

Mon Tues Wed Thurs Fri Etc

14 15 16

Guilford College

LA CAGE AUX FOLLIES (Birds of a Feather). Color, 1979. French with English subtitles. The son of an aging homosexual nightclub owner is eager to marry, but his friend's father is the chief of the Department of Morals.

OPENING RECEPTION for "A Search for Line," an invitational exhibition of 10 artists whose works deal with linear expressions. Painting, drawing, sculpture, and crafts. The opening reception is 3 p.m.-5 p.m. The exhibit can be seen Tues.-Fri. 10 a.m.-5 p.m., weekends at the Green Hill Art Gallery, in the downtown Greensboro Art Center. Free.

17 18 19 20 21

NATIONAL DO-NOTHING DAY! This is the one day of the year where you have a legitimate excuse for doing absolutely zilch. Kick back and ENJOY!

HARDWARE WARS. Color, 1977. Lighthearted parody of Star Wars.
STAR TREK: TROUBLE WITH TRIBBLES. Color, 1967. Most famous and popular of the Star Trek series, Tribbles save the day against Klingon treachery. FREE.

"FIGURATIONS," an exhibition of works by young artists Jack Stratton, Charles Stigliano, and Sheila Batiste. Greensboro Arts Center, first floor gallery. Until January 30. Mon.-Fri. 9 a.m.-5 p.m., weekends 2 p.m.-5 p.m. Free.

AMADEUS - JAN. 20 and 21. The National Touring Company's production of Peter Shaffer's Broadway hit about Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, and his rivalry with Antonio Salieri. The Eastern Music Festival Auxiliary is sponsoring opening night ticket sales to benefit the Auxiliary and the EMF Scholarship Fund. At the War Memorial Auditorium. For more info, call 852-0024.

HUCKS - Greensboro Men's Club

22 23

HUCKS - The Link Brothers

HUCKS - 3:30-closing HAPPY HOUR!

HUCKS - The Bill Blue Band

HUCKS - Open Mike Night, HAPPY HOUR 3:30-until closing.

HUCKS - Warren, Bodle, and Allen

THE GRADUATE. Color. Dustin Hoffman as inexperienced college graduate who returns home to fall in love with the neighbors' daughter. Commentary on American values, the generation gap and youth in the 60's.

24 25 26 27 28

TUESDAYS through January. Life Drawing Sessions, sponsored by the Greensboro Artists' League. 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon at the Greensboro Arts Center, downtown at 200 N. Davie St. $5 fee. For more info, call 373-4514.

BARN DINNER THEATRE. Neil Simon and Marvin Hamlisch's hit, "They're Playing Our Song." Dinner at 6:30, Play at 8:30. 292-2111.

CLASSICAL CONCERT - Leon Bates returns to Guilford to perform piano compositions by Ravel, Schubert, and Rachmanioff. 8:15 PM in Sternberger Auditorium. FREE for students.

STEPHEN E. SMITH and ANN DEAGON will read poetry and fiction. 8 PM, The Poetry Center Southeast, 2nd floor Guilford College Library.

HUCKS - The Stretch Marks

29 30

HUCKS - Link Brothers

HUCKS - 3:30 to closing HAPPY HOUR!

HUCKS - Jumpin' Junction

HUCKS - Open Mike Night. HAPPY HOUR 3:30-until closing.

HUCKS - Red Herring

SCULPTURE by Saul Baizerman, a leading figurative sculptor of the 30's and 40's, taken from several collections. Drawings and works in plaster and hammered copper. At the Weatherspoon Downtown Gallery, Greensboro Arts Center, 200 N. Davie St. Tues.-Fri. 10 a.m.-5 p.m., weekends 2 p.m.-5 p.m. Free.

HUCKS - Lise Uyanik and the Mobile City Band

ODD BODKINS

By Dan O'Neill

