

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Chapel service will be held during examinations on Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, but not on Wednesday.

On Wednesday, February 6, at the expanded Chapel service, Mr. Fred M. Tate, of High Point, North Carolina, will deliver an address. Mr. Tate is one of the leading manufacturers of furniture in the South. His subject, "A Growing Southern Community—Plans, Ambitions and Ideals" is sure to prove interesting.

Due to the fact that examinations will be held during the week, there will be no hockey practice.

SOCIALS

Miss Dorothy Brown of Greensboro was the week-end guest of Miss Elizabeth Parker.

Misses Ethel Cox, Virginia Redding and Mary Ragsdale spent the week-end in High Point.

Miss Elizabeth Kluttz spent the week-end at her home in Salisbury.

Misses Margaret Bencini and Kathryn Raymond spent the week-end in High Point with relatives.

Miss Hermine Ware of N. C. C. W. recently visited Miss Peggy Holbrook.

JOKES

Jigger Shaw—Huh, you'd better not, you might freeze to it.

Dyer—So Highee has gone into the real estate business. How is he doing?

Ryer—Making lots.

Many Do the Same

Bull—How many cigars d'ye smoke a day?

Durham—Any given number.

All For Him

"Your fiancee appears to have a will of her own."

"True. At times I regret that I am sole beneficiary."

His Life Cycle

She—"Why does that author go off on a tear and get drunk?"

He—"So that he can write stories about his experiences."

She—"But why does he want to write about his experiences?"

He—"So as to get some money."

She—"But why does he want money?"

He—"So he can go off on a tear and get drunk again."

The violinist who can make his instrument talk doesn't expect to hear it say, "You are stringing me."

High Rollers

"The waves are high today, aren't they?"

"Yes, look how they are tipping the bell-buoys."

Different

"O, come! Stop borrowing trouble."

"Borrowing! Gee whiz, man, trouble isn't like money. When I borrow money I can forget about it right away."

Seasonable Reflection

"I consider him as honest as the day is long."

"Yes; but the days are getting shorter."

The Rector—Now, Molly, would you rather be beautiful or good.

Molly—I'd rather be beautiful and repeat.
