

Guilford Scores Four All Conference Honors

Gary Devlin and Elton Gross were named to the All-Conference team for their second year in a row. Gary also made the All-District 26 team; this was the first time Gary has been selected for this honor. Devlin led the Quakers in scoring this season with an average of 19.8 points per game and shot 57.0% from the floor. Gross led the Quakers in rebounding with 8.7 rebounds per game and was second in scoring with a 16.7 average.

Donna Rogers led the Lady Quakers in rebounding with a 9.1 average and was second in scoring with a 15.1 clip per game. Cyd Atkins was one of the top scorers in the conference hitting an average 17.7 points per game and averaging 8.9 rebounds per contest.

At the closing of the Guilford Men's and Women's basketball seasons for the year, 4 Quakers received All Carolinas Conference Honors. The four are: senior center/forward Elton Gross (All Carolinas Conference, Honorable Mention, NAIA District 26), junior guard Gary Devlin (All Carolinas Conference, All NAIA District 26), senior center Donna Rogers (All Carolinas Conference), and senior forward Cyd Atkins, All Carolinas Conference.

Free Throwing

The intramural free throw shooting competition will begin tomorrow, March 22. Each person will shoot 25 free throws tomorrow and another 25 free throws next Wednesday, March 29. The overall champions (men and women) will be determined by the combined scores of the two days. The following schedule is for both tomorrow and next Wednesday.

Quakers Come a Long Way: Finish Season 23-10

The Guilford College Quakers finished out the season two weeks ago with a 65-61 overtime loss to Winston-Salem State in the finals of the NAIA District 26 Tournament. It was a tough one to lose as it knocked the Quakers out of a trip to Kansas City and a shot at the NAIA National Championship.

Just getting to the district finals took a super effort by the Guilford squad. Two weeks ago the Quakers were involved in the Carolinas Conference Tourney and needed a good showing to qualify for District play. The Quakers made a good showing as they made it to the finals, beating Catawba 95-86 and Pfeiffer 82-69. However, they lost to High Point 82-80 in the finals. Elton Gross and Gary Devlin led the Quakers in the Conference tourney and both were selected to the All-Tournament Team.

In the first round of District 26 play, High Point and Guilford went at it again with the Quakers coming out on top 58-55. The next night the Quakers faced the Gardner-Webb Bulldogs who were tied for second in the NAIA rankings with Winston-Salem State. Guilford played a great game against an outstanding team and came up with a 62-59 win to put them in the finals.

Four Seniors played their last game for the men's team against WSSU. They were Elton Gross, Mike Cherry, Steve Rosenberry and Paul Dreschler.

Only two seniors will be graduating off the women's team but they are All-Conference selections Cyd Atkins and Donna Rogers.

Intramurals Tally Toward Tournament

By VAN MASSEY

As of Friday, March 17, there were three undefeated mens intramural basketball teams, one in each league. These teams are Milner 2S-A, the Crazy Cubans, and Bryan 1N. Behind them are Covington's Cowboys, Day Hops A, and Milner 1S-B, each with a 5-1 record. There could easily be some upsets among these top teams after Sunday nights games between Milner 2S-A and Milner 1S-B, and between Covington's Cowboys and the Urban Center team.

In Women's basketball, it appeared that the regular season would end in a three way tie for the first place between "The Brewery," and Shore and Faculty/Staff. However, such was not the case as Binford III was led by Patty Friel to a come-from-behind upset victory over Shore last Thursday.

The final standings in regular season women's play are:

| | |
|------------------|-----|
| 1. Faculty/Staff | 6-1 |
| The Brewery | 6-1 |
| 3. Shore | 5-2 |
| 4. Binford III | 4-3 |
| Dana/Day Hops | 4-3 |
| 6. Binford II | 2-5 |
| 7. Hobbs | 1-6 |
| 8. Binford I | 0-7 |

All teams, men and women, except for the teams that have forfeited out, should be sure to get copies of the schedule of the post-season tournament. Most team captains have several copies and Mrs. Clark, in the gym, has some also.
