

Community Notes

SWAT APPLICATIONS:

Remember when you first arrived at Guilford - the kind, helpful, informed upperclass students who were there to greet you and get you through orientation with a minimum of fuss? Now you, too, can be one of those students on the Student Welcoming Advisory Team. Applications are available in the Center for Personal Growth. Pick one up today! Deadline is February 17.

The Piper is currently accepting submissions for the Spring, 1984 Edition.

Poetry, fiction, critical essays, satire, photography, prints; all forms of creativity will be considered for publication.

Written material should be sent to P.O. Box 17306 or left in the envelope on the publications suite door. Art work may be left at the office or you may contact Janice Lynch and your work will be picked up.

If you are interested in working on the editorial or layout staffs please contact Janice Lynch as soon as possible.

Once again its Spring Semester and Creative writings and art works by women are being requested for Woman Sprouts. Please send any poems, short stories, etc. to P.O. Box 17195 or contact Ellen Gilmore for more information. Submissions are not just limited to students but faculty and administration are eagerly sought. Deadline is March 1.

SERENDIPITY T-SHIRT

DESIGN CONTEST: We need a T-shirt design for this year's Serendipity! Designs will be accepted until February 17. Turn them in to the Founders Hall Desk. The winner will receive two free T-shirts.

CRAFT CENTER COLLECTION:

Please help the craft center and clean your attic at the same time! We welcome a variety of items, so don't throw anything out. Call Larry or Carol Sexton at 292-4857 to find out what we can use.

Once again the Student Awards Committee must begin its evaluation of candidates for Dana Scholarships for the 1984-85 academic year. It is very important that you participate in the nomination of our Dana Scholars.

To be considered for a Dana Scholarship, a student must be nominated by a member of the faculty, administrative staff, or by a fellow student. In addition, all nominees must submit in writing a list of all the special activities and responsibilities they have undertaken during their tenure at Guilford College, as well as community activities they wish considered.

Nomination forms and a list (the correct, revised list is on yellow paper, and will be posted around campus) of student currently maintaining a cumulative average of 3.25 (or in the case of a freshman, 3.00) will be distributed through the main. Additional forms may be obtained from the Financial Aid Office in the Center for Continuing Education and the Information Desk in Founders Hall.

Please place your nominations in one of the nomination boxes in Founders Hall or the Center for Continuing Education no later than 5:00 p.m., Wednesday, February 29, 1984. No nominations will be accepted after that hour.

A social group for gay students, bisexuals, and their friends is now in progress. The group seeks to foster a positive gay identity, provide a context for socializing and inform students about the Greensboro gay community. The group meets off-campus and transportation is available. Privacy will be respected. Interested individuals should contact the Center for Personal Growth Ext. 184.

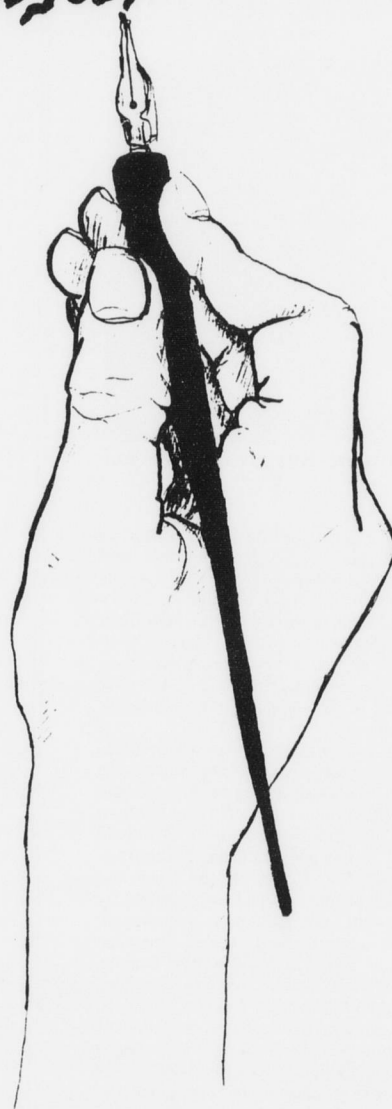

Applicants are currently being accepted for the 1984/85 Housing Staff. There are 15 positions available: 13 Resident Assistants and 2 Head Residents. Applications may be picked up in the Housing office on the second floor of Founders Hall. Deadline for these applications is February 29, 1984. Interviews for these positions will be conducted from Monday, March 12, 1984 to Wednesday, March 21, 1984.

Groups of students interested in living in an alternate house for 1984/85 should come by the Housing office to pick up the necessary paperwork. Students who are currently living in an alternate housing situation and want to continue must resubmit a proposal for next year.

Editors Do It With A Pen

You Can Too!

Applications are available at the Info. Desk.
Deadline February 10-17.

Write Yourself In!