Guilford's Lady Quakers drop fourth in row

By STEVE LINDSAY

The women's basketball team is off to a poor start with four consecutive losses.

At Pfeiffer, the team ran into foul trouble, forfeiting the game 99-82. 6'0" freshman Melanie Middleton led the way with 19 points in her first college game.

Coach Gayle Currie was "unhappy with the numerous turnovers," in the Duke-Guilford game Dec. 4th. The Blue Devils burned the Quaker team 82-48. This was "the team's worst performance thus far," Currie commented.

Searching for their first win, the Lady Quakers fell short in a 68-47 loss to Atlantic Christian. Julie Randall led the scoring, accumulating 14 points. Teammate Nancy Smith followed behind with a tally of 9.

Perhaps the team's best effort has been against last year National AIAW Small College Champion, High Point College.

At halftime, High Point led the contest by 8 points, the Quakers decreasing the margin to a mere 2 points with 8 minutes remaining.

Turnovers once again brought about the team's loss. In the final three minutes of play, the Panther's press pressured the Quakers into 10 turnovers, the final score being 71-54, a fourth loss for the team.

Ethel White, All-American and leading scorer for the Panthers, lead High Point's offensive attack, scoring a total of 24 points.

Julie Randall burned the nets for the Quakers amassing 26 points, shooting 10 for 16 on the floor and a solid 6 for 6 from the freethrow line.

Guilford will battle Catawba College on December 12th.

Volleyball intramurals end; Winners crowned champion

By VAN MASSEY

Last week two top intramural volleyball teams from an original twenty-nine were determined and crowned champions.

In the women's semifinal matches, both Shore teams had little trouble in overcoming the opposition. Shore A defeated Binford II, 15-9 and 15-7. Shore B won over Bryan 3rd and 2nd South, 15-9, 15-8.

In the championship match, Shore B, paced by Karen Tysinger and Annette Chilton, kept up with Shore A. The teams went into overtime, yet Shore A pulled out a 16-14 win. The momentum stayed with the latter, winning the second game and the championship, 15-9.

The men's semifinals began with the victory of Milner 2nd South A over the Day Hops. The day students were riddled with injuries — even the coach being on crutches. They could not keep pace, however, with the strong Milner team which won the match, 14-16, 15-3 and 16-14.

The men's final was a long and belaboring match. The Milner team swept the first game.

In the last two games, Bryan played very carefully and followed the strong play of Mac Cheek to win the championship.

Jorge Abogabir won the championship set of the BASIB backgammon tournament, beating Marci Brown two games straight. Jorge won both games by ten stones.

Because of the low turnout of players, the prize was $12.00, winner take all.

Jorge won the finals, losing only his first game. Marci's two losses to Jorge were her only losses of the tourney.

Quake roundballers roll to victory

By PETE FRAUNHOLTZ

Tonight, the Quaker men's basketball team hosts Barber-Scotia College. Game time is 8:00 in the Guilford Alumni Gymnasium.

Head Coach Jack Jensen says "the fast break will be used again as in the past." He also expects the team's offense to reach its last season's superlative achievements.

Senior Gary Devlin made the NAIA All American Team last season. A 5'11" guard, Devlin was leading scorer for the Quakers, averaging 19.8 points per game.

Quaker basketball fans tasted sweet victory twice this past week as the Quakers came away with one point wins over Wingate and High Point Colleges.

Tuesday night leading scorer Greg Hopson dropped 27 points through the hoop. Devlin hit a free throw with one second left as Guilford went on to improve their record to 3-4 with a 55-54 victory over Wingate.

Hopson, a 6'8" senior scored 17 of his 27 points in the first half. The Quakers, playing without Devlin, took a slight lead to the locker room at the end of the second quarter.

Wingate kept within 10 points for the majority of the second half and eventually tied the score. Devlin then iced the victory with his free throw.

Saturday night the Quakers came from a 12 point deficit to beat High Point in overtime 73-72.

Gary Devlin and Al King, who scored 23 and 20 points respectively, led the Quakers charge. Guilford battled back to tie the score twice with less than a minute left, the second time on Al King's baseline jumper with only two seconds remaining.

The Quakers on the strength of four free throws and a break away layup by Devlin, took a quick lead in overtime, managing to fight off a fierce High Point rival for their fourth victory of the year.
