

DIVERSION

9

Live Performances

Renowned Jazz guitarist Stanley Jordan will appear Wednesday, September 17, at 8:15 pm in the Aycock Auditorium on the UNCG campus. Tickets are $8, $7 for students; call 334-5546 for more information.

The reggae band Truth and Rights will perform at the Somewhere Else Tavern (2017 Freeman Mill Rd., Greensboro) on Wednesday, September 17. For more information, call 273-7532.

•Karma Ibsen-Riley will be performing "Nine Women," at Aycock Auditorium (UNCG) on Sept. 18. Tickets can be purchased at Founders Hall information desk.

Group Sax will riff out some jazzy licks when they play at SECCA in Winston-Salem. Tickets are $2. For more information call 725-1904.

After signing with Arista Records, the Right Profile is back in town. The band will perform twice this Saturday at Ziggy's (518 Deacon Blvd., Winston-Salem). For more information, call 748-1064.

The late John Coltrane, world famous Saxophonist and High Point native, will be honored on what would have been his 60th birthday. "A Tribute to John Coltrane" will be held at High Point Central High School, on Saturday, September 20 at 7 pm. The documentary A John Coltrane Legacy will be run. There is no charge.

At Baity's, (521 Baity St., Winston-Salem), on Saturday, September 20, the Blue Oyster Cult will perform. For more information, call 272-1823.

On Sunday, Sept. 21, also in Aycock Auditorium, organist Maurice Clerc will perform at 8:15.

On Thursday, September 25, at UNCG, a concert designed to fund Citizens Against Censorship will be held. Speakers include those for and against censorship; bands include The Graphic, The Alkaphonics, Standard Deviation, and NRG. The concert will be held at 7:30 in the Cone Ballroom of the Elliott Center. Tickets are $5, $4 for students.

The Piedmont Blues Preservation Society, sponsors Roy Bookbinder when he takes the stage on September 26, 8 pm, University Inn, in an acoustical guitar performance.

THE SMITHEREENS: Especially For You

Enigma Label

By Rebecca Tox

The Elvis Costello vocals backed up by a basically country-influenced band, make The Smithereens (Jim Babjak, Dennis Diken, Pat DiNizio, and Mike Mesaros) come out sounding like a nearly-Top 40 band, but because of their indecisive style don't sound like they'll make it beyond playing at clubs. Chapel Hill's Don Dixon, produced this upbeat, new wave influenced album that is definitely better the second time you hear it. In cuts such as "Time And Time Again" the vocals are given a showcase they can't stand backed up by over-subdued drums. With "Blood And Roses" however, the drums pick up a bit, and the B-side sounds much better (maybe in contrast to the A-side). The tempo comes down, the drums and guitar take on a new wave sound. On the whole, the band is a little reminiscent of Jason and the Scorchers. If you can overlook the boring tracks, and you like a country-influenced sound, this is a pretty good album.

Play toy of the week

By Boo McKee

Frisbees -- Our own President Bill Rogers throws them, so they must be good. If you do not believe it, see page 1 of the Guilford football program under "President's Greeting."

guilfordian

Guilford College
Greensboro
N.C. 27410

Co-Editors-in Chief: Jay Reynolds, Jonathon Zimmerman.

Photographers: Marty Kerr, Rachel Rumsey, Andrew Stuart.

Contributors: Susan Chase, Joe Diana, Kent Finlay, Comer Gaither, Seth Hassett, Kitty Hubbard, Duncan McInes, Rich James, Marty Kerr, Wendy Lavine, Chawn Marsh, Boo McKee, Carlos Mijares, Laura Peters, Charlotte Schmickle, Moira Tayler, Diana Ward, Steve Williams, Amy L. Madison Zuhl.

The Guilfordian reserves the right to edit all articles, letters, and artwork for taste, veracity, and length. The deadline for copy is 12:00 pm on Saturday preceding the Wednesday of publication. Material may be left on the office door upstairs Founders, or by mail to Box 17717. The opinions expressed by the staff are their own and not necessary those of the paper or of Guilford College.

Printed by Stone Printing Co., Inc.

Published every two weeks.

Tantalizing Television Programming

Wednesday:

(CPT)8:00 pm "Chance to Learn"- Adult illiteracy in the United States and programs that are helping to solve the problem.

(45)10:00pm "Cousteau's Rediscovery of the World"-Cousteau plunges the depths of Cuban waters for a closer look at an armored Spanish cruising vessel/Interview with Fidel Castro on environmental awareness.

(CPT)10:00pm "Fighting Terrorism: A National Security View"- A simulation of what the White House National Security Council would do in the event of nuclear terrorist event.

(17)12:05am "Lady Sings The Blues"- The plight of Billy Holliday's tragic career, starring Diana Ross and Billy Dee Williams.

(8)12:30 a m "Night-life"-Guests include Dweezil and Moon Zappa, Ashford and Simpson.

Thursday:

(CPT)7:30 p m "Newsleaders"-Hedley Donovan (former Time magazine Editor in Chief) describes the magazine's influence on journalism.

(22)8:00pm "1941"- John Belushi and Toshiro Mifune star in a film where Californians panic due to post Pearl Harbor rumors of Japanese invasion in their home town.

(CPT)8:00pm "Living World"- Zebra's struggle for life among their predators in East Africa.

(17)10:00pm "The Long Ships"- An adventure for the Golden Bell of St. James, starring Sidney Poitier.

(8)12:30pm "Nightlife"-Guest Ozzy Osbourne.

(9)12:30pm "Time After Time"- Jack the Ripper is chased by H.G. Wells from Victorian London to San Francisco through a time machine, starring Malcolm McDowell and Mary Steenburgen.

Friday:

(20)8:00pm "2001: A Space Odyssey"- Keir Dullea, Gary Lockwood play astronauts that attempt to solve the puzzling mystery of a lunar monolith.

(10)11:30 "Tonight"-Guests David Letterman, and jazz hapist Andreas Vollenweider.

(20)12:00 "Ten Little Indians"- Shirley Eaton and Hugh O'Brian star in Agatha Christie's mystery.

(7)12:30pm "MTV Video Music Awards"- The selection of the years' best videos. Guests include INXS, Simply Red, the Monkees, Genesis, and 'til Tuesday.