleyball, softball, and baseball.

This course will open a lot of opportunities for instant employment. Church leagues, YMCA's, YWCA's, recreation leagues, intramural programs, etc. are all in need of officials. These organizations also pay officials for their work.

Like we said, this course can be of "great value" to any student.

Women's Coffehouse: The Women's Center annual Women's Coffehouse will be this semester. Any women involved with the Guilford College community are invited to perform. If you are interested or know someone who might be interested please contact Kathy Neckerman, Hobbs #40, 855-9772.
