COMMUNITY SENATE MINUTES

Nov. 7, 2007

Steering Updates

Greg Stolze proposal approved in ICC. The Community Concerns Forum was postponed.

The Online Community Forum is up on Moodle. Community members can listen to recordings of Senate Meetings and continue discussions about campus issues in online forums. See page 5.

Old Proposals

Poetry Club: Some senators and community members take issue with the club's name "The Slaves of Pen and Paper." The club is approved, with a $500 provisional budget.

New Proposals

Heritage Day Celebration at Penn Station ($828.00): 60 students would be going on the trip to learn about Gullah culture, whose total cost is around $11,000.00.

CAB Formal (4,395.00): CAB is asking for this money to cover the tent rental fee for a tent to be set up on campus for the 1920s-themed formal. This year they want the event to be available to more students so CAB decided it would be better to have the formal on campus and be free.

There is some disapproval about the cash bar. If CAB does not get the money from senate they will probably have the event off-campus.

We will have an open steering committee meeting on Sunday at 2 p.m. in Boren Lounge to decide the issue.

New proposals are given at least one week after first being introduced to allow time for community input. All new proposals will be continued the following week.

Dining Services RFP Committee: This is the Request for Proposal committee that is putting together the document to be sent out to the companies who will be bidding on the dining services contract.

All interested community members can e-mail Katie Yow (kyow@guilford.edu) with questions and input.

Please direct any comments you have about these proposals to your Senate representative, or bring them to the next Senate meeting on Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Boren Lounge in Founders Hall. You can also e-mail your comments or new proposals to senate@guilford.edu.

THE GUILFORDIAN

The Guilfordian is the editorially independent student newspaper of Guilford College. The Guilfordian exists to provide a high-quality, reliable, informative and entertaining forum for the exchange of ideas, information and creativity within Guilford College and the surrounding community.

General staff meetings for The Guilfordian take place every Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the commons on the 2nd floor of Founders Hall, and are open to the public.

LETTERS

The Guilfordian actively encourages readers to respond to issues raised in our pages via letters to the editor.

Letters can be submitted via our Web site (www.guilfordian.com), and should be submitted by 3 p.m. on the Sunday before publication and not exceed 300 words. Letters that do not meet the deadline or word limit will be considered on a space-available basis. Anonymous letters will not be accepted.

By submitting a letter to The Guilfordian, you give The Guilfordian permission to reproduce your letter in any format. The Guilfordian reserves the right to editorial review of all submissions.

ADVERTISING

The Guilfordian has a circulation of 1,500 copies distributed to several locations throughout the Guilford campus every Friday when regular classes are in session. If you are interested in advertising in The Guilfordian, send an e-mail to GuilfordianAds@guilford.edu for a rate sheet and submission guidelines. We can design a customized ad for you if you need this service.

The Guilfordian reserves the right to reject advertisements.
