

WHAT THE HELL?!! CON

Yachting Club sponsors weekend of geekery, brings students together

(Far left) "Nerdcore" artist MC Frontalot enchants during his What The Hell?! Con concert in Dana Auditorium on Feb. 5. (Immediate left) Sir Richie Green (left) and Dame Lori Winkelstein duel on Feb. 6, in the Guilford Quad. (Above) Blak Lotus, bassist for Frontalot, takes the mic.

(Immediate right) Feb. 5 saw the Flaming Faeries put on a mesmerizing fire show outside Dana Auditorium. (Far right) At the Geek Auction held later that evening, guests were encouraged to bid on "delightful young geeks" to dance with at the formal following the event. Proceeds from the auction were donated to Child's Play, a charity that raises money to purchase toys, games, books, and financial support for kids in hospitals across North America and the world.

What The Hell?! Con participants take a break in a Duke Hall classroom-turned-gameroom. Various Duke rooms were reserved for the event-packed weekend, with labels such as "Bad Movies Room," "Keep on the Borderlands" and "Jon Hatch Memorial Game Room."

FOR MORE COVERAGE AND PHOTOS, HEAD TO GUILFORDIAN.COM