

CAFETERIA CONSTRUCTION PLANS

Community Notes

Continued from Page 4

UNC-G's first and second annual Jitters Jogs were held on a course laid out around campus as part of the Spring Fling weekend. There were 109 and 179 entrants respectively. The title of the race, contributed by Dr. Lois Andersen of the Dance faculty, was chosen to highlight the value of physical activity in coping with stress that students, faculty and the general public feel at this time of year.

This year's event is sponsored by UNC-G's Division of Campus Recreation, Elliott University Center Council and Pepsi Cola Bottling Co. of Greensboro. The Jitters Jog will consist of a 2 mile fun run and a 5 mile run. The run is free for UNC-G students, faculty and staff. The general public participation fee is $3.00 before April 12, $5.00 thereafter. Proceeds after expenses will go to the UNC-G Emergency Student Fund.

The race will start at Rosenthal Gym parking lot on the UNC-G campus at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, April 14, 1984. Awards will be presented in the Quad adjacent to the finish of the course. Early registration is encouraged. T-shirts will only be guaranteed for the first 200 entrants. The event will be conducted rain or shine, except in the event of severe weather. For entry forms, come by the Campus Recreation Office (011 Rosenthal Gym) or contact Tracey Gersh at 379-5924.

The Footpath Dance Company will perform in Dana Auditorium on Wednesday, March 28 at 8:15pm. Founded in 1976, the company has grown to become Ohio's leading modern dance company. Under the artistic direction of Alice Rubenstein, the six-member ensemble of professional dancers has received national acclaim as both a dance touring company and a school of contemporary dance. Footpath is a humanistic dance company, touching on a wide range of emotions while relating direct and powerful statements to its audiences about the human condition. Admission is free to Guilford students, faculty and staff. Admission to the public is $4 for adults and $3 for senior citizens and students.

The 1st annual "Mr. Guilford Contest" will be held on Friday, April 6th at 2:00 p.m. in Sternberger. The contest is open to all male students and faculty. Judging will be based on talent or personal expression, swimsuit exhibition and an interview. Judges will be selected from Guilford faculty. Among the prizes will be dinner for 2 at a local restaurant, a keg and a free pizza. For more information contact Terri Gainey, Denise Davis or Nancy Lessig.

The second annual Junior Olympics Day will be held on the Guilford College campus on Saturday, March 31st. The local kids participating range from 6-16 years old. They will compete in a wide variety of activities including a softball throw, relay race and a wheelbarrow race. Their participation in the games is being made possible by the Greensboro Best Friends Agency.

Interested Guilford students are being asked to volunteer their time to set up the games and to help with the kids. For more information, please contact Mary Stabile or Virginia Gill.

WELCOME BACK! Hope you had a good break. Several events sponsored by the Career Development/Placement Office are ahead of us, and I hope you are able to participate in them. They are:
JOB RECRUITING!

TUESDAY, MARCH 27
First Investors Corporation of Greensboro will interview on campus for Manager/Broker trainees. They desire to see Economics and Management majors. Sign up in the Career Office for an appointment.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 28
Guardian Life Insurance will interview on campus for insurance sales/management positions. Any major will be seen. Sign up for an interview in the Career Development Office.

THURSDAY, MARCH 29
High Point Public Schools will interview education majors. Sign up for an appointment in the Career Development Office.

FRIDAY, MARCH 23

The National Center for Paralegal Training, Atlanta, GA will interview persons for an appointment and/or further information.

CAREER FAIRS!

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21
A Public Service Career Fair will be held on campus in Sternberger Auditorium in the afternoon and evening.

TUESDAY, MARCH 27

A Liberal Arts Career Fair consisting of panel discussions and opportunities for employer conversations will be held from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. at the Elliott University Center, UNC-G. See Career Development Office for further details.

WORKSHOP!

FRIDAY, MARCH 30
"Effective Job Interviewing," an opportunity to gain some first-hand experience and information a most important aspect of getting a good job. Founders Hall, Room 203, 3-5 p.m. Come!