CORRECTIONS

In Issue 22 of The Guilfordian, in "Senate election results: and the winner is..." the correct percentage of student voters was 38 percent. Also in that article, Tim Leisman won by a little over than 30 votes.

In "Senate leaders should not be paid for services to school," it is not noted that any organization can give stipends.

THE GUILFORDIAN

The Guilfordian is the independent student newspaper of Guilford College. The Guilfordian exists to provide a high-quality, reliable, informative and entertaining forum for the exchange of ideas, information and creativity within Guilford College and the surrounding community.

General staff meetings for The Guilfordian take place every Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. in Founders Hall, and are open to the public.

ADVERTISING

If you are interested in advertising in The Guilfordian, send an e-mail to GuilfordianAds@guilford.edu for a rate sheet and submission guidelines. We can design a customized ad for you if you need this service. The Guilfordian reserves the right to reject advertisements.

LETTERS

The Guilfordian actively encourages readers to respond to issues raised in our pages via letters to the editor. Letters can be submitted via our website (www.guilfordian.com), and should be submitted by 3 p.m. on the Sunday before publication and not exceed 300 words. Letters that do not meet the deadline or word limit will be considered on a space-available basis. Anonymous letters will not be accepted. By submitting a letter to The Guilfordian, you give The Guilfordian permission to reproduce your letter in any format. The Guilfordian reserves the right to editorial review of all submissions.
