The Seventh Annual Nikon Photography Contest is now accepting entries. Contact the Guilfordian at Box 17717 for free booklets and information.

NEW COURSE -- PE 100: FOLKDANCING-MacInnes. During this course we will learn a number of dances which emphasize man as a part of nature. Dances will be taken from many cultures and times, with about half the time spent on Morris and sword dances from 16th and 17th century England, France, and Spain. Folkdancing can be learned by people with more than one left foot and is fun. Come learn an activity which can be done by all ages, indoors and out, in all types of weather, and by all cultures.

A Ted Kennedy Rally will be held at New York Pizza (corner of Tate and Walker near UNC-G) Sunday, November 18, from 3-5 p.m. all supporters are welcome.

"Dietary Guidelines for the United States" will be the topic of a lecture presented by Dr. D. Mark Hegsted at the Elliot University Center at UNC-G Monday, Nov. 19, at 8:00 p.m. This is the third annual Ellen Swallow Richards lecture sponsored by the Institute of Nutrition of the University of North Carolina. Admission is free and the public is invited.

SUNDAY MUSICALE- This will be held at 6:30 p.m. Nov. 18 in Dana Lounge in Founders. Guilford is proud to present Dr. Chelsea Tipton, Dean of Bennett College, and Dr. Charlotte Alston, Chariwoman of the Bennett Department of Music, in a program of music for clarinet and piano. Their program will include works by Schumann, von Webern, Mendelssohn, and Robert Starer, and they will be assisted by Blonnie Tipton, trumpet, Chelsea Tipton II, clarinet, and Forrest Munden, trombone. An informal reception is planned afterward.

THE 400 BLOWS, a moving story of a young boy turned outcast, will be the Tuesday night movie at 8:15 p.m. in Dana Auditorium. This is the autobiography of Truffaut's childhood. Not loved at home or wanted at school, he sinks into a private and fugitive existence that leads to reform school.
