"Women Hold up Half The Sky"—Mao-Tse Tung

A Lecture and slide presentation by Dottie Borei on Women in China will be held Wednesday, December 7 at 7:30 pm. in the Gallery. All are invited to attend—refreshments will be served following the presentation. Sponsored by the Women's Studies House.

The One Acts will be presented by Guilford students Wednesday the 7th and Thursday the 8th at 7:30 in Sternberger basement. The plays being presented are "Sister Mary Ignatius," "Sexual Perversities in Chicago," "The Ugly Duckling," and "The Swan Song."

GUILFORD COLLEGE CHOIR CONCERT RECEPTION: On Sunday, December 11 at 8:30 p.m., all the best cooks will be giving us a taste of their Christmas cookies at the reception following the ANNUAL CHRISTMAS OFFERING. Cookie donations will be accepted at the Founders Hall Desk on the day of the concert, December 11. For more information contact Nancy Stevens at 852-8836.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS OFFERING: This annual presentation will be held on Sunday, December 11 at 7:00 p.m. in Dana Auditorium by the Guilford College Choir. The program will be varied with music by 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th century composers. Area singers and soloists will join the choir on several pieces. The faculty brass choir from UNC-G will accompany the choir and play Christmas carols on the steps of Dana after the concert. A reception in Founders Hall will conclude the evening. Everyone is invited and admission is free. For more information contact Carol Burnett at Ext. 247.

FILM: "OBEDIENCE": The film "Obedience" will be shown on Monday, December 12 at 9:30 p.m. in Sternberger. This film is a candid footage of the Stanley Milgram experiment on obedience to authority done at Yale University during the 1960s. Milgram was applauded by many for his ingenious, if unorthodox, research design and attacked by others for his unethical procedures. (About 40 minutes) For more information contact Dan Fredricks at 292-4315. Admission is free.

FILM: "THE GREAT SANTINI": On Monday, December 12 at 9:00 p.m. in Boren Lounge, the full-length film starring Robert Duvall and Blythe Danner will be shown. This is the story of a marine fighter pilot in 1962 left with no war to fight except with his family, his superiors and the peace of the community. For more information contact Dan Fredricks at 292-4315. Admission is free.
