CENTER FOR CONTINUING STUDIES, INC.

Last April, the Rana Plaza building collapsed – the latest in a series of preventable factory fires and collapses that have killed over 1,800 Bangladeshi garment workers since 2005. Come join a community forum on the worker safety crisis in Bangladesh and the role that local Greensboro apparel giant VF Corporation can play in preventing these disasters from claiming more workers' lives.

Special guests include:

- Aleya Akter, General Secretary of the Bangladesh Garment and Industrial Workers Federation, one of the leading garment worker federations in Bangladesh
- Aklima Khanam, an 18-year-old survivor of the Rana Plaza collapse
- Pricey Harrison, a Democratic Member of the North Carolina House of Representatives, representing the 57th district

BackPack Beginnings

BackPack Beginnings is here again with Guilford College and we are going to fill up backpacks of many children with food!

We will be here until Friday, April 11, tabling to raise money for these children.

The money raised from selling tickets will be given to BackPack Beginnings and distributed across Guilford County.

Also, until April 11 we will have boxes on campus to collect food and money donations here at Guilford.

The Mission

To serve and meet the most basic needs of underprivileged children in Guilford County one backpack at a time. The aim is to create a new beginning by providing them what they need the most – food and comfort.

To learn more about BackPack Beginnings, go to their website:

Just think, $5 can feed a hungry child for one weekend!
