The Salemite

Published Weekly by the Student Body

EDITORIAL STAFF
Flora Binder, 25 — Editor-in-Chief
Miriam Brieke, 26 — Manging Editor
Katle Holsbouser, 25 — Athletle Editor
Frances Jarrat 27 — Masie Editor
Fearl Martin, 28 — Feature Editor
Lois Culler, 25 — Reporter
Agnes Carlon — Announcement Editor
Dorottly Stewers, 27 — Reporter
Lois Wamble, 24 — Reporter

BUSINESS STAFF

Margaret Hanner, 25, Business Manage Ruth Efird, 26, Asst. Business Manage May Hairston, 26, Circulation Man'g'

With this issue of The Salemite, publication of the newspaper is sus-pended until February 7 one week after the end of—examinations!

Young Ideas by MIRIAM BRIETZ

On our desk, staring us in the face with cavernous eyes, is the lead of a gouldnan who has been dead of a gouldnan who has been dead of the start of our friend.

Now "Bony" has several missions to perform. For one thing, he keeps to perform. For one thing, he keeps the performance of the same end, that some day our own row, which was a substitute of the same end, that some day our own row, but the same end, that some day our own row, which was a substitute of the same end, that some day our own row, and that any time our fatter from the same end, that some end of the discovery of the same end, that some end of the discovery of the same end, the same endering to end, the same endering to work it out. He was the same endering to same end, the same endering to the same endering to work it out. The printer is waiting for this copy. The printer is wait refershes physically and mentally and makes possible greater accumpledment; and you will find your mental the property of the property of the property of a white it was to see the part althe undingited of white you insist on eight good hours sixty of the part that affects you your street, and the part that affects and the part tha first blow, the batchet developed hysteria and entirely lost its head. Later the head was found forly feet away, nearling comfortably behind a pite of rubbish. With a wild dear and down the down the states. Any watcher might then have seen our person, but it's good form journal-steally to call ornerders 'We' hatched by comparing the good of the down and down the states. Any watcher might then have been only the state of the state

Afternoon Hikes are Scheduled Exam Week

Not all of next week will be spent in intellectual preparation for examination and it has been anounced by the Physical Education Department that walks will be taken every afternoon directly after examinations are over. It is just as necessary to have some physical evertainton between the examinations are it is to prepare for them and it is to afford this recreation that the walks are scheduled.

Monday, January 26: 4:00 P. M.—Walk.

Tuesday, January 27: $:00 P. M.—Hockey Prac-tice for Juniors and Freshmen. $4:00 P. M.—Walk.

Wednesday, January 28: 4:00 P. M.—Hockey Prac-tice for Seniors an Sophemores. 4:00 P. M.—Walk.

Thursday, January 29: 4:00 P. M.—Hockey Prac-tice for Juniors and Freshmen. 4:00 P. M.—Walk.

Friday, January 30: 4:00 P. M.—Hockey prac-tice for Seniors and Sophomores. 4:00 P. M.—Walk.

Saturday, January 31 4:00 P. M.-Walk.

PIERRETTE PLAYERS
EXHIBIT SPLENDID
DRAMATIC TALENT

(Continuod from Page One)
tim of the andience. Misc Dorothy,
the of the andience. Misc Dorothy,
the of the andience. Misc Dorothy,
the of the andience of the continuous of the andience of th

OPEN FORUM

HONOR ON EXAMINATIONS

FIONDR ON EXAMINATIONS
Now the examination time is loaning up in the near future, the question of hone arises again with redoubled force. Although honor is an every-day matter which affects
every person all the time, it is a nevery-day matter which affects
every person all the time, it is a nevery-day matter which affects every person all the time, it is
an every-day matter which affects every person as the considered as person tion should be considered as person to make the considered as the considered as the top of the considered as the considered as the
top of the considered as the considered as the
top of the considered as the considered as the
top of the considered as the considered as the
top of the considered as the considered as the
top of the considered as the considered as the
top of the considered as the considered as the
top of the considered as the considered as the top of the considered as person
to the considered as the considered as the
top of the considered as person
to the considered as the considered as the
top of the considered as the considered as the
top of the considered as the considered as the
top of the considered as the considered as the
top of the considered as the considered as the
top of the considered as the considered as the top of the considered as the considered as thoughtful consideration, it will be found not too emphatic.

Cheating should be such an un-classified and the such and and the such as the such ail, to prove ourselves unworthy, thou ourselves incapable of doing show ourselves incapable of doling something fine and honorcable? Sometimes temptation is great. Sometimes it would be pittifully easy to glance at another paper or to whisper a word of information; and sometimes the need seems desperate But to those who resist the strong eat temptation is the greatest re ward—the reward of knowing them-selves to be strong and clean and honest.

selves to be strong and cean ima-homest.

There is the alightest desire to the alightest desire to the clear to any say—from whom the idea is so remote that they do not even hear the warnings. But for work as these, too, there is a duty. There is adanger that in their hon-esty they may forget that someone clee is more valuerable, and needs to be protected from herself. It is a proposed to the protection of the special control of the con-trol of the control of the con-trol of the control of the con-trol of vate and time prevent the among tempts of some other person's being tempts of some other person's being tempts. The greatest price in the world is far, far to earlier to make the price is only the passing of a college course, it is rillealously small. Such passing is not really passing of a college course, it is rillealously small. Such passing of a college course, it is rillealously small. Such passing of a college course, it is rillealously small. Such passing of the subject. It is merely a grade and at worth the ink with which it is written. Such a grade is, to the expect of the public, satisfactory, even of the subject is merely to be better in written in the world with the stolen nickle, which is a decirate that the other recean baught with the stolen nickle. What can come from them except shame and remorse and unhapping makes? And for the accessory before the fact, or the one who supplied the means of clearing by deliberately same self-disgust as for the cheater, but the subject is more honorable than the other. Both are equally guilty. Neither is more honorable than the other. Honor is a jewed without price. When it is sold for as palrey a term of the public satisfactory and the add new honors to the old tradi-tiens, to set new and higher stand-ards, than have ever been set be-fore? The question is a challenge. Our answer will mean more, per-haps, than we know. The time for the answer is at hand.

—Miriam Brietz.

February Third To Be Fireplace Day

Students Will Raise One Hundred and Twenty-five Dellars for New "Hut" and revery over 11st.

Sometime during the Fall, the student-body of Salem College and Academy veted to raise one half of the amount necessary to finish the fire-place in what was the fire-place in what was the coming the "student hur!" The matter was referred to the President's Ferum for immediate action and, as a result, there will be launched, during the work after examinations, a compalge for securing One bundred and twenty-few dollars is the amount to be raised. The method is an old one with "new trimmings." February third is the date. Class unembers will do the five entits per person is necessary to finish the fireplace.

Tue-day, February 2 will be "fireplace" day. Show your Salem spirit and influence your neighbor. Don't have cold feet."

Resentment Against.

Resentment Against Women at Oxford

I file at Oxford is not very pleasure of a volume of the control o