Concert Band seeks recruits

The Guilford College Concert Band needs members, according to Eric Wachmann, Concert Band director.

People who play flute, clarinet, oboe, bassoon, saxophone, trumpet, trombone, horn, euphonium, tuba, bass, or percussion, are especially needed.

The Concert Band at Guilford consists of highly motivated students who are interested in maintaining or improving their musical skills, said Wachmann.

The ensemble plays music from classical to jazz and is dedicated to several performances throughout the year. The Concert Band has, in the past, also been invited to perform at select events around campus. There is a mandate to maintain a large ensemble at Guilford, and students are needed to make it a reality.

Members of the Concert Band are also eligible for scholarships that allow study of the individual's particular instrument. These scholarships are reserved for Concert Band members only.

Rehearsals are Tuesdays and Thursdays, from 3:30 to 4:45 p.m. Ed Lowe, Tim Lindeman, and Eric Wachmann may be contacted for those interested.

Women's rugby team meets

The Women's Rugby team met Mon., Aug. 30. The practice schedule has been set for Sundays at 4:00 p.m., Wednesdays at 3:00 p.m., and Fridays at 3:00 p.m.

Scheduled games include a scrimmage with Eno River on Sun., Sept. 12 at 3:30, and a University of Tennessee tournament Nov. 6.

People interested in women's rugby may contact Anne Lundquist, coach and faculty advisor at x2253 in the Academic Skills Center of the library.
