

THE GUILFORDIAN

The Guilfordian is the student-run newspaper of Guilford College. It exists to provide a high-quality, reliable, informative and entertaining forum for the exchange of ideas, information and creativity within Guilford College and the surrounding community.

General staff meetings for The Guilfordian take place every Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. in Founders Hall and are open to the public.

ADVERTISING

If you are interested in advertising in The Guilfordian, send an email to guilfordianads@guilford.edu for a rate sheet and submission guidelines. We can design a customized ad for you if you need this service. The Guilfordian reserves the right to reject advertisements.

LETTERS

The Guilfordian actively encourages readers to respond to issues raised in our pages via letters to the editor. Letters can be submitted to guilfordian@guilford.edu by 3 p.m. on the Sunday before publication and should not exceed 300 words. Letters that do not meet the deadline or word limit will be considered on a space-available basis. Anonymous letters will not be accepted. By submitting a letter to The Guilfordian, you give The Guilfordian permission to reproduce your letter in any format. The Guilfordian reserves the right of editorial review of all submissions.

Corrections

In Issue 6, in Aubrey King's article "Washington Redskins' racist mascot must be changed," the quote "The flying pandas," should have been attributed to sophomore Nick Matt. In Amol Garg's article "Guilford golf graduates land careers in China," Ron Cruickshank was listed as graduating in 2007. He graduated in 1972.
