

Homecoming: greasy kid's stuff

By Robin Smith and
Emmy Scott

There is going to be a new image for Homecoming this year with new events, plenty of fun activities, two athletic events, and a host of exciting festivities.

Homecoming will be the weekend of October 26, 27, and 28, a great time to see old friends and meet new ones. A fifties theme will flavor the entire weekend, so dress in the spirit.

This action-packed weekend will open up with a bonfire-pep rally on Friday night followed by "Who knows what?"

On Saturday morning the day begins at 8:00 a.m. with the Harvey Ljung Homecoming Classic Golf Tournament at the Bel-Aire Golf Course. All interested students, faculty, staff and alumni are urged to enter. There will be a $15.00 fee for greens, cart and trophies.

At 10:00 a.m. the Alumni Open Round Robin Doubles Tennis Tournament begins and is open to everybody. There will be no fee for this tournament.

The soccer team in Armfield Stadium at 2:00 p.m. takes on Greensboro College. This will prove to be an exciting game.

Then hold on to your britches and grab your hats because the Skyline Cloggers and an accompanying bluegrass band will enlighten your spirits and tickle your fancy in front of Dana Auditorium. There will be a "Pig-Pickin'" for those interested, the cost is $4.50 (payable in advance).

The Homecoming Parade before the game in Jamieson Stadium at 7:00 pm is being revived. All the "creative" people on campus are urged to decorate their cars and enter.

A panel of judges will determine the winning car on the basis of most imaginative elaboration of the theme.

Any number of people can work on a car, but a list must be handed in at the gate stating who the "creative members" are. Keep ideas in the spirit of things, remember this is in honor of the 50's.

At 7:30 pm Guilford takes on the Davidson Wildcats. The game will be under the lights of Jamieson Stadium, not far from Guilford.

This will be one of Guilford's most challenging games of the '79 season. Half time will be explosive with a performing band and fiery fabulous fireworks.

After the game, get ready to

Is this the new image for Homecoming this year?

dance to the sounds of the "Clovers". They will be playing a selection of contemporary music that the "Clovers" are known for. Come prepared to dance the night away.

No Homecoming would be complete without something special for a favorite sweetheart, roommate, or best friend. Students will have a chance to order a carnation that will be delivered to his/her doorstep. Don't miss the chance to show your feelings or to say hello from a secret admirer.

Worried about a ride to the game?? Worry no longer. . . the union will provide buses for transportation to the game in time for the parade. This ride will cost no more than a quarter.

Homecoming 78-79 is being sponsored by the College Union and the Alumni Association.

Drop in on next week's skydiving photo essay featuring pictures by Kore-Key Ink.

Goings on About Town

"Candide", a musical adaptation by Leonard Bernstein, will be playing at Aycock Auditorium, UNC-G at 8:15 pm September 27-29 and October 4-6. Call 379-5575 for details.

Festival Stage Company is presenting "Sherlock Holmes" at the High Point Theatre until September 29. Reservations can be made by calling 855-1544.

Weatherspoon Art Gallery: On exhibit are "Sculpture and Watercolors" by Adele Groulx and Virginia Budny, "Contemporary Still Life and Interior Paintings", and "Past, Present and Peculiar".

Faculty News

Chalk it up

"Quaker Graffiti," a memorial exhibit of the newspaper articles, posters, cartoons, and other memorabilia from Fred Parkhurst's office walls and door, may be seen in the Library, near the photocopy machine.

The Greensboro Agricultural Fair is going on at the Greensboro Coliseum through September. Contact the Coliseum for more information.

Huck's Deli will feature "Red Bird" September 28, "The B.R. Boys" September 29 and "The Jimmy Pearsons Quartet" September 30. Cover charges vary.

There will be a benefit basketball game for the Triad Sickle Cell Slickers at Smith High School Gymnasium September 26 at 7:30 pm. Adults - $2.00, children - $1.00. Half-time entertainment will be provided by the A&T State University Jazz Band.

Patricia D. Schwab served as the reading consultant this year for Life Science, a junior high school science textbook series published by Prentice-Hall. She has been notified that it is up for adoption in North Carolina.