

Quakers Win Tourney

BY DAVID HOTCHKISS

The Guilford College Basketball team, 7-1, will travel to High Point Saturday night in hopes of upping their Carolina's Conference record to 2-0. The High Point Panthers are 1-1 in conference action and 5-2 overall.

Guilford is coming off its best performance of the season as they easily captured the Randolph-Macon Invitational Basketball Tournament championship over the weekend. The Quakers, paced by Tournament Most Valuable Player Gary Devlin, posted consecutive victories over Hampden Sydney, 99-67, and Randolph-Macon, 82-62, to capture their second Tournament this year.

In the Randolph-Macon contest, the Quakers converted a close game into a rout. With Randolph-Macon in the lead, 62-60, with 4:30 left in the game, Guilford took control. Led by play-maker Devlin, the Quakers scored 22 straight points.

Devlin pumped in 23 points, eight coming in the 22 point stretch. Forward Elton Gross also played a fine game, scoring 22 points. Gross, as well as Devlin, was named to the All-Tournament team.

In the win over Hampden-Sydney Friday night, Guilford toyed with the opposition before exploding with the 21 consecutive points like in the game. With 12 minutes remaining, the Quakers led by only eight points, 60-57. Center Bill Meyler then connected with a jumper which began a Guilford surge that ended with the Quakers leading 81-52.

Forward Mike Clerry dominated the boards grabbing 12 rebounds as well as scoring 14 points. Devlin, netted 20 points and Gross and Meyler had 16 points a piece.

The tournament victory gives Guilford a string of six wins. Since the Quakers only loss to Milligan, Guilford has victimized Liberty Baptist, Pfeifer, and Catawba.

The six consecutive wins have been a result of improved defense. This is shown by Guilford's tight defensive play in the Hampden Sydney contest as well as the Randolph-Macon.

Elton Gross on a breakaway dunk shot.

Syd Atkins puts another one in for 2 points.

Photo's by Walter Sonnenfeldt.

Co-Captains Selected

Ed Alonge, a sophomore from Lynbrook, N.Y., and Bob Lloyd, a sophomore from Trenton, N.J., have been elected soccer captains for the 1978 Guilford College soccer team.

Alonge, a two-year starter at midfield, anchored the Quaker defense this past season and served as co-captain along with senior Steve Hicks.

Lloyd, the leading scorer for the Quakers this year with 17 goals, is a graduate of Hamilton High School in Trenton, and has been a two-year starter for the Quakers at left wing. As a freshman Lloyd scored 16 goals to give him a two-year total of 33.

"We feel that both Ed and Bob will give us excellent leadership next year," commented Quaker coach Ray Alley. "Both will be juniors on a team that has a strong junior class. Ed showed good leadership this season, and Bob has certainly been a leader on the field."

Both Alonge and Lloyd captained their teams to outstanding seasons in their senior years of High School. Alonge was a standout at Lynbrook High School on Long Island.

Bob Lloyd and Ed Alonge, who led Guilford College to a fine 14-6-2 soccer season which included the NAIA District 26 championship, have been named to the Greensboro Daily News All-State Soccer team. Lloyd, a sophomore from Trenton, N.J., was the team's leading scorer with 17 goals and eight assists, while Alonge, a sophomore from Lynbrook, N.Y., anchored the Quaker defense at middle back.

Two other Quakers, junior winger Bob Propster of Chapel Hill, and sophomore goal keeper Bob Sanguinetti from Trenton, N.J., were named Honorable Mention All-State. Propster, playing his second season for the Quakers after transferring from the University of North Carolina, scored 16 goals to run his two-year total to 45, while Sanguinetti was credited with seven shutouts during the season.

Eleven different colleges and universities were represented in the all-state selections with Guilford being one of only three to have two players picked to the 14-man squad.

Lady Quakers Start Season with Victory

The Lady Quakers opened their '77-'78 season this past week with an 84-65 victory over the UNC-Chapel Hill Junior Varsity. Returning to lead the Quakers are senior captains Cyd Atkins and Donna Rogers, an All-District selection last year. Also returning are sophomores Kathy Brittle, point guard; Jeannie Meisky, wing; Nancy Smith, forward; Jennie Davis, center. Expected to add great strength are sophomore transfers Gail Culler, who started at the University of Colorado, and Julie Randle, a starter on NC State's JV squad. Four freshmen round out this year's team. They are Teresa Gambrell, Helen King, Mary Thompson, Sue Ireton, all of whom should see a lot of action during the season.

The Quakers led the entire game, at one time holding a 28-point lead over the Tarheels. Guilford shot an amazing 60% from the floor in the first half, finishing the game at 50%. Playing aggressively at both ends of the floor, center Donna

Rogers accumulated 17 points while hauling down 12 rebounds. Outstanding for the Quakers was Cyd Atkins, who hit on 11 of 12 free throws while shooting 81% from the floor for a game high 29 points and 6 rebounds, despite early foul trouble. Starting point guard Gail Culler sparked the offense with 5 assists and herself added 9 points. Kathy Brittle and Helen King came off the bench to add 7 and 6 points, respectively, all 6 of King's coming on break-away lay-ups.

Intramural Wrap-Up

Last Wednesday, in the rain and mud, the Intramural Soccer finalists were determined. In two exciting games, the players had a blast sloshing through the mud. The first game between Bryan and Milner 3rd ended in an 0-0 tie at the end of regulation time. In overtime Milner 3rd won as the ball "floated" past Bryan's goalie. The second game was between Milner 1st N and English/George White. This game also went into overtime. At the end of the overtime period, the score remained 1-1. In the penalty kicks, Todd Hershey scored for Milner 1st N a 2-1 victory. The goal was only one of many this season for Todd.

Intramural Soccer All-Stars

The All-Star Intramural Soccer Team for the 1977 season has been announced. The team members are selected by the team captains on the basis of outstanding offensive and defensive play. congratulations to the All-Star players. The team members are:

Name	Position	Team
Rick Kalodner	HB	English
Stan Ward	FW'	Day Hops
Joost DeWitt	FW	Milner 3rd
Danny Snipes	FW	Milner 1st
Otis Sanders	HB	Bryan B
Matt Alexander	FW	Bryan A & Frazier
Steve Wells	HB	English
Brett Harris	FW	Milner 2 & 3
Ricky Harper	FB	Milner 3rd
Rich Farr	FB	Milner 3rd
Tyler Soar	FB	Day Hops
John Tielguard	HB	Day Hops
Casey Alexander	HB	Bryan A & Frazier
Eric Johnson	HB	Bryan B

The goalies are David Spokely and Billy Stanton, with alternate Clem Bergen. The Co-captains are Rich Farr and Clem Bergen.