The first J-Term has come and gone. During this time, students explored a field or project for a brief three weeks. In the case of the Theatre Studies department, Franz Kafka's "The Trial" was prepared and staged.

"I think that's what J-Term is supposed to be about, taking on a challenge that couldn't be replicated in the Fall or Spring semester," said Marc Williams, visiting instructor of theatre studies and director of "The Trial."

Most J-Term projects ended promptly after

Res. Life says Mary Hobbs residents, Greenleaf can stay

PLANS TO RENOVATE THE HISTORIC DORM NO LONGER EFFECT SPRING STUDENTS

BY ALI KRANTZLER

After many residents had packed up and relocated, the women of Mary Hobbs returned from J-Term to find that the proposed summer renovation to their dorm has been postponed indefinitely.

Initially, Guilford was promised a large portion of the requisite funds in the will of a former Mary Hobbs resident and Guilford alumna.

However, it was recently discovered that this money could not be put toward the renovation due to specific stipulations in the will.

"(The money) was earmarked for scholarships and endowing faculty positions, great stuff, but not allowing us use it for Hobbs," said Vice President of Student Affairs Dean of Students Aaron Fetrow. "The reality is we were under the impression from (the donor) before she passed away that Guilford was getting this money and we could do what we wanted with it ... and she
