COMMUNITY ACTION CORNER

Nov. 27 6 p.m.-9 p.m. in Bryan Jr.
The movie "Life and Debt" will be shown with discussion afterward. Life & Debt is a woven tapestry of sequences focusing on the stories of individual Jamaicans whose strategies for survival and parameters of day-to-day existence are determined by the U.S. and other foreign economic agendas.

Nov. 28 6 p.m.-8 p.m. in Boren Lounge.
There will be a workshop entitled "Building Sweatfree Communities." Theresa El-Amin from the Southern Anti-Racism Network will be putting on this interactive workshop about community organizing of anti-sweatshop ordinances.

Nov. 29 7 p.m. in Founders Gallery. Light & Shadow: A Storyteller's Journey in Africa.
Connie Regan-Blake, a professional storyteller, will tell stories from her trip to Uganda and the "Beads for Life" program will be featured. "Beads for Life" is a non-profit organization helping women support themselves and their families through the making and selling of beads. Beads will be available for purchase at the event.

CORRECTIONS

On page 9 of our Nov. 9 issue, the photo of Flor Garduno's art work was taken by Terry Hammond.

COMMUNITY SENATE MINUTES

Nov. 7, 2007

The CAB Proposal for a tent for the Formal was passed ($4,395.00). The proposal was approved through a vote. Amelia Holloway was approved as Shore representative for the remainder of this semester.

Alex Knox was approved as Binford representative.

Rohit Gandhi was approved as Apartments North representative.

Old Proposals

Heritage Day Celebration at Penn Center ($828.00) approved.

New Proposals

Service Trip to India ($6,000): 18 students and staff are planning to go to India to do service work at 2 locations in Rourkela.

Conference Travel Expenses ($1,020.00): Amanda Oehlert has had a paper accepted to a symposium conference and she would like to attend on Nov. 29 in Chico, Calif. Approved.

New proposals are given at least one week after first being introduced to allow time for community input. All new proposals will be continued the following week.

Please direct any comments you have about these proposals to your Senate representative, or bring them to the next Senate meeting on Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Boren Lounge in Founders Hall. You can also e-mail your comments or new proposals to senate@guilford.edu.

You can listen to the meeting and read the rest of the minutes on Moodle, just sign-up for the Online Community Forum.

THE GUILFORDIAN

The Guilfordian is the editorially independent student newspaper of Guilford College. The Guilfordian exists to provide a high-quality, reliable, informative and entertaining forum for the exchange of ideas, information and creativity within Guilford College and the surrounding community.

General staff meetings for The Guilfordian take place every Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the commons on the 2nd floor of Founders Hall, and are open to the public.

LETTERS

The Guilfordian actively encourages readers to respond to issues raised in our pages via letters to the editor.

Letters can be submitted via our Web site (www.guilfordian.com), and should be submitted by 3 p.m. on the Sunday before publication and not exceed 300 words. Letters that do not meet the deadline or word limit will be considered on a space-available basis. Anonymous letters will not be accepted.

By submitting a letter to The Guilfordian, you give The Guilfordian permission to reproduce your letter in any format. The Guilfordian reserves the right to editorial review of all submissions.

ADVERTISING

The Guilfordian has a circulation of 1,500 copies distributed to several locations throughout the Guilford campus every Friday when regular classes are in session. If you are interested in advertising in The Guilfordian, send an e-mail to GuilfordianAds@guilford.edu for a rate sheet and submission guidelines. We can design a customized ad for you if you need this service.

The Guilfordian reserves the right to reject advertisements.
