Community Senate Minutes

•Senate would like to congratulate the new executives for Senate next year:

Vital Akimana ~ President

Irving Zavaleta-Jimenez ~ Vice President

Brennan Aberle ~ Treasurer

Elizabeth Reilley ~ Secretary

•Inter Club Council allocated $250 to the Psychology Club to bring Mark Leary, a well known writer on social-psychology, to campus to speak. Read the Buzz for more details on date/location.

•Senate heard and accepted the allocation of $660 for the Science and Social Responsibility Conference. Four students will be attending the conference, which will focus on ethics of the sciences. The students plan to present the information they learn to the campus (TBA).

•Senate heard a proposal from The Pines for a potential Earth Day Festival on Earth Day, April 22nd. Potential activities included Hula-Hoop competitions, pull-up competition, juggling, potato sack races, recycling games and hands. Senate will decide on the proposal next week.

•Clay Harshaw is looking for writers to help with the organization of the First Year Advisory text books for next year. In an effort to make the text more desirable for students, the book will focus on being successful inclusively to Guilford College. Anyone interested in helping, please contact Clay via e-mail.

•Senate talked about the divisions of monetary funds for next year. The arrangement will promote more structure and more diverse events and activities on campus next year.

•50% on campus events

•12.5% Student Resident Council (SRC)

•12.5% Service Coordinating Council (SCC)

•12.5% Academic Conferences

•12.5% Weekend Programming (Fridays & Saturdays)

•LAST DAY TO SUMMIT PROPOSALS FOR SPRING 2007 IS SUNDAY, MARCH 31, to be presented to Community Senate on Wednesday, April 4 at 7 p.m.

•All clubs must submit a budget and sign up for Budget Hearings. If not, the club will be cut! Budget hearings will be held April 16th-19th. Contact Will Vormelker for more information.

• Please be safe, smart and courteous while celebrating our much loved Serendipity. Remember all college rules and policies still apply. But most of all HAVE FUN!!!
