

POINT-CREST

PUBLISHED MONTHLY FOR EMPLOYEES
OF
HIGH POINT WEAVING
AND HILLCREST THROWING
COMPANIES

OFFICE:
PLANT PERSONNEL
DEPARTMENT
HIGH POINT WEAVING
AND
HILLCREST THROWING
COMPANIES

REPORTERS

HILLCREST—Kathryn Church, Beulah Kidd, Mary Fender, Ophelia Saltz, Bernice Parrish, Dorothy Ivey, Kathleen Shives, Mary Coltrane, Agnes La Mora.

HIGH POINT—Kathryn Leach, Mary Morris, John Stinson, Ada Helmstetter, Sadie Lee Walker, Louise Kidd, Frances Evans, J. R. Shelton, Mary Ring, Vernon Webb, Marcella Thornton, Myrtle Jacobs, Kate Hunt, Virginia Kennedy, Eleanor Clark, Lillian Hughes, Winfred Clinard, Kathleen Shelton.

THE CHALLENGE OF THE DAY

The sudden passing of President Roosevelt from the Life Militant to the Life Triumphant has been indeed a great shock to all freedom loving people. It may well be that before these words are read that the war in Germany may be over. Shortly following this release the great San Francisco conference will take place.

In his passing, we have lost a leader of rare foresight and courage. Few of us ever realized the tremendous effect of his leadership on the people of our allied countries.

As the writer sees it, our present situation calls for the utmost effort on the part of everyone of us to assist in every way possible the full and complete prosecution of the war. Secondly, to back with every resource, the effort of the United Nations to effect both a just and enduring peace. Let us cling to the high qualities of his leadership in doing our part to help fulfill these two unfinished, yet, close at hand, objectives.

PURELY PERSONAL

CREST

We welcome Charlie Towery, a newcomer, to the first shift spinning department.

To John Clapp, Mazie Walker, Wilma Carithers, Edith Lambeth, Bessie Moore, James Hicks, all of whom celebrated their birthday in March we extend our wishes for a Happy Birthday.

Minnie Watson has returned to work after having been out for a short time with her eyes. We are glad your eyes are better and are glad to see you back at work, Minnie.

Joffre Johnson and Leonard Gibson spent Easter making a trip to Fort Bragg.

Have you often longed for a beautiful tenor voice? Let your worries be a thing of the past—see Layton Yow and make arrangements to take voice lessons from him and don't fail to take advantage of the special offer of learning to read notes.

Nell Brookbank visited her father who is quite sick in Stokes County during the Easter Holidays.

Hope Crouse has returned to her home from the Boulevard Unit of the High Point Memorial Hospital where she underwent an appendectomy on March 17th.

Grace Honeycutt attended a birthday dinner near Siler City Easter Sunday.

Lorene Hayes is recuperating satisfactorily after undergoing a tonsilectomy at the Boulevard Unit of the High Point Memorial Hospital on March 27th.

Mary Lou Thornton has been out of work for a few weeks due to a burned arm.

Nadine Bean visited relatives in Reidsville during the Easter Holidays.

Welcome to Eula Carroll who has returned to Hillcrest to work in the winding department on the first shift.

Annie Wilson spent Easter holidays with her parents near Scagrove.

Veola Foster spent a delightful Easter Monday at High Rock fishing. They had a picnic lunch and a weiner roast and wonder if they had fish to eat also.

We are glad to see Dora Turner back at work after being out sick a week.

Aileen Embler recently visited her sister in Lexington.

Second shift extends a welcome to the spinning department to Nellie Driggers, Ilene Davidson and Alma Davidson.

Maude Redmond has been transferred from the Soaking Department to the Spinning Department.

Mamie Johnson is now spending a few days with her son who is home on a furlough after being away for two years.

Welcome to the second shift cake winding department Madeline Collins and Mae Pearson.

Charlie Sizemore, former ironhead sander is now sweeper for second shift.

Soaking Department welcomes Pearl Meza.

Lou Callicutt and family enjoyed a bit of fishing Easter Monday at Mt. Gilead. Lou says he had good luck, but we're wondering if that isn't just another fish story.

Nannie Carter visited her mother in Elkin for the Easter holidays.

Clara Mae Creech and Mildred Driggers visited relatives in Cheraw S. C., for the Easter holidays.

Bernice Parrish and Estella Thompson visited Estella's mother in Jamestown Easter Sunday.

Jane Stewart visited relatives in Lincolnton for Easter.

We are glad to see Jeanette Britt back on the job after being out due to illness.

We're glad to see Gladys Moffitt and Polly Kennedy back on the job

"In The Spring A Young Lady's Fancy"

"In the spring a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of love." The feminine trend, however, is more to clothes as we see here. Brenda Marie Haywood, daughter of Lena Haywood, third shift Copping Department, shows the correct way to wear the latest in spring millinery. Her daddy, Leslie Haywood, is serving in the Navy.

again after being out sick for two weeks.

Lexie, Nellie and Mae Laste spent the Easter holidays with their parents at Ronda, N. C.

We welcome to the redrawing department Edward West, William Boles, and Violet Boles.

We're glad to have Onia Ruth back with us again.

Welcome to the second shift coning department, Joyce Smith.

Hazel Holcomb recently visited her husband, Pvt. Stanly Holcomb at Camp Croft.

Clada Cashatt spent the Easter holidays with her parents at Steeds N. C.

Mary Hendrix's small son, David, recently underwent an operation. We are glad to report that he is getting along fine.

Marvin Floyd is back to work after being out sick for several weeks. We are glad to see you back on the job Marvin.

Madie Ward recently spent a weekend in Virginia. We hear she attended an old-fashioned square dance and had a swell time.

Mollie Parks was sick a few days recently. We are glad to have you back, Mollie.

Mary Suggs is absent from work due to sickness. We hope you will soon be well again, Mary.

Amos Crofts recently underwent an operation at the local hospital. We wish for you a speedy recovery, Amos.

Third shift extends a welcome to Janie Bowers.

We are glad to have Sylvia Pope back at work after being out of work several days due to illness.

Doll Floyd is back to work after being absent a few days. Glad you are back, Doll.

To George Parks who recently celebrated his birthday, we extend our best wishes.

Office

At a recent office meeting when Allie Bell was to be speaker, he started off by asking how long he could talk. Much to his surprise he was told that he could talk as long as he wished. So he said, "How's about 'til seven o'clock?" Even more surprised was he to get the following reply, "That will be O. K., but we leave at six o'clock."

Seems that everyone had a swell time at the office combination weiner roast and pepsi party held at the City Lake on April 5. Don't ask Buck Davis how much he ate 'cause he might be embarrassed to tell the truth—in case he is, ask Jack Guyer.

Easter time is not only a time for eggs, but being a holiday, it's a time for celebration, too. Dot Woodell spent Easter Monday at the Bur-Mill Club taking a sunbath in the rain. Antilee Dinkins got red roses from Robert who is stationed in England while Kat Church received gardenias from Joe. Eleanor Parlier went to Greensboro and Lucille Culler to Winston-Salem. Jack Guyer and Buck Davis enjoyed taking inventory and Buck went to Charlotte afterwards. Allie Bell finally caught up on his sleep.

Young Man: "How about some old-fashioned loving?"

Sweet Young Thing: "All right. I'll call grandmother down for you."