Choir director, Edward Love, will lead the Guilford College Choir in concert at 11:00 a.m. on Sunday, February 28 at New Garden Friends Meeting. The concert will preview music to be used on the choir's spring tour.

Choir concert coming up

A concert will be given by the Guilford College Choir at 11:00 a.m., Sunday, Feb. 28, at New Garden Friends Meeting to preview the choir's spring tour program for Virginia, the District of Columbia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and New York.

Director Edward Lowe and his 59-member chorus will open with "Sing Unto God" and "Hallelujah, Amen" from Handel's Judas Maccabaeus.

Franz Schubert's "Mass in G" will follow, featuring Soprano, Deborah Phillips; Tenor, Donald Franklin Howie, and Baritone, Tracey Scott Welborn.

The Choir Ensemble will perform two works of Hans Leo Hassler, "Dixit Maria" and "Cantate Domino Canticum."

The concert will also include

"Open Our Eyes" by Will C. MacFarlane, "The Souls of the Righteous" by Ralph Vaughan Williams and "Glorification" by F. Melius Christiansen.

Following a section of special performances by various members of the group, the choir will conclude with Harvey Enders' arrangement of Russian folk tunes entitled "Russian Picnic," "The Turtle Dove" arranged by Williams and a selection of spirituals.

The choir will begin its spring tour with a concert in Newport News, VA.

In the Washington area the choir will perform at 8 p.m., March 6 at the Longworth Building, at 4 p.m., March 7 at St. Colomba's Episcopal Church, and at 8 p.m. at the Hunting

Ridge Presbyterian Church in Baltimore. On March 8 the choir will sing at 11:30 a.m. in the Russell Senate Office Building Rotunda. At 7:30 p.m. that day the group will perform again at the Retirement Center at Newton, PA.

Following a performance at Westtown Friends School in Westtown, PA, at 2 p.m., March 9, the group will spend 2 days in New York City sightseeing and attending the theatre.

The tour concludes with a concert at 8 p.m., March 11 at Cambridge Friends Meeting in Cambridge, MA, and another at 8 p.m., March 12 at the First Presbyterian Church in Glen Cove, NY.

The group will return to Guilford College March 13.
