

THE GUILFORDIAN

The Guilfordian is the student-run newspaper of Guilford College. It exists to provide a high-quality, reliable, informative and entertaining forum for the exchange of ideas, information and creativity within Guilford College and the surrounding community.

General staff meetings for The Guilfordian take place every Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. in Founders Hall and are open to the public.

ADVERTISING

If you are interested in advertising in The Guilfordian, send an e-mail to GuilfordianAds@guilford.edu for a rate sheet and submission guidelines. We can design a customized ad for you if you need this service. The Guilfordian reserves the right to reject advertisements.

LETTERS

The Guilfordian actively encourages readers to respond to issues raised in our pages via letters to the editor. Letters can be submitted to guilfordian@guilford.edu by 3 p.m. on the Sunday before publication and should not exceed 300 words. Letters that do not meet the deadline or word limit will be considered on a space-available basis. Anonymous letters will not be accepted. By submitting a letter to The Guilfordian, you give The Guilfordian permission to reproduce your letter in any format. The Guilfordian reserves the right to editorial review of all submissions.

CORRECTION

In Issue 7, the sports timeline on the backpage incorrectly stated that the date of the first co-ed dance was in 1968. The campus-wide ban on dancing was lifted in 1934 and the first dance was on February 9 with a Valentine's Day theme. Many thanks to Grace Ethier for catching that one!
